At the Twenty-seventh Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, on Tuesday, May 1, 1827.

The Right Hon. LORD GAMBIER, Vice-Patron and President, in the Chair.

The Report of the Committee having been read by the Secretaries, and the Statement of the Accounts of the Twenty-seventh Year,

On a Motion by the Right Hon. Lord Bexley, seconded by the Rev. Charles James Hoare,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, an abstract of which has been read, be printed under the direction of the Committee: and that this Meeting desires to record its sense of the Divine Goodness, in the continuance of that support which the Society has received during a year of considerable pecuniary distress, and in the general result of its operations abroad.

On a Motion by the Hon. and Rev. Gerard Thomas Noel, seconded by the Rev. John Raban, Missionary from Sierra Leone,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, amidst the various trials and difficulties of the West-Africa Mission, this Meeting regards the progressive enlargement of our knowledge of the Interior, and our increased intercourse with the African Nations, as furnishing ground of encouragement for continued exertions in diffusing the blessings of Christianity over that Continent; and hails, with thankfulness, the more extended labours of the Society's Missionaries and the active agency of the Press in the Countries bordering on the Mediterranean.

On a Motion by Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart. seconded by James M. Strachan, Esq.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while the Meeting acknowledges with gratitude to Almighty God the general prosperity of the Society's labours in the East and the especial blessing which has been vouchsafed in some parts of Southern India, it cannot but deeply deplore the loss which Christian Labourers have sustained in the death of the late Bishop of Calcutta: but the Meeting, impressed with a sense of the Divine Goodness in raising up such a pattern of Missionary Devotedness and Zeal, indulges the hope that the plans and purposes, which have hitherto been so successful in promoting the interests of the rising Church of Christ in India, may be approved and carried forward by the Prelate who has been called to succeed him in his high and holy office.

On a Motion by the Rev. John William Cunningham, seconded by the Rev. Henry Ridley,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Meeting regards with thankfulness the brightening prospects of the Australasia and North-West America Missions; believing, that, notwithstanding the difficulties peculiar to each, the Divine Blessing has rested upon them.

On a Motion by the Rev. Charles Simeon, seconded by Major-General Ord,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Meeting learns with pleasure the progressive and promising state of the Institution at Islington; and, under a deep impression of the importance and arduousness of the duties with which a Missionary is entrusted; of the difficulties and discouragements to which he is exposed, and of the subtlety and power of those enemies with which he has to contend, desires to rely, with increasing simplicity, on the Grace of the Holy Spirit, which alone can prepare the Christian Labourer for his work, and sustain and prosper him in his toil.

On a Motion by the Rev. Hugh M'Neile, seconded by the Rev. George Hulme,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the sincere thanks of the Society be given to the Noble President of the Institution, to the other Vice-Patrons, and to the Vice-Presidents, for their continued protection; to the Treasurer, for his assistance; to the Rev. Henry Budd, M.A. for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to such Clergymen and other Gentlemen as have, during the last year, prepared or supported Associations; to the Younger Friends of the Society; to those Ladies who, in various places, have very successfully exerted themselves in promoting its interests; and to the Committee for their exertions: and that the following Gentlemen are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their Protection. VICE-PATRONS shall be appointed exclusively from among the Peers, Spiritual and Temporal. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upwards per Annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upwards, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upwards shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April. To such Meeting, those Members of the Society shall be summoned by Letter who reside within ten miles of the Metropolis: when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Institution shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed for the use of its Members.

ON THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church) a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The Office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The Office of the Committee of Funds, is to circulate information respecting the Institution; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as agents for the Society in the principal towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The Office of the Committee of Correspondence, is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The Office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful, the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee, and Three each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretaries, and Assistant Secretary shall be considered ex-officio Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All Payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Secretary or Assistant Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued.——The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence of his qualifications, and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a special meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose; respect however being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs, under the full conviction, that, unless he "prevent us in all our doings with his most gracious favour, and further us with his continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

By MISSIONARY, in the preceding List, is to be understood one who has been admitted to Holy Orders—by TEACHER, one who, not having been Ordained, engages, as a Catechist, in such religious care and general instruction of the people as may be consistent with his character as a Layman — by ASSISTANT, one who is chiefly occupied in School Instruction, as Superintendant, Master, Mistress, or Usher.

CHURCH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

WHEN a disposition appears in any place to assist the designs of the Society by establishing an Association in its support, a Meeting of persons favourable to such a measure should be called. The friends who meet for this purpose should form themselves into a "Church Missionary Association, in aid of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and should proceed to appoint a Committee and proper Officers.

In large Towns, comprehending several Parishes, it may be expedient to appoint a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, and a Secretary; with a pretty numerous Committee, composed of persons from the different parishes.

In Parochial Associations, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and a smaller Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, may be best suited to conduct the business.

It may sometimes be found expedient to form Associations in Separate Congregations in the same Parish, rather than one Association in the parish at large; and in this case also, a Treasurer, Secretary, and Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, will suffice to accomplish the object.

In a Voluntary Union of Friends, whether the members of the same family, the children of a school, or persons connected by affinity or friendship, such arrangements may be made as may prove most convenient to themselves.

In this manner, benevolent persons, willing to assist the designs of the Society, from the domestic circle to the largest town, may unite for a purpose most beneficial to their own minds, while it expresses a due regard to the glory of God in the salvation of the Heathen, and a proper sense of their own infinite obligations to Divine Mercy.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS SUITABLE FOR ASSOCIATIONS.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be, all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward, or, if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea; and also such Persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, or, if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per Annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Reports of this Association, and also the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at all their General Meetings: but Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will further receive a Copy of each Monthly Number of the Missionary Register.—Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at all Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society.—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors.

VI. The business of the Association shall be under the management of a Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretaries, Governors, and a Committee not exceeding ——— Lay Members of the Established Church, and of all Clergymen who are Members of this Association. The Committee to meet on the ——— in the months of January, April, July, and October, at ——— o'clock; Five Members being competent to act.

VII. The object of the Committee shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed Persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary Information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VIII. The whole of the Funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society in aid of its designs.

IX. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day in the month of ——— as shall be found expedient (of which due notice shall be given), when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be presented.

2 CORINTH. V. 20.

NOW, THEN, WE ARE AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST, AS THOUGH GOD DID BESEECH YOU BY US: WE PRAY YOU IN CHRIST'S STEAD, BE YE RECONCILED TO GOD!

I STAND before you this evening, My Christian Brethren, in the character of a substitute. This work of love had been assigned to a well-tried Labourer in the Vineyard of the Gospel, whose exertions in His Master's Cause, in a foreign clime, have not been unknown to you; and whose usefulness is suspended, we trust, only for a season. His piety, his acquirements, and, especially, his Missionary experience and zeal, had doubtless, with the blessing of God, informed, delighted and improved you; and, what I trust this occasion may never fail of producing, animated you to new efforts in the Cause of Missions. I sincerely regret this suspension of his usefulness; and entreat you to join me in fervent prayer to the Father of Mercies, that so valuable an instrument may be restored to the Church. But, while I regret this suspension, on account of your present loss, I am encouraged by the reflection, that the most able Minister is still but an instrument; that all good produced by the Word, is the result of the Divine Blessing; and that though

Paul may plant, or Apollos water, or that Timothy may be a substitute for the preaching of the full and abundant Gospel of the one or the mighty Scriptural eloquence of the other, yet that it is God alone that giveth the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God, that giveth the increase: (1 Cor. iii. 7.) Only let this blessed truth be remembered, and we have at once a corrective of unbelieving apprehension in the preacher, and of undue expectation in the hearer.

When this office of substitution was first proposed to me, I hesitated to give any reply. I trust that this was not the mere selfishness of nature shrinking from a call to extraordinary effort, but also the pause of sound discretion, fearful, by a hasty decision, of impeding a Cause which it was my desire to promote. A hasty compliance would have been rash—a hasty refusal would have been faithless. After a night of meditation and prayer, deeming it a call in Providence, I concluded to undertake the office. Blessed be God! the subject was by no means new to me. I had been providentially present at the First Anniversary Sermon preached for this Institution, by our sainted father, the Rev. Thomas Scott; and though, at that time, I had but very imperfect views both of the objects of the Society and of the importance of the glorious truths which it was established to recommend, yet I then felt a deep interest in favour of Missions, which, I trust, has been maintained, by the Divine Blessing, to this hour. And I deem it no small mercy, that I am permitted, on this occasion, to bear my feeble testimony to the excellency of a Cause, at once the most honourable to God and the most useful to man.

Bear with me then, My beloved Brethren, I beseech you, while I address myself to this work. I could have desired more time—for thought, for impression, for composition, and more especially for prayer. HE will bear with me, I know, whose Cause I plead, if I have but a single eye and a simple intention to glorify Him. HE will strengthen the feeble knees, and the hands which hang down: (1 Heb. xii. 12.) I entreat your prayers to Him in my behalf.—May He abundantly answer those prayers, by infusing His own gracious Spirit into your hearts! I shall have no fear, then, that you will hear me with indulgence and kindness.

Six thousand years of groans and anguish are rapidly hastening to their end; and every Missionary Anniversary which we hold becomes more interesting, as it comes charged with more important developements. The world is rising from a state of torpid neutrality, as to the effect of Missions. The Bible, with the enforcement of its blessed truths on the attention of mankind, is producing a decided, a universal impression. The three great Divisions of the Christian Church—the Greek, the Latin, and the Protestant; the Jews, yet beloved for the fathers' sakes; the Mohammedan Delusion, in its two professions of Omar and Ali, Ottoman and Persian; and the immense population of the Pagan World in all its characteristic variety—all these fields of spiritual culture declare, with no equivocal voice, that the share has not been applied in vain. The produce, indeed, has not been uniformly encouraging—nor could it justly be expected to be so; but whether encouraging or otherwise, all demands a decided and unhesitating advance; all demands a fearless and persevering application of the remedy, which the God of Mercy has so eminently placed at your disposal, for the restoration of a lost world to Himself.

But, is not the Lord gone out before us? (Judges iv. 14.) And what is the Christian Minister's duty, on this occasion, but to stimulate your energies to corresponding exertions; to call upon you to exemplify your principles; and to urge you, by a more ardent faith and a more active charity, to the application of that great remedy which God has revealed for the healing of the nations? (Rev. xxii. 2.) May His Blessed Spirit reveal it in power to all our hearts at this season! May it be a revelation of the righteousness of God from faith to faith (Rom. i. 17); and be a Word of Life, not only to our own souls, but to those that inhabit the remotest regions of the earth!

I propose the Text to your consideration in the following manner: here are,

I. THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER'S DESIGNATION: HE IS AN AMBASSADOR OF MERCY:—"WE ARE AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST."

II. THE DIGNITY OF HIS CHARACTER: HIS VOICE IS THAT OF HIS MASTER—HIS ENTREATY IS THAT OF HIS SAVIOUR:—"AS THOUGH GOD DID BESEECH YOU BY US, WE PRAY YOU IN CHRIST'S STEAD!"

III. THE SUBJECT OF HIS EMBASSY—THE RECONCILIATION OF A SINNER TO GOD:—"BE YE RECONCILED TO GOD!"

IV. THE APPLICATION OF THE SUBJECT TO OUR PRESENT PURPOSE:—"NOW THEN."

And now, Be Thou exalted, Lord, in Thine own strength! so will we sing and praise thy power. (Ps. xxi. 13.)

I. HERE IS THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER'S DESIGNATION: HE IS AN AMBASSADOR OF MERCY:—"WE ARE AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST."

The Ambassador is the Representative of his Prince: he is sent to negotiate his affairs. There are two leading considerations with him, in the discharge of his duty—the Character of those to whom he is sent, and the Purpose which he is charged to execute towards them.

A leading consideration, with the Christian Minister, is the CHARACTER of those to whom he is sent.

He is not sent to kings or princes, the noble, the wise, or the prudent, the distinguished, the refined, or the rich; neither is he sent to the poor, the labourer, the servant, or the slave: he is sent to them all, as the general subjects of his charge; but he says, with St. Paul, Henceforth know we no man after the flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we Him no more: (2 Cor. v. 16.) It is the soul, the immortal soul, as such, that is the subject of his charge; and whether it be found in the palace and the mansion, in the streets and lanes of the city, or in the high-ways and hedges, (Luke xiv. 21, 23.) in the crowded night-cellar or the peasant's cot, all need the same awakening application—YOU HAVE A SOUL TO BE SAVED!

Neither is he sent to men as exhibiting the nicer distinctions of character. This man is prudent, the other is learned; this man is civilized, the other is refined; this man is respectable, the other is less so; this man is amiable, the other is repulsive—there is no more of Christ in one of these characters than there is in the other. If the man is in Christ, there is a decidedly new creation of his soul: therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. This is his distinction now: Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new: (2 Cor. v. 17.)

Neither is he sent to men as exhibiting still broader distinctions of character; whether civilized or savage, learned or ignorant, dull or acute, in this state of society or the other, in this climate or the other: or to men who display the most opposite moral distinctions—not to the elder son, proud of his comparative innocence; or the younger son, lost in profligacy and misery: the natural disposition of the soul of the one towards God is not greater than that of the other—spirituality is no more inherent in the one than in the other. The Apostle states, distinctly, All things are of God: all things that tend to spiritual life, and the renewal of our nature, are of God; who has adopted a mode of His own, applicable to every description of human character; who hath reconciled us to Himself, by Jesus Christ.

If, then, it be to no condition of men, if it be to men not of nicer or broader distinctions of character, that this Ambassador is sent, under what character is he to address mankind?—Simply as SINNERS. This is the universal character of fallen humanity. The Scripture hath concluded, or shut up together, all under sin (Gal. iii. 22); for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God (Rom. iii. 23): all have come short of God's glory, or purpose in forming them: all are rebels: all are guilty of foul revolt; all are found in open warfare against their God: There is none that doeth good, no, not one: (Rom. iii. 12.) It is neither natural, nor moral, nor artificial distinction of civilized life that makes the difference here: man, all over the world, at all times, in all places, under all circumstances, is found a sinner against God. You may collect specimens of earth from either quarter of the world; you may decompose them, and reduce them to their elements; and however they may differ in certain properties, in one they all agree—they are material, and perish in the using. In an army of rebels there is every variety of character; but there is one prominent and distinctive—they are rebels all. Thus it is with man: find him where you may; modify him as you please; shape him as you will, by the square and plummet of civilization and refinement; yet no perfection of art can make him less than a Sinner, no attainment of science can make him less than a Rebel to his God.

It is to man, the SINNER, then, that this Ambassador is sent—to man, dead in trespasses and sins (Eph. ii. 1); corrupt by sin, impotent by sin; without strength or disposition to return to God; ungodly (Rom. v. 6); without God in the world: in plain terms, it is to man, the ATHEIST (Eph. ii. 12), that this Ambassador is sent: and if he address him under any character short of this, his embassy is vain; he comes short of its purpose. He has mistaken the disease of his patient, and what wonder if his remedy fail? He is ignorant of the character which he is sent to benefit; what wonder if his message be unavailing?

Here then, I apprehend, is the firm foundation of all usefulness in the Ministry of the Gospel—a deep conviction that man is a sinner against his God; evidenced by all history, all experience past and present, the dictates and assumption of the whole Word of God, the character of Christ revealed therein as the remedy for sin, and, above all, the experimental conviction of this awful truth in the plague of the Minister's own heart. No man is fit for a Minister of Christ, who does not feel that he is a perishing sinner, sent to perishing sinners with this embassy, Be ye reconciled to God!

It is plain, then, that if the subjects of his Ministry be perishing sinners, this Minister cannot be the Ambassador of the Law. The Law demands spiritual strength, but the sinner is without strength: the Law demands an unsinning obedience, but this sinner disobeys in all he thinks and speaks and does: the Law never did, and never can, make imperfect man perfect. In Paradise, it was the evidence that he could not stand in his own unassisted strength; and on Sinaï, it was not given for a righteous man, but for the restraint of unrighteousness; and, thus multiplied in its precept, it could but multiply sin, and aggravate the offence: Moreover, the Law entered, that the offence might abound: (Rom. v. 20.) By the Law is the knowledge of sin (Rom. iii. 20); for sin is the transgression of the Law: (1 John iii. 4.) Apply the rule of Law to a rebel in arms; and it is at once the evidence of his rebellion, and the occasion of his repeating the offence: or, should he be conscious of the majesty of the authority which he has violated and of the perfection of the rule which he has broken, this consciousness, without mercy, can only utterly overwhelm him with despair, and terrify him with the justice of the punishment which he deserves. Let the Law, then, act as the pioneer, to prepare his way; but let the Minister of the Gospel remember, that his designation is, not the Ambassador of the Law, but the Ambassador of Christ: and why the Ambassador of Christ, but for the very purpose of restoring a sense of the perfection of the Law, the love of the Law, and that service to the Law which is perfect freedom to the human heart?

for it is by the power of the Gospel alone that we are enabled to obey the Law.

He is not the Magistrate, with his politic rule: he is not the tatesman, with the devices of the Cabinet: he is not the Legislator, with his civil code: he is not the wise man, with the deductions of reason: he is not the prudent man, with his subtle schemes: he is not the Moralist, with his rigorous precept: he is not the Orator, with his irresistible flow of eloquent suasion: he is not the Poet, with his beauty or sublimity of imagination: he is not the man of feeling, with all the tenderness of nature and the melting eye of lovely sympathy: he is not Moses himself, fresh from the Divine conference, with his shining countenance, and his tables yet warm with the finger of God. Not one of these, admirable as they are, nor all combined in one man, will suit the character to which he is sent. It is to man, the SINNER, that this Ambassador is sent—not the partial, but the total sinner—not the impoverished, but the ruined—not to man hurt by sin, but to man dead in sin—not man to be repaired, but to be made—not to be rectified, but to be created. A totally new principle, then, from any thing that this world knows, must be applied: a message never yet thought of by man must be brought—a message which adapts itself to man, as a vile, a helpless, and a miserable sinner—even a message of mercy from his offended God, which will at once abolish the guilt of sin from his conscience, and subdue the power of sin in his heart.

Behold, then! (I use the sublime opening of the Forty-second Chapter of Isaiah) Behold, then! not a Prince, not a Statesman, not a Legislator, not the wise or prudent, not the Moralist, not the Orator, not the Poet, not the man of feeling, not Moses himself; but, behold! the Saviour, just adapted to the sinner—my servant, my Son made flesh, whom I uphold in His character of Mediator; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; my chosen Redeemer, in whom my soul looks upon lost man with full complacency. I have put my Spirit upon Him: the power to restore my image to the human soul I have vested in Him: He shall bring forth judgment, or righteousness, to the Gentiles. I have just suited His character to their wants. His meekness shall condescend to their infirmities: He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street; He shall adapt himself to the weakness of the weakest: a bruised reed shall He not break; and the smoking flax He shall not quench: the perfection of man shall be in Him: He shall bring forth judgment unto truth: a righteousness which supplies every defect both of sin and infirmity, and which squares with the exactest proportion of justice, shall be in Him. And, as His meekness suits the infirmities of men, His perseverance suits their unwillingness, their caprice, their neglect, their contempt, their rejection of Him. He shall not fail, nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment in the earth—till He has fully accomplished the justification of fallen men: and the Isles, the Heathen, shall wait for His Law—a Law of pity, of kindness, of mercy, and of grace. It is a SAVIOUR that man wants, and not a Legislator or a Philosopher: it is the Prince of Peace (Is. ix. 6), and not a warrior with human power and human weapons: it is mercy, meeting its correlative misery: it is grace, bearing with sin and infirmity: it is pardon, pronouncing peace. The character of man is, he is a sinner against his God: this is the source of all his misery. If he be met in this character, God suits Himself to his condition. God meets him in this very character: He gives him an unmeasured proclamation of mercy; The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin (1 John i. 7). Let the most desperate sinner living accept this, and, in the pardon of sin and the reception of mercy, a new principle of obedience is imparted to his soul. Thy sins are forgiven:—thy faith hath saved thee: go in peace: (Luke vii. 48, 50.) Let this voice be but effectually whispered by the Spirit of Christ to the soul, and the work is done; that soul is restored to God, to itself, and to its neighbour: for if the soul be once inclined to God, it is inclined to its own best interests, and to those of man also; there is imparted to it a new creation, the due exercise of all its relative obligations.

Here, then, is the Christian Minister's designation: he is an Ambassador of Mercy, he is a Herald of Grace. We are Ambassadors for Christ.

Just such is the character, I conceive, that our Church expects in us, who are her Ministers. It is as Ambassadors for Christ, that she sends us forth to minister to the population of the land. "Consider," she says, "with yourselves, the end of your Ministry towards the Children of God, towards the Spouse and Body of Christ*." It is not philosophy, or morality, or decency, or civilized refinement, that she expects of us, as the result of our ministrations; but that our people should be brought to "ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ." And can it indeed be said, that either our aim or our attainment equals her requisitions? The current of life is all against us—the pleadings of our own hearts are against us—the bias of education, the sentiments and habits, even the decencies and respectabilities of civilization, are against us: nay, the very moral atmosphere, which is the accredited substitute of genuine spirituality, with which we are daily surrounded, and which we have drunk in with the very milk of our mothers' breasts, is against us. All these claim to be substitutes for Christ: they all, imperceptibly, invade our Ministry, and are the False Christs, which exclude the Genuine Christ from our own hearts and from those of our people. And, who can disengage himself from the unchristianizing influence of a nominally Christian condition? Shall we retire from such a world, as Paul, the first hermit did, into the desert? or rather, shall we not retire, with Paul the Apostle, into Christ, and seek completely and entirely to be FOUND IN HIM? (Phil. iii. 9.) Assuredly as we, who are the Clergy, are filled with the Spirit of our Master, so shall we be efficient Ambassadors for Christ, and faithful Missionaries of grace at home. A Missionary for Christ is the genuine designation of a Clergyman of our United Church. Let us be but Missionaries at home, and Missionaries will not long be wanting to be sent abroad.

And, if such is the designation of the Minister at home, such is the designation of him who is to be sent abroad also. He is eminently an Ambassador for Christ. Never let him forget his designation: here is his authority—here is his power—here is his support—here is his comfort, his security, his success, and his reward: all his virtue is the virtue of Christ; and, as his title is an Ambassador for Christ, let the voice of his ministry be, I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of Thy righteousness, even of Thine only: (Ps. lxxi. 16.)

If such, then, be the designation of the Christian Minister, let us consider,

The dignity of the Minister's office is such, that it is impossible to magnify it beyond its due measure. He transacts the affairs of mercy between God and man, Christ and sinners. The subjects on which he is occupied, are not those of Nature or Providence: these are the proper business of Naturalists and Statesmen, and of men who are occupied in the affairs of time and sense: he must live in the flesh as a man; but the life which he lives in the flesh, he lives by the faith of the Son of God (Gal. ii. 20): his affairs are those of the Spirit: his transactions are for eternity. And feeble as his voice is which beseeches, it is as though God did beseech us by him: it is the voice of God in its most winning and persuasive tone; for it is the voice of the Incarnate God, of Christ himself—the voice of Christ, still incarnate, in the person of his Minister: so that, indeed, the pleadings of the Christian Ministry are the voice of Christ, still in the flesh, inviting men to be reconciled to God; and the feeblest of Ministers, who is commending the Gospel to the acceptance of sinners, is entitled to say, As though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead!

And how is it possible unduly to magnify the dignity of our office? We stand between the living and the dead, commissioned by God himself, and by Christ the Mediator of the New Covenant. Let a man so account of us, as of the Ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Cor. iv. 1); as instruments of spirituality, as workers together with God (2 Cor. vi. 1), as Ambassadors for Christ, as agents of the Spirit. Who are the four beasts, or living creatures, before the mystical throne of the Kingdom of Christ, but the Ministers of the Church, by the instrumentality of whose vigilance and activity and piety the interests of the Church are to be maintained? Are not Ministers luminous stars in the right-hand of the Saviour? and are not Missionaries the highest order of His Ministers—the jewels of His crown? for the messengers of the churches are the glory of Christ (2 Cor. viii. 23). Let the Minister but simply declare the whole counsel of God from His Word, and it is the voice of God that is uttered, and the prayer of Christ that is urged by him.

But the Minister is elevated, as the Man is depressed. As the Minister is full of Christ, so is he empty of Self. The excellency of the Minister is illustrated, as the Man recedes from all his distinctions of talent and acquirement. The most successful Minister on record was the most jealous of human attractions:—And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God: for I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified: and I stood not on any personal strength or recommendation; quite the contrary; I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling: and my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God: (1 Cor. ii. 1—5.) Brethren, where are the fastidiousness, and refinement, and exquisiteness of our modern pulpit, here? He debases the Man, that he may raise the Minister; he exalts Christ upon the depression of self; he elevates the Spirit upon the ruins of the flesh. Oh the meanness and penury of man, that would borrow a spark from Nature to light up the horizon of Grace! Oh, my Brethren! who is sufficient for these things? Who can take the crown from his own head—the crown of talent, of acquirement, of reputation, of human power, and human excellence—and cast it at the feet of his Saviour, and say, O Jesus! Thou alone art worthy? May the Spirit of Christ, this day, elevate every Minister above the Man, both in this Assembly and throughout the Church! and may this prayer be inspired into every heart, Be Thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength!

Let the Man thus merge in the Minister, and we arrive at the highest dignity of our office: For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake: (2 Cor. iv. 5.) The highest dignity of the Minister of Christ is, to be the servant of all: it is then that he adapts himself to the case of all, that he beseeches in God's place, and prays them in Christ's stead. The dungeon of the malefactor is not too ignominious for his resort: the weakness of childhood, the fatuity of age, the obstinacy of ignorance, the obduracy of determined profligacy, the repulse of savage malignity, the indifference or opposition of ferocious barbarism, or, still more, the decided enmity and cutting derision of the nominal professor, he is prepared to conciliate and to soothe: he becomes all things to all men: he beseeches, he solicits, he prays: when repulsed, he renews his supplications: his aim is, to save the soul—the immortal soul: for this, he cannot be too pressing in his entreaties, he cannot endure too much, he cannot descend too low. The deepest humiliation of the Saviour, when He became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross (Phil. ii. 8), was His richest dignity, His highest exaltation. The Minister resembles his Lord; his richest dignity is his genuine qualification for office—it is HUMILITY. If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all: and He took a child, and set him in the midst of them: (Mark ix. 35, 36.) There is the Minister of Christ: the man is a child; his dignity is humility.

If such be the designation of the Minister of Christ, an Ambassador of Mercy; and such the dignity of his character, the humiliation of self that he may exalt God; we are now prepared to consider,

III. THE SUBJECT OF HIS EMBASSY—THE RECONCILIATION OF A SINNER TO GOD.—"BE YE RECONCILED TO GOD!"

His subject is exactly suited to his character: Repent ye, and believe the Gospel (Mark i. 15). You are a sinner, but God is reconciled to you. Our message is a message of reconciliation from God to you: we do not ask you to reconcile God to you either by your repentance or your faith: this is an impossible task, to which, were we to invite you, we should only drive you to despair. He has prepared all this for you; and we invite you to ask Him for that repentance and faith, which, as a reconciled Father in Christ Jesus, He is prepared to bestow. We do not ask you to reconcile Him to you: that is done already, by a way of His own; in which He is at once just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus (Rom. iii. 26). All we ask is this—

Embrace the offer—accept the boon—be ye reconciled to God—BELIEVE, AND LIVE.

The guilty sinner will reply, But what must I do, to be saved? My iniquities have separated between me and my God (Is. lix. 11). How deep their dye! how long have they been persisted in! they are more than the hairs of my head (Ps. xl. 12). What satisfaction can I make? Where is compensation to be found? What good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? (Matt. xix. 16.) To this effort of terrified but unyielding nature, the resource of guilt driven to extremity, the God of Mercy opposes but one argument; Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: and this reasoning shall consist of one argument only, in answer to all you can bring in bar of reconciliation—a free pardon—a pardon for all your sins, however many, however great, however long persisted in: though your sins be as scarlet, garish and blazing as scarlet itself under the noontide sun, conspicuous and notorious, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, though they be deep and engrained and of blood-red dye, habitual and inveterate, they shall be as wool: (Is. i. 18.) Boundless mercy! unfathomable grace! inconceivable love! The freest pardon, the completest reconciliation, are yours. This, then, is our message, Be ye reconciled to God! All things are ready; they wait but your acceptance. Be reconciled to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost. Embrace the love of the Father, the grace of the Son, and the fellowship of the Spirit, and reconciliation is yours.

Embrace the LOVE of the Father.—All reconciliation originates in the Father's love. All are sinners; and there is not one, by nature, more disposed or more able to return to God than another; and it signally illustrates the riches of His mercy, and the greatness of His love, that He loved us, even when we were dead in sins (Eph. ii. 4, 5), without capability of spiritual motion or advance towards Him. It is something level to our conceptions for one to die for a righteous or for a good man—there is a peradventure of such a case—it is among the number of human possibilities. But God chose a very different way to commend His love towards us—one that was infinitely above the level of all human conception—in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us (Rom. v. 8): while the weapons of rebellion were yet in our hands, and those very hands in the act of striking, God distinguished His love even at such a moment, and said, It is peace.

But mark the winning mode in which this love is exhibited!—a mode which displays justice in its most accomplished perfection, and love in its most attractive guise. Here is love exemplified in the exactest compensation. A Mediator is appointed. This Mediator is the Second Person in the Triune Jehovah—the rich expression of all the perfections of Godhead. Abstract excellence, absolute and original perfection, no creature can comprehend. Essential truth, justice, power, holiness, goodness, wisdom, love, glory, infinity—these are subjects of underived intelligence, which created intellect never can conceive. But in the Second Person in the Godhead we have the expression of these perfections; and thus the Godhead is rendered intelligible in the degree in which it will please Jehovah to reveal Himself for His own glory and His creatures' good. Thus Christ was in the form of God (Phil. ii. 6); He is the WORD (John i. 1) which expresses the Divine Mind — the SON (Matt. iii. 17) who represents the Father — the IMAGE (Col. i. 15) that pourtrays His resemblance: the character of His substance is expressed on Him, as the seal on the wax; and He is the very splendour of His perfection, the brightness of His glory (Heb. i. 3). Here, then, is a Mediator, in whom all the love of the Father is deposited, as free mercy and disposable grace. The Father contemplates fallen man in the Mediator: in Him, His love chooses him before the foundation of the world; in Him, during the season of time, He orders the developement of his election, in his calling, his conversion, his justification, his adoption, his sanctification, his religious walk; and His love crowns this tissue of grace by a consummation of glory. Thus God is the God of all grace in the Son of His love (Col. i. 13): thus God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them: for He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (2 Cor. v. 19, 21): and here is the great mystery of Godliness, God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory (1 Tim. iii. 16). Embrace, then, the Father's love!

Embrace, also, the GRACE of the Son.—First, embrace the grace of His Person. There is no conceivable mode in which the sinner can of himself approach God: the flaming sword turns every way, to protect the tree of life; and the top of Sinaï is still in a blaze before his terrified sight. Man cannot return to God: God, therefore, returns to man in His Incarnate Son: He takes our nature into His own Godhead; and in the person of Jesus unites the two natures—human and divine. He is Jesus of Nazareth: He has a human name, a local habitation: He lives, He feels, He acts, He thinks as we do, yet without sin: He is compassed with our infirmities—He faints, He weeps, He sighs, He groans, He agonizes, He dies.

"Is this the INFINITE?—'Tis He,
My Saviour, and my God!"

Embrace the grace of His Work. United to the person of Christ, you are also, Believer, united to His work. Faith actually identifies you with your Saviour, from the stable of Bethlehem up to the throne at the right-hand of the Majesty on high. You live in Him, you obey in Him, you suffer in Him, you are crucified with Him, you die in Him, you rise in Him, you are quickened with Him, and you sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Eph. ii. 6). Faith has united you to Christ: you are found in Him (Phil. iii. 9); and all His work is yours.

Embrace the Son in His Offices. All grace is in the Son—all kinds, and all degrees: and His offices are sustained for the purpose of supplying grace according to the respective wants of His Church.—Does your soul droop under the frequent sense of the guilt of sin, from your repeated commission of it? Go straight to Him, who is at once the Priest and the sacrifice on His cross on Calvary. Is your prayer dull and heartless? and, are all your graces faint and imperfect? Apply to Him, as your Priest, who ever liveth to make intercession for you (Heb. vii. 25). Do you want divine wisdom and knowledge? and would you be taught not only the letter of the Word, but the spirit also? In Christ, as your Prophet, are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge Col. ii. 3); and He will effectually teach you. It is the book of Grace which interprets the book of Nature, the book of Providence, and the book of Glory. Christ is at once the subject and the teacher. It is neither the Minister nor the Word that can effectually teach you: it is the Spirit of Christ alone that can do this. Or, do you want repentance and contrition—the conquest of lust, of temper, of sin in all its manifold irritations and forms? Christ is a Prince and a Saviour (Acts v. 31), exalted for this very purpose: it is His sceptre that can sway every sin however prurient, and beat down every enemy under your feet. To use Christ in His offices, for the supply of our daily and hourly wants, is the rich experience of the life of faith. To live by faith, is to live upon Christ: it is to be continually receiving out of His fulness, and grace for grace (John i. 16).

Embrace the FELLOWSHIP of the Spirit also.—The Spirit is the divine applicant of all the rich provision of grace. All grace is in the Son—it is the office of the Spirit to dispense it. He shall glorify Me, says the Saviour; for He shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you: all things that the Father hath are mine (John xvi. 14, 15.): all the communicable excellencies of the Father are deposited in the Son, to be applied by the Spirit. Thus the Father is the source of grace; the Son is the depository of grace; and the Spirit is the applicant of grace. It is His to regenerate the soul by the grace of Christ, to illuminate it with heavenly light, to restore it in its backslidings, to sanctify it, to comfort it, and to prepare it for glory. It is His, by a continued fellowship, Believer, though you may grieve Him, and resist and quench His influences, still to uphold and cheer you by the way, and to seal you with an earnest of immortality.

Be ye reconciled, then, to God!—What a reconciliation is here! how large, how free, how suitable, how complete! The whole Triune Jehovah is yours—yours in all His excellencies — in all the power of God unto salvation. And it is your privilege, Christian, to know that you are thus reconciled by a reciprocity of love: it is the very life of the Spirit in your soul, to enjoy the love of the Father, the grace of the Son, and the communion of the Spirit: you have received the reconciliation (Rom. v. 11.); and it is yours to feel and say, My Beloved is mine, and I am His (Song of Sol. ii. 16).

I know not, then, that I can close this subject in a more appropriate manner, than by gathering up all in one expressive blessing:—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with us all (2 Cor. xiii. 14), and with every soul in every quarter of the earth, now and evermore!

Such, My Brethren, in brief, is the Christian Minister's designation—he is an Ambassador of Mercy. Such is the dignity of his character: his voice is that of his Master—his entreaty is that of his Saviour. And such is the subject of his embassy—the reconciliation of a sinner to God.

And here it seems obvious to ask, since there is so ample a provision of balm in Gilead, and so able a Physician there; Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered? (Jer. viii. 22.) Why, in this nineteenth century of the Christian Era, when for eighteen hundred years we have enjoyed a perfect Gospel, why has the Gospel of Reconciliation produced such feeble and such contracted effects? We need not resort to the secret will of God for the solution of our question: enough, surely, is apparent, to enable us to decide it. The world is not reconciled to its God, because so little of this reconciliation is felt in Christendom itself: and so little of this reconciliation is felt in Christendom itself, it is to be feared, not merely because it has not been received, but because it has not been preached. From the first age of Christianity, that of the Apostles, down to the period of the Reformation, how difficult is it, from such records as remain, to discover the simple Gospel of Reconciliation! Ecclesiastical History abounds with unchristian errors, heresies, and excesses; and wherever we find the Gospel of Reconciliation for fourteen centuries of the Christian Era, it is as an exception to the error and ignorance that surround it. But where is the Gospel? Is it at the great marts of human intercourse and population—at Rome, at Constantinople, at Alexandria? Doubtless each has had its Clement, its Chrysostom, and its Athanasius; but the candlesticks are removed, because the stars of those Churches no longer shine: the Gospel is silent, and sin prevails. And if the question be asked, Why is Christendom sunk, at this moment, in Greek and Latin and Semi-pelagian and Socinian and Infidel corruption? I know no other answer that can justly be given but this—BECAUSE THE GOSPEL OF RECONCILIATION IS NOT PREACHED.

But can we, ought we, either in justice or in mercy, to stop here? Should we not further ask, Does the Gospel of Reconciliation produce the fruits that might be expected from it in Protestant England? Is the suavity of the Gospel evident, in our habits and manners; or the severity of the Law? Is there the blandness, the meekness, the kindness, the humility, the conciliation, the heavenly-mindedness, the spiritual renewal, and the holy courtesy of a people in whose hearts Self is dethroned and Christ is exalted? Is there the forbearance, the long-suffering, the submission, the tenderness to offend, the readiness to be reconciled, and the unwearied charity of a people reconciled to God by Grace and saved by Mercy? Or, is there an unconceding demand, an excessive claim, a rigorous exaction of duty throughout the whole range of relative life, which speaks the severity of the Law? Are children trained, in the nursery, not as Children of Promise, but of Nature? Has our admirable BaptismalService (the true key of all our formularies, and without which they stand as isolated and disjointed services) sunk into desuetude and formality? and are children required to perform the promises made FOR them, without grounding the requirement on the promises made TO them? Does the education of our children proceed upon the same legal rigour? and is it a demand of Duty, without the encouragement of Privilege? Are we seeking to make men better by punishment, rather than by principle? Is it the character of the Legislature rather to correct than to prevent, to enforce by the rule rather than to incline by the motive? Are the measures of our Cabinets rather the common-place and short-sighted resorts of a temporary expediency, than the wise and liberal treatment of man as a moral agent, the best government of whom must be directed by this fundamental axiom of sound Christian Polity, that, AS HIS MOTIVES ARE, SUCH IS THE MAN? If this be, indeed, the complexion of society among us, in its various gradations, in this nineteenth century of a perfect Gospel, it is then the most important question that we can ask, both to ourselves, to our country, to the world at large, to the glory of God, to the empire of Christ, and to the honour of the Spirit—and especially to the success of that Cause which we are met here this evening to promote—What is the reason that society in Christian England has not made a greater practical advance in the grace of the Gospel? Shall I attempt to answer the question? I would rather answer it by asking another—Is the pulpit of the Church of England a pulpit of precept or of promise, of exaction or of reconciliation, of the Law or of the Gospel? Which is its distinctive character?

O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy! (Hab. iii. 2.)

We have arrived at,

LASTLY: THE APPLICATION OF THE SUBJECT TO OUR PRESENT PURPOSE:—"NOW THEN."

And will my Reverend Brethren present permit me first to address them, as MINISTERS OF CHRIST? —Christ has suffered, and is entered into His glory: (Luke xxiv. 26.) He has been lifted up on the cross: He is now lifted up into heaven, and waits to be lifted up in every heart. For this purpose He has ordained us as His Ambassadors to this people: we are Ambassadors for Christ; and He requires us to lift up His person, His work, His offices, and His Spirit—not as the chief, merely, but as the one grand unceasing subject of our ministry. It is most difficult for us, influenced as we are from our cradles, daily and hourly, by the same cast of habits and feelings as those around us, to conceive that we are indeed Missionaries to them, on the vast concerns of immortality; that we are Ambassadors for Christ to the king and the peasant; and that to every soul committed to our charge, rich or poor, learned or ignorant, master or servant, it is our duty and our privilege to say, Be ye reconciled to God! The highest is not above our care; the lowest is not below it. It is not enough that they are moral and decent: it is not enough that they attend our ministry in the Church, or that they observe all the proprieties of an open profession: it is not enough that, being solicited, they decline, and being warned they reject, our company: we act for souls—we act for eternity—we act for the reconciliation of a dying soul to its God. It is not for us to be disconcerted, to be baffled, to be angry, to sink under disappointment, and to retire faint, disgusted, despairing: we want a Christ-like spirit, an aggressive benevolence, a face set like a flint (Is. l. 7); an unwearied love, that will hear of no refusal, and which urges its claim till it has compelled them to come in. We want to be filled with Christ, to have Christ in our office, Christ in our voice, Christ in our heart, Christ in our act, Christ conspicuous throughout the whole of our intercourse with man; in a word, we want the Missionary Zeal, that we may effect the Missionary Purpose. England stands in need of Missionaries at this hour (nominally Christianized as she has been for so many centuries), as well as the remotest corner of the earth; and it has long been my solemn conviction, and, I trust, the subject of humble confession to God for my continued breach of my own convictions, (and indeed there is not a remark I am making to you, my Reverend Brethren, in which I do not condemn myself,) that it is vain to expect an efficient supply of Missionaries for Foreign Service, till we, who are the Ministers of our Church, perform the office of Missionaries at home.

The Ministers of the Church of England stand on no common eminence. England is the moral mistress of the world. The world may refuse the decisions of our Cabinet, but she solicits the communication of our Grace. And what does she request?—CHRIST CRUCIFIED. As we feel Christ, live Christ, preach Christ, and recommend Christ, so are we, indeed, benefiting the whole race of mankind: and may it be deeply impressed on our hearts, and on the heart of every Minister throughout the land, that the Ministers of England are, at this hour, the Ministers of the World!

Do I need an apology, my Reverend Brethren, for the plainness of this address? If so, I must find it in my Text. I stand here as the Ambassador for Christ; and would beseech you in the name of God, and pray you in Christ's stead.

I would next address myself to my MISSIONARY BRETHREN present.—I am not disposed to consider your designation, or your work, as differing much from our own. You leave, as Abraham did, your country, your kindred, and your Father's house (Gen. xii. 1); and, as our Lord declares, you shall be blessed for it, not only in the next world, but in this. Herein we differ; but, in addressing a Christless world, I apprehend we differ but little. Gross superstition, base idolatry—corrupt, profligate, cruel, murderous habits, grown into the force of nature—brutish ignorance, grovelling sensuality, and savage ferocity, you may have to encounter: but we have the pruriency, the fastidiousness, the sensitiveness, the intolerance, the false refinement, the idolatrous devotion to what is exquisite, and the long and dominant prescription of an over-civilization, to encounter at home. If you have barbarous Idolaters to address, we have the Devotees of a more refined Idolatry. The world, whether civilized or savage, is a world full of Self, and opposed to Christ. Our own hearts confirm this truth: and if Satan reigns by means of an ignorant idolatry, he reigns by means of a corrupt refinement also. And no man, whose life is not devoted to Christ, whose heart is not filled with the Spirit, and whose whole soul does not glow with the love of Christ, is fit for that most arduous and most honourable of human designations—an Ambassador for Christ. The qualification is, then, the same, both for Minister at home and Missionary abroad—Put on Christ: (Gal. iii. 27.)

My next address is to PARENTS.—If we have a Missionary College, we want a Missionary Nursery also. If you are Parents, according to the meaning of our Church, you have already devoted your children to God; for they are engaged "to fight under the banner of Christ, against sin, the world, and the devil, and to continue Christ's faithful soldiers and servants unto their life's end." In the teeth of this engagement, are you proposing to their cupidity —wealth, or rank, or pleasure, or place, or distinction? Are you gratifying what you have vowed to renounce, and irritating what you have promised to suppress? or, Have you withheld nothing from God? and, as an evidence of such total resignation, Are you willing to devote what is most dear to you to Him? How grand this devotion! how glorious its reward! We want not examples. "O man!" said the dying HALYBURTON to his son, "if I had as many sons as there are hairs in your head, I would bestow them all on God. . . . . I would rather have you such (a martyr for Christ), than an Emperor of the Universe, and would rejoice more in it*."—"Had I twenty sons," said the Mother of the Wesleys, when she heard that one of her sons was going as a Missionary to America, "I should rejoice that they were all so employed, though I should never see them more†."—And what is the high commendation of the Father of the Faithful: Now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me (Gen. xxii. 12). And what are we, who are now assembled in the Name of Christ, but the very reward of that act of faithful obedience—In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed (Gen. xxii. 18). The blessing of Abraham has descended on us Gentiles. Or, shall we carry our example still higher, and find the consummation of it in the most exquisite act of love exhibited by God to man:—God so loved the world, that—what? He made it? He maintained it? He blessed it? No; neither of these, nor all of them, were the SO, the intenseness of His love—that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life: (John iii. 16.) And if He spared not His own Son, what can His love now withhold from us? Shall He not with Him, also, freely give us all things? (Rom. viii. 32.) O Christian Parents! if you have never felt that blessedness yet, may He, who has given His own Son for us, give you that faith this night, which, in surrendering your children to God, divests you of all fretful anxiety for them, and with them surrenders all your interests and all your concerns entirely and unreservedly to Him.

Nor can I omit to address the YOUNG.—Our supply of Missionaries has been hitherto chiefly derived from you. Christ has conferred this His chief honour upon you. How grand the distinction! how infinitely superior to all the ordinary objects which stimulate human ambition! The very first of these, useful and excellent as many of them are, are circumscribed by time; but, as Missionaries, you are agents for eternity. Is holiness the truest happiness? Is the service of Christ the most honourable service? Is a life of faith, here, at once the most suitable to man, as a tenant in this world, and an expectant of that which is to come? Is the abridging the empire of sin, and the filling heaven with Saints, a work that may well engross all the zeal, the intellect, the sympathy, and the talent of man? Then is this work, which is above all comparison, worthy of all your energies.—How poor and little are the fame and the achievements of Greek and Roman Youths, who are celebrated for a race, a poem, a victory, or a triumph, compared with the contempt of earth, the labours and the self-denial, of John, and Timothy, and Titus—(shall we say, of Martyn and of Heber also?)—who sought not the honour that cometh from man, but how they might most advance the honour of God, and of His Christ!

Let me, lastly, address the GREAT CONGREGATION!—Remember your encouragements. I speak not particularly of Bible Societies, or Translations, or Agents: I speak not particularly of Missionary Colleges, or Students, or Ministers, whether sent to Heathens, Mohammedans, or Jews: I speak not particularly of all the blessed efforts, collective and individual, to spread the name of Christ through the world, and to benefit the souls and bodies of men, which abound in our day: but I speak of the remarkable concurrence of all these, which forms the sign of these times: they harmoniously synchronize, and speak, we trust, a better day at hand. The Prophecies are accomplishing—the promise of Universal Restoration is fulfilling—the prayers of the Church for six thousand years are receiving their answer—the Church is pressing the Throne of Promise with prayer, that Jerusalem may be made a praise in the earth (Is. lxii. 7)—Evangelical principles are spreading—amidst the pressure of the times, Missionary support does not appear to decline—Missionaries are presenting themselves for the work—the world is solicited to be reconciled to its God; and the world is not inattentive to the call. Opposition itself is encouraging: it is, at least, an evidence that the empire of Satan feels the invasion of Truth. May the Church of Christ be prepared to meet and to improve it, by zeal on one hand and patience on the other!—remembering, that the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God (2 Cor. x. 4). There is much to encourage us, for surely the Lord is gone out before us.

Let us, then, remember our obligations—Freely we have received, let us freely give: (Matt. x. 8.) Remember what you were—among the darkest of the nations: consider what you are—perhaps the most enlightened: six hundred millions of human beings, it is said, are still sunk in Heathen Darkness, and cry out for you to come over and help them (Acts xvi. 9). More than one hundred millions of your Heathen fellow-subjects claim your merciful consideration. Remember the value but of one soul, subject to the terrors, and deprived of the glories, of an eternal duration. Remember how little, comparatively, is yet done, and how much remains to be done. Remember WHERE you live, and WHEN you live—in England, and in the second quarter of the nineteenth century of Christianity: and do not forget WHY you live—to honour Christ, and to glorify God. Remember, lastly, that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together even until now; that it waits for the manifestation of the sons of God (Rom. viii. 22. 19); and, with the promise of either Testament at your disposal—the Saviour, and the Spirit to apply Him—the God of Grace, in His dispensations both of providence and grace, has eminently committed to you the manifestation of His Gospel to a lost world.

And, are we prepared for this holy purpose? Is nothing wanting to effect it?

We want a more prominent, a more unequivocal declaration of the Gospel. And when Christ our Saviour challenges our adherence, Who is on my side? Who? (2 Kings ix. 32.) we want a bolder avowal in our Personal Religion, in the Family, the Parish, the Social Circle, the Magistracy, the Cabinet, the Legislature—but, above all, the Pulpit:—I am for Christ! We want the zeal, the bold declaration, the unflinching Christianity, the prominent grace of Christ Crucified, which shone in Cranmer, and Ridley, and Latimer, and Bradford, and Philpot, our martyred forefathers of the Reformation. Let us live and preach the tone of their Gospel, and their success shall be ours.

We want unity also. Satan divides, that he may conquer. We want unity in the Evangelical World, in the Established Church at large, and in the Church of Christ. I should hail the union of the people of God as the surest evidence of success in Missionary Labours. Alas! the evil is so inveterate, that even good men seem to have sunk into an awful apathy on this subject, without effort, almost without wish of redress. There can be no solid union but in Christ: let the love of Christ be paramount to human selfishness, and the unimportant differences which now divide us would appear, in their real character, trifles light as air, compared with the honour of Christ, and the establishment of His Gospel in the earth.

Is this all we want? Do we not want a more conspicuous manifestation of Christian Holiness throughout the whole circle of relative life?—more patience, more love, more faith, more humility, more deadness to the world, a more decided separation from its follies, vanities, trifles, luxuries, garish display in equipage, in furniture, in dress? Is there a sufficient distinction between the habits, the pursuits, and the conversation of the man of the world and the man of God? Let the conscience of each of us reply.

We want a Christian Education also.—Here is the fountain of all the mischief! We have virtually forsaken the Bible, the fountain of living waters; and we have hewed out for ourselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water (Jer. ii. 13): we give six days to Mythology, and scarcely one to the Bible; and then wonder that things are as they are. We forsake the admirable mode of education marked out at our Baptism; and Baptismal Privileges being disregarded and Baptismal Duties neglected, the soul's health is scarcely a secondary consideration, and the interests of time and sense engross nearly all our concern.

And can we wonder, then, that we have another want? We want MISSIONARIES.—Do we ask why?

Consider the four wants already expressed, and the question is answered. A prominent tone of the Gospel of Christ, union among the people of Christ, a conduct and conversation expressing the graces of Christ, and a Christian Education, would, with the blessing of Christ, evidence a state of the Church which would never rest till the glory of Christ was advanced in the healing of the Nations, and all the world rejoiced in His Salvation.

In a word, then, My Christian Friends, Are you reconciled to God?—Then I have a large demand to make upon you. If you are reconciled to God, you have given Him your heart: and if God has your heart, he has your ALL—your children, your money, your talents, every faculty of your body and soul, are His—your prayers, your praises, your holy desires, your heavenly meditations, your aspirations for the influence of the Spirit—all in nature, and all in grace, is His. Do you love mankind, your country, your friends, your children, yourselves? Love Christ, and you testify the best love to them—serve Christ, and you serve them—advance the Cause of Christ, and you advance their best interests also. Christ is the sum of His Father's purposes: Christ is the end and efficacy of the Spirit's power: Christ is the consummation of the Divine Glory, for Christ is the chief manifestation of Divine Love. Christ, and all connected with Him, are alone immortal. Your money must pass away—your estates must pass away—your friends must pass away—your children must pass away—yourselves must pass away—the world passeth away and the lust thereof: (1 John ii. 17)—

"But fixt His WORD, His SAVING POWER remains; Thy realm for ever lasts, Thy own MESSIAH reigns."

REPORT

COMMITTEE.

DELIVERED, IN SUBSTANCE, TO THE

ANNUAL MEETING,

HELD MAY 1, 1827.

AT FREEMASONS' HALL, GREAT QUEEN STREET.

REPORT,

THE Twenty-Seventh Year of the Society's Proceedings having terminated, the Committee desire, with gratitude to God for the mercies which they have experienced, to give an account of the trust which has been confided to them.

FUNDS.

When it is considered, that the difficulties of the country, which were adverted to in the last Report, have continued until now in a distressing degree, affecting all Classes of Society and especially the Labouring Orders, it furnishes, not only matter of unfeigned gratitude to God, but solid proof that the Society is not losing ground in the affections of our Church at large, that the Committee are able to report a small advance in the Funds of the Society in the past year.

The Committee have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of numerous presents which have been sent by various benevolent Ladies in aid of Native-Female Education in India. The sum received toward this interesting object has exceeded Eight Hundred Pounds; being more than double the amount contributed in the preceding year.

A School Fund having been opened for the maintenance and education of children of both sexes in Ceylon, to be named by Benefactors, at 5*l.* per annum for six years, the Committee, on the representations of their Missionary, the Rev. Thomas Norton, have extended this fund to Allepie.

The British Ladies' Church Missionary Maternal Society has often afforded the Servants of the Society, in Africa and the West Indies, the means of assisting the Negro Females in seasons of distress.

Several Legacies have been announced during the year, amounting in the whole to about 1800*l*., besides some Residuary Bequests.

EXERTIONS OF FRIENDS.

The Committee have again to acknowledge, in addition to the aid rendered by the Official Visitors of the Society, the kind assistance of numerous Friends, who have promoted its interests, either by preaching, by assisting at Meetings, or by furthering Local Associations in its behalf.

It will be in the recollection of the Members, that the augmentation of the Society's concerns induced the Committee to recommend to the Twenty-Fourth Annual Meeting the appointment of Three Secretaries, with an Assistant-Secretary, for the due discharge of the duties connected with the Office in London, and for the regular visiting of the Associations in the country. On the appointment of a second Secretary, it was, after full deliberation, judged most conducive to the interests of the Society that Four Official Visitors of Associations should be annually chosen, who should travel, each three months in the year, and receive the salary of a Third Secretary.

The Committee have to lament the decease of John Mason Good, Esq. M.D. one of their own Body; who for many years has been accustomed, gratuitously, and in the kindest manner, to afford his professional advice to the Students and Returned Missionaries of the Society.

To the List of Vice-Patrons the Committee have had the pleasure to add the name of the Right Rev. the Bishop of Llandaff; and to that of Vice-Presidents, those of Abel Smith, Esq. M.P. and Thomas Whitmore, Esq. M.P.

Ten NEW ASSOCIATIONS have been formed in the course of the year.

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE.

The gross Receipts of the Twenty-Sixth Year have amounted, without deducting Expenses, and including the Contributions to the Institution at Islington, to FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS. The Net Income, deducting Expenses and the Amount received on account of the Institution-Building Fund, available for the General Purposes of the Society, has amounted to nearly FORTY-THREE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, while the Amount of Expenditure has been FORTY THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED AND SEVENTY POUNDS.

MISSIONARIES.

While the Members will rejoice at the intelligence of some devoted Servants of God proceeding to their labours, and of others preparing to follow their example, they will sympathize with the Committee in the loss of the valuable services of several who have sacrificed their health, or laid down their lives, in the Cause of their Redeemer.

Two of the Missions of the Society, the Committee regret to say, have suffered, somewhat considerably, by the return of those who were engaged in them, on account of ill-health, and from other causes.

From the West-Africa Mission six Individuals have returned:—Mr. James Lisk and Mr. Robert Beckley, with Mrs. Beckley, landed at Maryport in Cumberland, on the 17th of June, after a passage of about eleven weeks. The state of Mrs. Lisk's health not admitting of her rejoining her husband in Sierra Leone, it was deemed best for him to return to England. They have both subsequently sailed for New South-Wales. Mr. Beckley having been in the Colony six years, and his health having suffered, he availed himself of the Society's regulation permitting a visit home after six years' service: circumstances have since led to the dissolution of his connexion with the Society. Mr. Thomas Davey having experienced considerable indisposition, and having been five years in the Mission, the Committee invited him to visit England, in the hope that, by a timely return, his health might, under the Divine Blessing, be restored. He accordingly, with Mrs. Davey, left the Colony on the 13th of June, in His Majesty's Ship "Leven," commanded by Captain Owen, who granted them a passage, and treated them with the utmost kindness: they arrived at Portsmouth on the 16th of August. Mr. Davey has, through Divine Mercy, recovered his health; and, having been admitted to Holy Orders by the Lord Bishop of London, will return to Sierra Leone in a few months. It being impracticable for the Rev. John Raban to remain at his station, on account of protracted and serious illness, he embarked on the 13th of January last, and landed at Chatham on the 10th of March.

From the South-India Mission there have returned —the Rev. Joseph Fawcett Beddy (of Nellore), who, in consequence of the ill-health of himself and Mrs. Beddy, left Madras on the 24th of January of last year, and reached England on the 29th of May; having lost Mrs. Beddy and their Infant on the passage—the Rev. Thomas Norton (of Allepie), who, after the decease of his second Wife, embarked at Cochin, on the 16th of February 1826, with his two Sons, and landed at the Scilly Islands June the 27th—and the Rev. Joseph Fenn (of Cotym), who, with his Family, sailed from Tellicherry on the 24th of November, and landed at Portsmouth on the 12th of April.—Mr. Beddy is no longer connected with the Society; and Mr. Norton has again proceeded to his labours.

The Rev. Richard Kenney, of the Western-India Mission, quitted Bombay on the 9th of January last year, and arrived at Liverpool on the 15th of June. His health had suffered much during the preceding year, and required his return.

The Rev. J. A. Jetter and Mrs. Jetter are at present residing at Stutgard: his health remains in a delicate state.—Mrs. Maisch continues in this country, and is better.—Mr. William Hall is so far recovered, as to be able to attend to the Native Institution at Parramatta.—Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Pope have returned to their labours; and the Rev. J. Norman, Mrs. Norman, and Mrs. Lisk, have proceeded to Australasia.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

Of the Individuals who had proceeded to their destinations, but of whose arrival intelligence had not been received, at the period of the last Anniversary, the Committee have to report as follows:—

The Rev. John William Doran arrived at Calcutta on the 26th of November 1825, and embarked December 15th for Madras, in the "Woodford," Captain Chapman; which place he reached on the 28th. From Madras he accompanied the late-lamented Bishop Heber in his way to Travancore, and reached Cotym in April of last year.

The Rev. William Williams and Mr. James Hamlin, with their Wives, arrived at Sydney in New South-Wales, on the 17th of December. They left that Colony, in the "Sir George Osborne," on the 18th of March, and reached the Bay of Islands on the 25th, in safety.

The Rev. Messrs. Gobat, Lieder, and Müller, landed at Malta on the 25th of April, after a wearisome voyage of eight weeks from Marseilles, the vessel having stopped at many places.

The Rev. Messrs. Betts and Scholding, with their Wives, arrived at Freetown on the 15th of February 1826, after a favourable passage of five weeks.

The Rev. James Selkirk and Family, and the Rev. G. C. Trimnell and Mrs. Trimnell, landed at Trincomalee in Ceylon, July the 20th; the vessel not having been able, through contrary winds, to make the land either at Colombo or Point de Galle. Mrs. Selkirk had been safely delivered of a Daughter off the Cape of Good Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Trimnell proceeded overland to Cotta; while Mr. Selkirk and Family went round the coast, viâ Jaffna. The latter, after passing a few days with Mr. Adley at Nellore, reached Cotta on the 1st of September; where Mr. and Mrs. Trimnell joined them on the 16th, having been detained at Kandy by the illness of Mrs. Trimnell. The Rev. Joseph Bailey, whose embarkation was stated in the note at p. 41 of the last Report, reached Cotta before them; having landed at Colombo, August the 27th, after a short and pleasant voyage.

The Rev. Messrs. Mitchell and Steward, with their Wives, safely arrived at Bombay on the 12th of July.

The Rev. John Latham, whose appointment to Calcutta was noticed in the last Report, will shortly proceed to his destination.

Several Labourers have departed for their Stations during the past year.

The health of the Rev. James Norman being too delicate to allow of his return to Sierra Leone, he, with Mrs. Norman and their two Children, and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lisk (who were also prevented from resuming their labours in that Colony by Mrs. Lisk's ill-health), embarked at Deptford on the 18th of September, on board the "Midas" Convict Ship, Captain Baigrie, for New South-Wales; they having been appointed to the Australasia Mission. They finally sailed from Portsmouth on the 15th of October. No intelligence has been since received respecting them.

Mr. Frederick Gatesman and Mrs. Gatesman, appointed to the West-Africa Mission, with Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Pope returning to their labours in renewed health, embarked at Gravesend, on board the "Cato," Captain Williams, Oct. 16th; sailed from Portsmouth on the 31st of that month; and arrived at Freetown on the 28th of November. Mrs. Pope was united in marriage to Mr. Weeks, on the 7th of December.

On the 9th of January last, the Rev. Charles Lewis Frederick Haensel sailed from Gravesend, in the "Eliza Dick," Captain Wylie, for the purpose of taking charge of the Christian Institution*; and landed at Freetown on the 11th of February.

The Rev. Christopher Frederick Schlienz, a Lutheran Clergyman and formerly a Student in the Bâsle Seminary, embarked at Blackwall, on board the "Columbian Packet", Captain Sadler, March the 27th; and sailed for Malta on the 30th.

The Rev. Thomas Norton, whose visit to this country has been before mentioned, embarked on his return to Allepie, accompanied by Mrs. Norton and his two Sons, on board the "George," Captain Fulcher, on the 9th of April; reached the Downs on the 12th; and sailed on the following day. The Rev. George Steers Faught, Mrs. Faught, and Miss Stratford, for Ceylon, proceed to their destination in the same vessel.

The Rev. Leonard Strong, who was ordained for the service of the Society as stated in the last Report, embarked, with Mrs. Strong, for Demerara, with the concurrence of the Committee; he having been appointed to a Living in that Colony. They reached their destination in safety, on the 18th of February.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

The Lord Bishop of London has, since the last Report, admitted several of the Society's Students to Ordination. On Trinity Sunday, the Rev. James Norman and the Rev. Leonard Strong were ordained Priests; and Mr. C. L. F. Haensel, Deacon. On Sunday, December 24th, the Rev. Messrs. G. S. Faught, C. L. F. Haensel, and William Yate, received Priests' Orders from his Lordship; and Mr. Thomas Davey, Mr. Ralph Eteson, and Mr. Charles Friend, those of Deacon. And on Sunday, the 11th of March last, Christian Lewis Korck, M. D. and Mr. James Baker Morewood, were ordained Deacons.

The total number of Persons who have been accepted during the year for Missionary Employment is 29.

INSTITUTION AT ISLINGTON.

It was stated in the last Report, that there were 19 Students in the Society's Institution at Islington. Two of that number have entered on their labours in Africa; a third has embarked for his Station; and two have left the Institution. The total number of Pupils, at present, is Thirty-one.

On the 31st of July, the First Annual Examination in Classical and General Knowledge and Theology took place. Five Classes were examined in Latin, Three in Greek, One in Divinity, One in the Critical Interpretation of the Greek Testament, and One in Logic. Papers also, written during the sitting of the Committee, on Questions framed by the Principal and Tutor, were delivered in on the following subjects:—on the Hindoo System, by one Student—on Divinity, by four—on Mathematical Questions, by six.

The Second Examination of the Oriental Classes, in Hebrew, Arabic, Bengalee, and Sanscrit, took place on the 19th of October. Both Examinations were gratifying to the Committee of Visitors, and to those Friends who attended.

The last Report noticed the determination of the Committee to enlarge the Buildings, for the accommodation of Fifty Students and the Officers of the Institution. The Foundation Stones were laid on the 31st of July, the day of the Annual Examination; the President, and a very large number of the Society's Friends, attending on the occasion.

The Committee are increasingly convinced by experience of the utility of such an Institution; and, while they still appeal to the liberality of their friends on its behalf, they trust that many faithful and zealous men will go forth from the Seminary, qualified, not only by Literary Endowments, but by the unction of the Holy Ghost, to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

Major-General Sir Neil Campbell having been appointed to the Government of Sierra Leone, a Deputation waited on him for the purpose of explaining the Society's views and proceedings in the Colony. His Excellency met the Deputation at the Society's House; and expressed his desire to learn their wishes, and to promote them to the utmost.

Freetown.

The Rev. John Raban, assisted by Mr. George Fox and his Wife, who have the management of the Schools, has the charge of this Station.

Mr. Raban continued the exercise of his MINISTRY till the month of June, when an attack of dysentery, followed by fever and ague, disabled him from attending to his duties. The usual services at the Court Room had, till Mr. Raban's sickness, been regularly performed, and an increased attention had been manifested by the European part of the Congregation. Few interruptions had taken place, till the same period, in the services at Gibraltar Town on Sunday and Wednesday Evenings: a small Chapel was opened there on the 9th of April; from 50 to 70 persons generally attended, with much devotion; and several Adults had been baptized, or were Candidates for Baptism.

At Michaelmas, Mr. Raban's disorder, though much abated, still prevented him from resuming his active duties. Mr. Metzger, from Wellington, and Mr. Betts, from Regent, had, with some interruptions, kept up the services at the Court House; but those at Gibraltar Town had from necessity been left, except in one instance, to the people themselves. There being no prospect of Mr. Raban's immediate resumption of his labours, it was agreed, at Michaelmas, that Mr. Betts should remove, with the consent of the Acting Governor, from Regent to Freetown, and be there stationed as Second Rector, and that he should visit the Mountain Villages for the administration of the Sacraments. At Christmas Mr. Betts reports, that the number of Baptisms during the Quarter then ending had been 23: of these, two were adults, who had previously received instruction, and who, there was good reason to hope, were sincere in their profession of faith.

By the Returns of the SCHOOLS, it appears that there is an increase in the number of the Scholars. The Colonial School Rooms, which had been occupied by the Military as a temporary Hospital for about 12 months, were restored, in July, to their original occupants: the superior accommodation afforded by these Rooms immediately increased the attendance.

The numbers in the respective Quarters are as follows, and the average attendance about one half:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.	Christmas.
Girls	139	142	161	195

The number of Adults in the last Quarter, with Boys occasionally attending, was 27.

In the beginning of May, Public Meetings were held in support of the Auxiliary Bible, Church Missionary, and Prayer-Book Societies, which were attended by the Acting Governor. With reference to this circumstance, Mr. Raban writes—

Though all that zeal was not witnessed on these occasions which was ardently to be desired, yet enough was seen to afford encouragement to future exertions, and to call forth thankfulness to God, who put it into the heart of the Chief Magistrate of the Colony to countenance these benevolent Institutions, in a manner so public and decided.

Kissey.

The Rev. G. W. E. Metzger continues to have the pastoral charge of this Station; the Rev. Alfred Scholding, whose appointment to it was anticipated in the last Report, having been placed at Gloucester. In the month of April Mr. Metzger was married to Miss Mary Hickson, who, there is reason to hope, from her having resided upward of ten years with Mrs. Renner, and been accustomed to assist in her School, will prove a useful Labourer in that department. David Noah continued in charge of the Schools till May, when he was placed again at Regent. David Johnson, who had assisted David Noah, having withdrawn from the service of the Society, he was succeeded by Henry Johnson, one of the Youths in the Institution; on whose removal, soon afterwards, to Wellington, the Schools were placed under the care of William Bickersteth.

In March, Mr. Metzger reported that the people were very negligent about spiritual things, few besides the Communicants attending the MINISTRY OF THE WORD. At Midsummer, their attendance had somewhat improved.

The number of Communicants at Michaelmas was 40; and within the three Quarters then terminating, 10 Adults and 17 Children had been baptized.

The Returns of the SCHOOLS are—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.	Christmas.
Girls	—	73	67	34

The reduction of the Boys in the two last Quarters arose from the adoption of a new plan, by direction of His Excellency the Governor; who wishes the Boys not to be retained beyond the age of 10 or 12, but to be then distributed among the inhabitants, in order to the acquisition of early habits of industry,

No Return of the Girls was made at Lady-Day, Mrs. Wenzel having taken the School with her to Charlotte: the Girls returned at Midsummer consisted of 11 received from a Slave Vessel on the 1st of May, 60 removed from Gloucester on the death of Mrs. Renner, and 2 from the inhabitants.

The Senior Secretary wrote to David Noah on the state of the Mission; and, with the view of benefiting the people, desired that the Letter might be read to them. The remarks which he makes in reply, expressing his submission to the sovereignty, and his confidence in the goodness, of God, will be read with interest:—

I have received the long Letter which you sent to me, and wished to be read to all the people of Regent, and also to the other Villages of the Liberated Africans in the Colony, respecting our heavy losses and many trials, which we have sustained through death and sicknesses.

Our loss has been very great; and is, indeed, still so: for as fast as the Lord is sending His faithful servants among us, so fast He removes them from us by death. Sometimes I incline to think that He intends to leave us entirely, to perish in our sins on account of our wickedness; and if not so, why is He dealing with us so fast? But what shall we say unto Him? Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? Yes! He is too wise to err, and too good to be unkind: therefore we must stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord: for the Lord will not cast off for ever; for though He cause grief, yet will He have compassion, for He doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

I am very sorry to state that the Letter did not meet me at Regent; so I had not the pleasure of reading it to my brethren and friends at Regent: but I have read it both at Kissey and Wellington; and the people were very attentive, and also glad to hear that the good people in England are still mindful of us and pray for us. It has been read in most of the Villages of the Liberated Africans in the Colony.

Wellington.

This Station, in the present destitute state of the Mission, is, with Kissey, under Mr. Metzger's care. On his removal to Kissey, in the Midsummer Quarter, the immediate charge of Wellington was committed to William Tamba, who has been re-admitted into connection with the Mission. He is assisted in the Boys' School by Henry Johnson, while Mrs. Macfoy continues to take charge of the Girls.

Mr. Metzger preaches at Wellington every Sunday Evening, and the people continue to attend very numerously. He has appointed a few pious and experienced men to take charge, each of a suitable number of persons, whom they meet at fixed times, to warn and direct and encourage them as there may be occasion.

Mr. Metzger administers the Lord's Supper once a month. The average number of Communicants is 108. Thirteen Adults have been baptized.

Of the desire manifested by the people for religious instruction, Mr. Metzger writes at Lady-Day—

Divine Service is still numerously attended: the people in general appear to be very desirous to know what they must do to be saved. We are still destitute of a proper place for Divine Worship.

At Christmas, Mr. Metzger gives the following account of his charge—

As regards the attendance on Divine Service on the Sunday Morning, it still continues to bear an encouraging appearance. There are as many as our temporary Grass-house can hold, although enlarged since last rains. On Sunday Afternoons, and on Week-days, we have, on an average, 200 Adults: they are, at all times, apparently attentive. There are 33 on trial: some of them will soon be admitted to the Ordinance of Baptism. The Communicants, who are 108 in number, continue steadily to attend at the Lord's Supper; and they manifest a pleasing cordiality towards each other, and a consistent conduct on the whole.

The Returns of the SCHOOLS are as follows:—

	Lady Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.
Boys	121	118	38

At Christmas, the numbers varied from 20 to 30.

The reduction in the Boys' School in the Michaelmas and Christmas Quarters appears to have arisen from the operation of the new plan of apprenticing the Boys of 10 or 12 years of age among the people.

Waterloo.

The Rev. J. G. Wilhelm and Mrs. Wilhelm have been preserved in health to attend to their respective duties. There being no European Teacher at this Station besides themselves, the care of the Schools devolves on them, in which they are assisted by Henry Steady.

Mr. Wilhelm, on account of his infirmities, has resigned his situation of Superintendant under Government: he continues, however, to render such services as may be in his power, no other Superintendant having been appointed.

The MINISTRY OF THE WORD has been regularly attended to; but Mr. Wilhelm gives a melancholy account of the body of the people, who have been very considerably increased by accessions from captured Slave Vessels. He writes at Michaelmas—

The greater part of the inhabitants not only keep themselves purposely ignorant of the Worship of Jehovah and the way of Salvation, but clandestinely oppose what is good.

The average number of Communicants is about 16, and their conduct becomes their Christian Profession. An Ebo Man, who had been baptized in May, was admitted among the Communicants at Midsummer.

Mr. Wilhelm writes to the Secretary, in reference to his Letter to David Noah mentioned before—

It was suitable, not only to Regent, but to all the Stations in the Colony, and has therefore been read to all the Village Congregations. Many of the Soldiers and Liberated Men here looked very serious when I was reading it to them; and one man returned from backsliding, and joined the Communicants again, after he had heard it. Though good impressions seem with many soon to wear off, yet they may revive with greater force on a future gracious visitation of God's mercy.

By the Returns of the SCHOOLS it appears that there has been a considerable accession of Scholars from Slave Ships. The numbers were as follow:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.
Girls	111	116

No Return has been made of the numbers at Michaelmas or Christmas.

Four of the elder Boys have, at their own request, been apprenticed, agreeably to a general order issued by the Chief Superintendant to that effect.

At Christmas, Mr. Wilhelm states—

In the Boys' School there are at present only 13 who can read their Bibles: many Boys, past the age of 13 years, have left the School to maintain themselves by free labour. In the Girls' School we have 22 Readers left; many having been married, who can read their Bibles well.

Mr. Wilhelm mentions the melancholy death of one of the Girls on the 23d of May:—

After I had attended, from eleven to twelve o'clock, to the Class of Readers, they went to the brook to wash; when one of them, venturing too near the stream of the creek, was seized and dragged under water by an alligator, and we could catch sight of her no more! A similar melancholy event happened two years ago to another of the School Girls, and nearly at the same spot.

He gives a distressing view of the state of the newly-recaptured Slaves:—

The men are in a wretched condition—not fit, indeed, to be put to labour; but prepared only to suffer and die! They came from the vessel like so many skeletons. May the Lord behold in mercy the low estate of these poor people; and make them sensible of the evil of sin, and of the suitableness of the plan of Salvation for them! I often converse with them on the words, If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

A road from Waterloo to Maharra, about 100 miles distant in the Timmanee Country, was begun before the death of General Turner; but the progress of the work was stopped by his decease. The Acting Governor, his successor, resumed it with vigour, and employed 120 men in this labour.

Mr. Wilhelm notices the facility which is thus afforded for the introduction of the Scriptures and Tracts into the interior:—

The road from Waterloo to Maharra is not yet much frequented, owing to the unsettled state of affairs among the Head Men in the interior; some being for, and others against, free commerce: but it is to be hoped, that when our New Governor shall be settled in the Colony, further arrangements will be made to get the free commerce fully established. I am of opinion, that Religious Tracts in Arabic, especially parts of the Scriptures, might, through the blessing of God, be rendered a means for conveying the knowledge of Salvation to the tribes in the interior, if I had them at hand for distribution to trading travellers with whom I may from time to time have opportunity of conversing on the subject of religion.

The Mediterranean Press will here find a new vent for its valuable labours.

Kent.

On the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Beckley in March, the Rev. John Gerber removed to this Station; from which he visits the Bananas and York. William Bickersteth, one of the Native Assistants, had continued in charge of the Boys' School; and on Mrs. Beckley's leaving that of the Girls, it was committed to a Girl who had conducted it under her.

In the latter part of May, William Neville and his Wife removed hither from Wellington: they have the more especial oversight of the Schools; that of the Girls is committed wholly to the care of Maria Neville: he himself conducts the Morning and Evening Prayers, and is much esteemed by the people: he has been appointed, in consequence, one of the Society's Native Teachers.

Mr. Gerber had intended to avail himself of the Society's Regulations and to return to England for a short time; but, although he has suffered much from indisposition during the year, he has deferred the fulfilment of his intention on account of the present circumstances of the Mission. On this he remarks to the Quarterly Meeting at Michaelmas—

> Finding that, in case of my leaving the Colony, these Stations would be left destitute, I resolved to wait until help should arrive from England.

Mr. Gerber, in the exercise of his MINISTRY, besides the Sunday Services, has Divine Service on Wednesday and Friday Evenings. The average attendance is, on Sundays, about 120, and on Weekdays about 15. At Midsummer there were 10 Communicants; but at Michaelmas he reports that he had felt it his duty to exclude three. The heavy rains which had fallen between Midsummer and Michaelmas, and frequent indisposition, had prevented Mr. Gerber from regularly visiting the neighbouring Stations.

The following are the Returns of the SCHOOLS:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.	Christmas.
Boys . . .	172	152	146	93
Girls . . .	75	75	95	—

The number of Girls at Christmas is not stated.

At Christmas, Mr. Gerber thus notices the improving appearances at Kent:—

Since the beginning of last month there has arisen among the inhabitants of this Settlement not only a longing after the bread of life, but also a continued inquiry after the way of Salvation; and instead of being annoyed, as formerly, with settling daily palavers, and silencing noisy School Children at night, I am now rejoiced with different Prayer Meetings in the town, and by the School Children singing at night and before daybreak in the morning.

The Attendants on Divine Service have much increased: their average number, inclusive of Children, is on Sundays from 369 to 419, and on Week-days from 229 to 239. Our present Place of Worship has become too small to contain so large a number, so that many have to sit outside in the piazza.

Mr. Gerber had 30 persons preparing for Baptism and the Lord Supper, and mentions the following interesting case of one of them:—

A woman at Housah, who was a strict worshipper of two Idols made of wood, in the figure of a man and a woman, whom she called Bacumbagee, and to whom she from time to time sacrificed a fowl, when convinced by the Spirit of God that she was thus ignorantly worshipping the devil, cut her Idols to pieces and threw them away, and is now worshipping God in spirit and truth.

The decrease of Boys from Lady-Day arose from the placing of some of the Elder Boys among the inhabitants; and the accession of Girls in the Michaelmas Quarter, from new arrivals from a Slave Vessel.

Two days after Mr. Gerber settled at Kent, one of the Commissioners of Inquiry visited the Settlement, and wished an Examination of the Schools to take place. In consequence, 166 Boys and 75 Girls were examined: of the Boys, 9 only could read the Scriptures tolerably well, and 14 could read the New Testament imperfectly: of the Girls, 11 could read the Scriptures fluently and spell very well, and 13 could read the New Testament imperfectly and were incorrect in spelling.

The Commissioner, on seeing the state of the Schools, advised Mr. Gerber to obtain Assistants more adequate to the proper instruction of so large a number of Scholars. William Neville and his Wife having been placed at Kent with that view, and the Boys being withdrawn from that labour which had for a considerable period left them far too little time for instruction, Mr. Gerber was enabled to report at Michaelmas a remarkable improvement in the Schools. Examinations are now held every Quarter, which plan acts as a great stimulus to the children.

Bananas.

Since his removal to Kent, Mr. Gerber has visited this Station as often as his other duties admitted.

It was erroneously stated in the last Report, that 100 persons attended Public Worship on Sundays, and 76 on Week-days; whereas, in fact, there is a lamentable indifference to the means of Grace. Mr. Campbell, the Superintendant, was for more than a year withdrawn from the Bananas, by being employed among the Sherbros; but he has resumed his place in these Islands; and, under his inspection, more hope may now be entertained of the people attending Divine Service. At Christmas he states, that the indifference of the people had induced him to discontinue his visits to these Islands, that he might employ his time more usefully among those who were willing to receive him; but that, having received an invitation from one of the inhabitants, it was his intention to resume his visits.

At Midsummer, there were 72 Boys in the SCHOOL; but, being almost wholly kept at work, they make little improvement. 31 School Girls have been removed to York.

York.

This Station, which is under the care of Henry Christian, a Native Teacher, has, like the Bananas, been visited by Mr. Gerber. There is among the people a hungering and thirsting after the Word of God, which promises well for the future labours of a Missionary, if one could be placed among them. The number of Communicants at Christmas was 84.

There were in the SCHOOLS, at Lady-Day, 72 Boys; and 31 Girls had been removed hither from the Bananas, as has been noticed.

Among the Discharged Soldiers a good work is begun, in a manner that deserves to be noticed. Mr. Gerber writes—

The Wife of a Discharged Soldier, who attended several times the Meetings of one of the Coloured People at Freetown, became powerfully convicted by the Word of God, and determined to spend her remaining days to the glory of God; in which determination she has several years continued. After her return to York, she tried to persuade her husband (who, according to his own confession, lived a very wicked life before) to follow her example: after her patience had been greatly exercised, her prayers in his behalf were answered: he not only became a sincere follower of the Lord himself, but began to entreat his countrymen to flee from the wrath to come: he is about 50 years of age, and lame: he could neither read nor write; but, from his anxiety to read the Word of God, he has, within a short time, improved himself so far as to be now able to read a little in the New Testament. He has built a small neat Grass-house, in which he holds a Meeting every morning at five o'clock, and also in the evening. The present number of both men and women who have joined with him to follow the Lord is 29; of whom the greater part walk consistently with their profession, and are, according to the testimony of Mr. Johnstone the Superintendant, the best of the inhabitants. These people, in particular, desire a Minister to be sent among them.

Charlotte.

Mr. John Pierce, whose appointment to this Station, on Mr. and Mrs. Taylor's leaving it, was noticed in the last Report, still continues in charge of it. In January of last year, he married the widow of the late Rev. C. F. Wenzel. John Attarra, a Native Teacher, has been appointed Assistant Schoolmaster together with Charles Moore, whose employment was noticed in the last Report. Sarah Ackim has been appointed to assist Mrs. Pierce in the Girls' School.

Since Mr. Davey left the Colony, the Church Services, on Sundays and Week-days, have been regularly kept by Mr. Pierce, as far as was consistent with his lay character. He states that about 100 Adults attended on Sundays, and from 12 to 16 on the Week Evenings: in the Midsummer Quarter he had visited from house to house, and particularly inquired into the concerns of each family: this had the effect of bringing to Church, for many subsequent Sundays, a number of hearers somewhat more in proportion to the number of the inhabitants. So important is the duty of thus visiting the people at their houses, that it ought to be provided for and pursued in every practicable degree: under the peculiar circumstances of these people, little good can be expected, unless their confidence be thus won and their affections gained.

The Returns of the SCHOOLS are as follows:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.
Boys	57	110	94
Adults	—	—	—

No Returns has been made of the numbers at Christmas.

The Girls' School had been removed to Leopold, on the late Mr. Taylor and his Wife returning to England; but, in the Lady-Day Quarter, Mrs. Pierce brought her School Girls from Kissey: most of them, however, soon left her, some of them being married; but the rest ran away, from attachment to their old station. In the Midsummer Quarter, however, an addition of 42 Girls and 73 Boys from Slave Vessels increased the number. In the Michaelmas Quarter, the small-pox made great havoc among the children: 9 Boys and 12 Girls died, and 26 Boys and 12 Girls were in the Hospital: Mr. Pierce writes on this subject—

Most of those who have been taken off by this disease were children, whom I had lately received in a very reduced state, from the ill-treatment which they had experienced on board the Slave Ship: 17 Girls and 8 Boys, received on the 21st of July, were so debilitated, that, though they were carried on men's shoulders from Freetown, they were unable to walk or stand when they arrived here: most of them, labouring under severe bowel-complaints and totally unable to help themselves, exhibited an awful and heart-rending proof of the horrors of the Slave Trade.

Leopold.

The return of the Rev. John Davey and Mrs. Davey has been already noticed. The great want of Labourers in the Mission, and the interest which he felt in the spiritual welfare of the people, made Mr. Davey very reluctant to quit his Station, till at length such a step became absolutely necessary.

On the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Davey for England, Mr. Weeks removed from Regent to Leopold; and Susan Thompson, brought up under Mrs. Davey, was placed in charge of the Girls' Schools. Justus Felix was appointed as Native Assistant to Mr. Weeks in the Boys' School, at Christmas 1825; and continued therein till Michaelmas, when a discovery of past misconduct on his part led to his suspension. John Langley, from the Christian Institution, was appointed in October.

There appears to have been no interruption in holding Public Worship at this Station; though it was maintained at one time under very difficult circumstances, there being four Sundays on which Mr. Davey was unable, from the boils with which he was troubled, to remain in any other posture than reclining: he was carried, therefore, on a sofa into the Church, which is under the same roof as the Dwelling-house; and had sufficient strength, as he reclined on the sofa, to go through the Services. The attendance increased in the early part of the year, but afterward somewhat declined. Four Adults were baptized by Mr. Raban; and the number of Communicants had increased to 14. The average number of persons attending Divine Worship was, at Christmas, 100.

The following are the numbers in the SCHOOLS, in the respective Quarters:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.
Girls	158	110	188

The numbers at Christmas are not mentioned.

The diminution in the number of Girls at Midsummer was partly caused by several of them having married: the numbers were increased in the Michaelmas Quarter by the addition of a number of new children received on the 6th of September.

The secular business in which Mr. Weeks is engaged (having had, since Mr. Raban's removal to Freetown, the charge of Regent in addition to Gloucester and Leopold) has prevented his attending to the Boys' School so often as he wished. Notwithstanding this disadvantage, he reports of the Boys at Michaelmas—

I think that, on the whole, their progress is satisfactory: 18 of the larger Boys have been sent to prepare farms and build houses for themselves: most of them attend Evening Prayer during the Week, and all on Sundays.

Of their spiritual state, Mr. Weeks remarks—

I cannot say any thing with respect to the love they have to the ways of God: the impressions which sometimes are made on them, and seem to indicate a desire to obtain the Divine Favour and become the children of God, are too often found to pass away like a morning cloud; yet charity leads me to hope, that, while they continue to be in the way of hearing and receiving spiritual instruction, they will find Christ, as many others have found Him, to be the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

At Michaelmas, Mr. Weeks gives the following satisfactory statement relative to the Girls' School:—

The Girls' School was left by Mrs. Davey in excellent order, with every practicable arrangement for its future welfare. The greater part of the Girls then in the School can read tolerably well: the First and Second Classes are very worthy of notice, for the proficiency which they have made in sewing, reading, and the understanding of the Scriptures: this has not been attained by any rapid progress, but is the result of many years' labour bestowed on these Girls by her whose name remains dear to them all: three of her Girls, who were baptized by Mr. Raban just before her departure for England, are, I believe, sincerely following Christ. I desire to be thankful, that, through the assistance of Susan Thompson, the Girls have continued to behave well.

In closing their account of this Station, the Committee are unwilling to withhold the honourable testimony borne by Mr. Reffell, the Colonial Secretary, to the character of Mr. and Mrs. Davey, on occasion of their return:—

The services of both Mr. and Mrs. Davey have not only merited my warmest approbation; but I really consider myself much indebted to Mr. Davey in particular, for the great and useful services which he has rendered to the Cause, since the loss of Superintendants has deprived many of the Villagers of a Resident. For a length of time, he has attended to the concerns of not only Leopold, but of the four other Villages in the Mountains; and his loss will, in consequence, be felt more severely at this time than can be expressed: his health and that of Mrs. Davey, however, renders it absolutely necessary that they should recruit at home; and I must, therefore, only hope to see them speedily again, Allow me to beg that Mr. and Mrs. Davey's services may be duly considered: they are the greatest credit, and have always been so, to your Missions in this country.

Regent.

The Rev. W. K. Betts, on his arrival in the Colony, was appointed to the charge of this Station, and entered on the duties of it the end of February. The afflictive dispensation, with which it was the will of God to exercise his faith in the death of his Wife, was mentioned in a Note subjoined to the last Report. Of that event Mr. Raban gives the following account:—

Mrs. Betts was taken with fever on Sunday the 12th instant; and was brought down, on the 14th, by Br. Betts, to Freetown, for the advantage of medical assistance: they took up their abode under my roof. At first, the fever was thought rather slight, and expectations were entertained of her passing through it with safety; but, on the following Sunday, very unfavourable symptoms appeared. The usual means were resorted to: the medical attendance and exertions of Mr. Fergusson were readily afforded; and some hopes were cherished, that she might yet be spared; till, early on the morning of the 20th, when it became too evident that her end was approaching: and about four o'clock she bade adieu to the trials and afflictions of this mortal state; and entered, we trust and believe, into the mansions of eternal rest. Our departed Sister, from all that I saw of her (which was but little), appeared to be of an amiable temper, and to be desirous of engaging in the work to which she had devoted herself. She was not generally, after she came to my house, in a state fit for much conversation; and was, besides, during the last two or three days, troubled with deafness. The few words which I exchanged with her on spiritual concerns indicated that her mind was resting on God, and that she was anxious for more of His presence.

At the period of her death, Mr. Betts was so severely attacked by illness, that his recovery was scarcely expected. He was, however, by the mercy of God, sufficiently restored to resume his labours, and to continue them, with some interruptions, till his removal to Freetown. In May, David Noah removed from Kissey; and assisted in visiting the sick and the care of the people, and took the oversight of the Boys' School, in the management of which he is assisted by John Essex Bull, a Native Teacher.

In the exercise of his MINISTRY, Mr. Betts has met with little encouragement. On this subject he writes in June—

Respecting the Adults living in the town, I am under the painful necessity of stating that there exists an almost total unconcern about the things of another world. Not the fifth part of the population attend Public Worship on the Sabbath.

At Michaelmas he adds on the same subject—

Few seem to be impressed with the importance of seeking first the kingdom of God. Their temporal concerns do not prosper as they once did; and I much fear that this circumstance, instead of detaching their minds more from the world, has had the effect of drawing the enslaving cord the tighter. The number of those who attend Divine Service does not much vary: there are about 300 in the morning of the Sunday, and 150 in the afternoon; and about 12, exclusive of the School Children, at the Daily Public Prayers. The Communicants have been about 100.

This lamentable neglect of the Means of Grace may be attributed, partly, to the withdrawing of the Government rations, which seem to have influenced the people in their attendance on Public Worship—partly, to the want of a stated European Ministry—and partly, to the present occupations of the people.

On this last circumstance Mr. Betts remarks—

As no works are going on in the town, a great proportion of the people go to Freetown for work, and are exposed to the contagion of the bad examples which they see there: they go to Freetown on the Sunday Night, and return on the Saturday Evening: so that there is no opportunity of private conversation with them, nor of visiting them in their houses; and if they do not attend at Church on the Sunday, they are almost as destitute of religious instruction as if they lived in the wilds of this vast continent.

Though such a state of things cannot fail to make a painful impression on his mind, Mr. Betts does not give way to discouragement. On this subject he thus expresses his feelings:—

If I were to give an account of the state of the people of Regent in general, I think I should not give an unfaithful one by applying to them the description given of the Church of Laodicea: yet still I indulge the expectation, that God, in answer to our prayers, will cause a revival in this place; and will make it again an occasion, not of boasting, but of humble rejoicing.

On another occasion he writes—

I endeavoured, the other day, to explain the grand truths of the Gospel in a simple manner to persons who came to have their banns of marriage published at Church; and was much refreshed in spirit by their great attention to what I said, and by their expressions of thankfulness. I believe, notwithstanding the unfavourable statements which I am obliged to give, that many have the hearing ear, and, I hope, the understanding heart. I feel convinced, that if we cultivate a praying spirit, and seek the glory of God with an upright heart, His blessing will rest upon us.

With regard to himself, he adds—

I must mention to you how gracious our Heavenly Father has been to me. I have been much comforted under my trying bereavement, and my mind has been remarkably prepared for the peculiar nature of the climate: for, though many die around us, yet I do not feel any dread or apprehension whatever; and, when sick, have been able to rest in the persuasion that I was in the hand of God, and that He would raise me up if it were for His glory and my good. This is not of myself; but it is of the goodness of Him who hath said, As thy days, so shall thy strength be.

Only one SCHOOL, and that for Boys, has recently been kept at this Station. The numbers in the several Quarters are as follows:—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.	Christmas.
Liberated	52	41	100	48
Living with their Parents,	51	47	50	59
Total . . .	103	88	150	107

The increase in this last Quarter was by an accession of 55 Boys from a Slave Ship: of these Mr. Betts writes on the 13th of July—

I rejoiced when I beheld them, though toiling, with weary steps and in a sickly condition, up the steep hill leading to the School House: because I knew that there they would be beyond the reach of their cruel masters; and I trusted that a few days' rest and the use of wholesome food would soon restore them to health and strength; but, more especially, that now they would be trained up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Mr. Betts thus speaks of the two classes of children of which the Schools now consist—

The behaviour of the Liberated Children is as good as can reasonably be expected, from poor children on whose tender minds the first impressions were made by the errors and vices of Heathenism. I have been much struck by the contrast between these children, and those who were born of Liberated Parents and have been reared in the town: these last appear more intelligent, frank, and happy, and have the air of liberty in their whole deportment; while the others exhibit, in their downcast, timid, and suspicious mien, the appearance of a servile and oppressed race.

The people manifest a desire to send their children to School; and Mr. Betts thus expresses his anxiety for the instruction of the Girls:—

I regret that there are many nice little Girls, belonging to the people of the town, who have no instruction, there being no Female here to take charge of a Girls' School. A little while previous to that trying dispensation of Providence by which I was deprived of my dear Wife, we had frequently a number of pleasant little children come up into our piazza, asking us to let them come to school. A steady and clever Woman, capable of acting as Schoolmistress, would be very valuable.

At Christmas, David Noah gives the following view of this Station:—

The regular number of Communicants attending the Lord's Supper at this time, is 100; and their outward conduct, for the most part, is good. The general attendance of the people at Divine Service on the Sabbath-day is encouraging; but on week-days very few attend, in consequence of many of the men working at Freetown. Daily Morning and Evening Service is regularly kept, and Divine Service three times on Sundays. The present state of Regent is much to be lamented. We are now as sheep without a shepherd. The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few: may we pray that the Lord will be pleased to send out more Labourers into His harvest.

On the general state of the Mission, Mr. Betts remarks—

I am sure you must all feel how distressed we are for want of more aid from England: and while we know that the Lord can work by few as well as by many, yet, in the ordinary course of things, there appears reason to fear that we shall still witness the decline of morals and religion in the Colony, if there be not more Labourers sent here to fill up the many vacant Stations. Let us bear in mind, for our encouragement, that the Cause is God's, and must eventually succeed: and though, in this contest against the powers of Darkness, we should fall, without having rendered any efficient service, yet, if we continue faithful, we at last shall share in the glorious triumph, when the kingdoms of this world shall have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ.

The Christian Institution.

The last Report mentioned that there were four Youths in the Institution: that number was subsequently reduced to two; and the conduct of these having been highly reprehensible, and such as proved them unfit to be employed as Teachers of their countrymen, they were, at the Quarterly Meeting at Michaelmas, dismissed from the Seminary. Mr. Betts observes, with respect to the two Youths now dismissed—

Great allowance is, no doubt, to be made for them, considering the disadvantages under which they have laboured, for want of a permanent instructor and superintendant: they seem to be tired of being so long in the Institution; and, on this ground, they are to be pitied, as the case would probably have been otherwise if they had had a constant tutor to direct their pursuits.

The departure for the Colony of the Rev. C. L. F. Haensel has been already noticed. Having tendered his services to the Society with an express view to the education of the African Youths, he is followed by the earnest prayers of the Committee, that it may be the will of God to spare his life, and to bless him in the prosecution of that object to which he has devoted himself.

The frequent losses which the Society has sustained, in the removal, by sickness or death, of persons employed in the Mission, have hitherto been an obstacle to the efficiency of the Institution. The subject has for some time occupied the attention of the Committee; and they have come to the fixed determination of prosecuting, by all means in their power, and in any place, whether in Europe or in Africa, which may ultimately prove most eligible, the education of intelligent and pious Natives, with the view of their becoming Christian Teachers among their countrymen. In pursuance of this plan, they have placed two African Youths under the care of a Clergyman in the West of England.

Gloucester.

After the death of Mr. Knight, Mr. Lisk, as was mentioned in the last Report, had the care of this Station. He continued in charge of it till the Rev. Alfred Scholding was placed here at the end of February; and afterward assisted in the duties of it, till his departure for England about the beginning of April.

It pleased God, soon after Mr. Scholding's arrival, to visit Gloucester with a series of afflictive events, which entirely deprived its inhabitants of any regular European instruction. On the 17th of March, he and Mrs. Scholding were attacked by fever; which, in her case, terminated fatally on the 28th of that month. On the 29th of May, Mrs. Renner, who had conducted the Girls' Schools, was unexpectedly removed from her labours, after an illness of a few days: and on the 17th of July, Mr. Scholding, much debilitated by repeated attacks of fever, embarked on his return to this country. He was landed at Crookhaven, in the south-west part of Ireland, on the 20th of September; but it pleased God that he should not live to see his friends: setting forward, he could proceed no further than Skibbereen, where he died on the evening of the 26th of September.

The circumstances connected with Mrs. Scholding's death, are thus related by Mr. Raban:—

On the 17th of March, Mr. and Mrs. Scholding were both attacked with fever. Not long after, Mrs. Scholding was seized with the pains of premature labour; and was delivered of a child, which lived but a few hours. From this time, her case became more doubtful: yet still some hopes were cherished that she might eventually be restored; till Saturday the 26th, when her state became alarming. During the greater part of Sunday she was in a kind of stupor; and, on Monday Morning, about ten o'clock, her spirit left its habitation of clay, and soared to worlds unknown, to dwell, there is good reason to hope, in the mansions of the blessed.

From his personal acquaintance with her, he makes the following remarks—

From what I knew of her character for many years (she being a native of the same place with myself), and from what I have observed of her since she came to the Colony, I could say much in her praise; or rather in praise of that grace which made her what she was: but I forbear. Let it suffice to remark, that I have good ground to believe that her heart was much set upon the work of Missions; and that there was a prospect of her being not only a great comfort to her now bereaved husband, but a helpmate indeed in the work of the Lord. But, in her case, as well as in that of our other departed Sister, it pleased our Heavenly Father to bestow the crown on one who had only for a short time engaged in the conflict. His will be done!

Mr. Raban thus speaks of the departure of Mrs. Renner—

One of the Society's oldest servants in this Mission, our respected Sister Mrs. Renner, has been most unexpectedly removed from us. She had been afflicted for some time with pains in the knee, and had afterward an attack in the stomach, but was not considered in danger: in fact, she thought herself so well on Sunday, the day before she died, that she proposed to take a ride the next day. On the Sunday Morning, she conversed on religious subjects with one of the Communicants, and afterward read two Chapters: the 103d Psalm was one of the portions which occupied her attention when she thus opened the Sacred Volume for the last time: in the evening, she raised herself up in bed, knelt down, and prayed for a considerable time; and then, quietly taking leave of her attendants, she directed them to retire to rest. Early the next morning, she was observed by one of those about her to be apparently fainting: they hastened to her relief, and immediately administered some cordials; but it was too late; the conflict was over, and the spirit had taken its flight, no more to return.

From these losses, it is obvious that Gloucester is in a very destitute condition; Matthew T. Harding, the Native Assistant, has the charge of it; while William Davis, from Leicester, renders what assistance he is able. In August, Mr. Betts reports that the place looked deserted: the Church had scarcely a whole window in it, and the Dwelling-house and School were much out of repair.

Matthew Harding reports at Michaelmas, that Divine Service had been well attended on Sundays, but there were few on Week-days. The Communicants were stated by Mr. Scholding to be, at Midsummer, 130. At Michaelmas, Mr. Betts reported that he had preached once at Gloucester during the Quarter, and administered the Lord's Supper to about 80 Communicants.

The Returns of the SCHOOLS are—

	Lady-Day.	Midsummer.	Michaelmas.
Boys	81	56	87
Adults	11

In the Lady-Day Quarter, 22 Boys had been received, and 8 had been put to trades. In the Midsummer Return no account is given of the diminution of the number: it is, perhaps, an error.

In her last Report, at Lady-Day, Mrs. Renner gives the following particulars of her School, which, after her death, was removed, as has been stated, to Kissey:—

The School contains Six Classes, of which all are busily employed in making up clothing for the Hospital: there is no marking carried on in my School at present, because I cannot get any canvas to mark on. They are all going on very well with their reading, spelling, and writing. Four Girls have been married out of our School in this Quarter.

In the present depressed state of the Mission, it is gratifying to observe the desire for spiritual instruction manifested at this Station. At Lady-Day, Mr. Lisk states—

The attendance on the Means of Grace has been on the increase; and many appear sensible of the mercy bestowed on them in being favoured with another Pastor, and fervently pray that his life may be spared.

On the same subject Mr. Betts writes at Michaelmas—

I think favourably of the people, and am of opinion that if a Clergyman or European Schoolmaster were stationed there, he would find much to encourage him in the steady conduct of the people and their attention to the externals of religion.

The following account given by Mr. Scholding of the attentions which he had received, encourages the hope that some few, at least, are under the saving influence of Divine Truth :—

Much of the power of religion was manifested among the Communicants, during the first part of my illness: several of them would come, when I was expecting shortly to be removed from this lower world, and read a chapter and pray with me: this was truly refreshing to me; and the more so, because I could evidently see that their hearts were affected.

Leicester.

This Station remains under the care of William Davis, a Native Teacher. Divine Service is held twice on Sundays, and three times in the week. In the latter part of 1825 and the beginning of 1826, Mr. Lisk, from Gloucester, assisted William Davis on Wednesday Evening and Sunday Afternoon. The building used as a Place of Worship and a School has fallen into ruins: another was about to be erected. The people continued to be very attentive. W. Davis visits the sick in the Hospital at Leicester Mountain, and those who live about the town. The Communicants decreased to four, several having been excluded for sinful conduct. The Scholars were, at Michaelmas, 9 Boys and 4 Girls: they were anxious to improve. The inhabitants are very industrious in cultivation.

Mr. Betts had been requested to visit Leicester occasionally; but in the Michaelmas Quarter he reported that he had been unable to do so.

Wilberforce.

No Report has been received.

SHERBRO COUNTRY.

By the last Report, there were in the Day School, under Stephen Caulker, 21 Boys; and in the Evening School, 8 Boys and Adults. He spoke favourably of their progress at Christmas.

The Annual Report of the Mission, drawn up by the Missionaries, will be found in Appendix II.

From the Returns of the various Stations in this Mission it will be seen, that, in the providence of God, the Society has not of late possessed sufficient strength for the benevolent work in which it is engaged. While new accessions to the Colony are continually making, the number of those who are labouring for its spiritual benefit is gradually diminishing; and the supply of Christian Teachers is inadequate to the wants of a population of 16,000 souls. Under the trials to which the Society has been subjected by the removal of so many servants of God from this field of labour, submission to His sovereign appointments is an obvious duty, and the language of His dealings is, Hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

It is, surely, an equal duty not to faint under the present rebuke; and while the Government of our Country occupies a post in Western Africa, for purposes, comparatively speaking, of an inferior kind, it would be criminal in a Society, with the highest of all objects in view, to abandon the field, and to surrender the spiritual interests of so many of their fellow-subjects to the dominion of Darkness.

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

The labours of those who are employed in Missionary Objects, in the countries adjoining the Mediterranean, are daily assuming a more interesting character; and heighten the anticipation of that period, when, by the blessing of God on the prayers and endeavours of His servants, pure Religion shall be communicated to the Eastern Churches; and, through them, to their Mahomedan and Heathen neighbours.

The Rev. William Jowett has been so much burdened with the preparation of Publications for the PRESS, which is becoming an engine of direct and extensive good, that the Committee rejoice in being at length enabled to send him an associate in his labours, the Rev. Christopher Frederick Schlienz, whose departure has been already mentioned.

His need of assistance will be seen from the following communication in August:—

After having been nearly eleven years on this Mission, I feel that work has so greatly accumulated, and strength and animal spirits for many kinds of detail have so much abated, that an effective helper is become necessary. It is the more requisite that such a helper should be appointed, as I may have been here (should life be spared) thirteen or fourteen years before an associate will have got into proper co-operation. Foreign languages are the occasion of so great delay in coming into full action.

The qualifications of such a fellow-labourer he thus traces:—

The kind of co-adjutor which I want is such, that the man should be specifically chosen. He should possess a decided turn for languages; as one chief part of his employment would be to labour with me in conducting the Greek and Arabic Presses. We must look to every branch of the Mediterranean Mission growing extensively: he must, therefore, be a growing man. The arrival of Mr. Koelner, a young man in health and who will not be happy if he has not plenty of work, is greatly augmenting my labours. Hitherto the responsibility of every literary and every mechanical detail of the Printing Office has rested on me: an efficient helper, therefore, must be a person possessing both literary talents and also the habits of a man of business—that exactness and system, without which the multifarious occupations of the Office would rapidly fall into confusion.

It will be seen, by the last Report, that Mr. Andrews's health was so far restored, as to admit of his giving some assistance in the Printing Office: he, however, gradually declined, and died in peace on the 4th of September. Of his closing days, Mr. Jowett gives the following account—

For the last preceding fortnight he had been continually sinking so rapidly, that we several times thought he was dying. His frame of mind, although not elevated, was steadfast in hope; so that it was truly encouraging and consolatory to be called to pray by his side. At various times, even when nature seemed exhausted, and consciousness of all around suspended, he would, at the name of Christ, come to himself; or rather, I might say, his mind came back to us, and gave some token that he was fully alive to the presence and mercy of his Redeemer: this happened so often, as greatly to edify and comfort us. I buried him the next day, assisted by our Missionary Friends, in a grave only three paces from that of our Brother Deininger.

Mr. Koelner has succeeded Mr. Andrews in the Printing Office; and Mrs. Andrews continues to occupy herself, most usefully to the Mission, in superintending and conducting the department of Book-Binding: she has two Young Women under her; and, for the more laborious work, the occasional help of a man: the Cause in which she is occupied is the choice of her heart; and, in promoting it, she wishes to live and to die.

Some idea may be formed of the labours of the Printing Department from the following List of Publications issued from the Press or nearly ready, up to the 10th of April, with the number of pages of which each Book or Tract consists, and the number of copies printed: they are of various sizes, from octavo downward.

GREEK—Brief History of the Church of Christ (as in Italian): first three Centuries: 92 pages: 1500 copies—Morning Hours (as in Italian): 80 pages: 1000 copies—Twenty Short Stories (as in Italian): 43 pages: 1000 copies—"Religious Converse;" being Nine Dialogues between different Young Persons: 51 pages: 1000 copies—"Nature and Grace" (from Serle's Christian Remembrancer): 14 pages: 1000 copies—"The Friend of Man" (as in Italian): 1000 copies.

ARABIC—Reading Lessons: 16 pages: 1000 copies—Ten Commandments and Sermon on the Mount: 16 pages: 2000 copies—Reading Lessons, Ten Commandments, and Sermon on the Mount: in one Tract: 32 pages: 1000 copies—Extracts from Scripture relative to Youth, with Reading Lessons: 24 pages: 500 copies—Reading Lessons, with Arabic Proverbs and Lokmann's Fables: 24 pages: 500 copies—The Three Epistles of St. John: 24 pages: 1000 copies—The Two Epistles of St. Peter: 29 pages: 1000 copies—Second Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles: 8 pages: 1000 copies.

ITALIAN—Life of Swartz (extracted from the Missionary Register): 80 pages: 1500 copies—Brief History of the Church of Christ: first six Centuries: 116 pages: 500 copies—Twenty Short Stories, from Ecclesiastical Writers (Anecdotes selected from the preceding Work): 27 pages: 1000 copies—Morning Hours; or Thirty-one Meditations, adapted for each Day of the Month (selected from Serle's Christian Remembrancer): 63 pages: 1500 copies—Conversion of St. Augustine, extracted from his Confessions: 12 pages: 1000 copies—St. Augustine's "City of God:" 12 pages: 500 copies—"Food of the Soul;" or a Collection of Divine Promises, useful for every Occasion of the Christian Life: 28 pages: 250 copies—Milner's History of the Church of Christ: First Century: about 150 pages, of which 112 pages are printed: 500 copies—"The Friend of Man" (a Monthly Publication, beginning with January 1826): 24 pages each Number: 750 copies.

Mr. Jowett writes—

A large quantity of these Publications is now in the course of circulation, in the Ionian Islands and Greece, at Constantinople and Smyrna, and in Syria and Egypt.

Mr. Gobat arriving in Malta, on his way to Egypt, at the time when the revision of a number of Arabic Tracts pressed too heavily on Mr. Jowett, occupied himself for a few months, very advantageously for the Mission, in preparing them for the press. There were then Sixteen Arabic Tracts in hand—the largest, the Dairyman's Daughter; the shortest, of 10 pages.

The Arabic Tracts of Ysa Petros, while they possess the advantage of being idiomatic in expression, require, as Mr. Jowett has found to be the case also with the productions of his Italian and Greek Translators, the accurative revision of an intelligent Scholar. The peculiar dialect of the Translator, as the dialect of the Modern Arabic used in Syria, may affect, as Mr. Gobat suggests, the purity of the translation; and further imperfections will inevitably arise, as he states, from the manner of thinking among the people of these parts, from the want of thorough knowledge of the language from which the translation is made, and from a defective view oftentimes of the real meaning and import of Scripture. This state of the case shews very strongly the labour and responsibility which lie on a Conductor of the Press in these regions.

The Arabic Tracts carried through the press under Mr. Gobat's superintendence were as follows:—

Dr. Green's Questions on Religion: 20 pages: 1000 copies—Prayers for every Morning and Evening in the Week: 76 pages: 500 copies—Dialogue between a real and a nominal Christian (which is the Tract entitled, "Dialogue between a Traveller and Yourself," with another title): 10 pages: 1500 copies—Life of William Kelly: 35 pages: 2000 copies—Dairyman's Daughter: 140 pages: 2000 Copies.

Besides these, he revised the following for the press—Serious Thoughts on Eternity—Negro Servant—End of Time—Chrysostom on Reading the Scriptures—Treatise on Prayer, by the late Rev. Pliny Fisk.

Mr. Gobat, who has passed forward, with his countrymen, into Egypt, has taken with him the manuscript translation into Arabic of a Tract on Redemption; being desirous to ascertain on the spot the accuracy of various theological terms used therein: it will then be returned for the press at Malta.

It was stated in the last Report, that the distracted state of the country prevented Mr. Hartley from visiting Continental Greece; and that, on leaving the Ionian Islands, he proceeded, in December 1825, to Asia Minor. He made Smyrna his residence till the middle of June, visiting during that time the Seven Churches: about the middle of June he removed to Constantinople, where, and at the neighbouring village of Therapia, he remained till the 24th of December, when he embarked for Malta, at which place he arrived on the 11th of January. He left Malta the end of March on his return to Constantinople, and arrived there after a voyage of eleven days.

Mr. Hartley's voyage from the Ionian Islands to Smyrna was attended with considerable peril: on reviewing it, after his arrival at Smyrna, he thus expresses his feelings—

I have now to record the goodness of God in the ancient city of Smyrna, and on the terra firma of Asia. Every day and every circumstance of my life have been marked with mercy; but my last voyage has been favoured with more than ordinary displays of it. Often have I been in the utmost danger: several times had I to ask myself the solemn question, "Am I prepared to die?" but as often did God interpose, and rescue me from impending evil. On three occasions, in particular, I found myself in the circumstances described in the cviith Psalm, 23—30.

On one of these occasions he thus describes the state of his mind:—

Never had I so completely before me the last hour of man's extremity. I planted myself on the cabin stairs; and steadied myself against the tremendous agitation of the vessel, by laying firm hold of the companion. In this situation, I asked myself what I could expect, if I were to be whelmed in that terrific sea which was roaring around me. I found nothing in my life or character which could afford me a ground of justification before God. I thought of the dying thief; and could hope for salvation on no other terms than his. I was, however, enabled to believe, that the Saviour, who had mercy on him, would equally extend His mercy to me. I knew the value of His atonement. I was no stranger to the extent of His love. Hence I obtained confidence; and, though my nature shrunk from a plunge into the deep, I knew that all which followed would be happy and glorious.

Mr. Hartley makes the following remarks on the ancient city at which he had arrived through these perils:—

The Traveller rarely sets foot on a more interesting spot than Smyrna. As he approaches the port, he discerns both Vessels-of-War and Merchant Ships, in great variety: the old British Union is seen floating over our English Frigates: the White Flag of France waves, with simple elegance, over the vessels of her own nation: the Ensigns of Austria, Holland, Sardinia, and of other countries, are all conspicuous: I never saw so interesting a nautical spectacle; and, as it was Christmas-Day when I arrived, all the colours were displayed, guns were resounding in honour of the occasion, and martial music was filling the air. On landing, the scene is no less singular: the utmost variety of costume is everywhere visible: not to mention the Franks from every part of Europe who are seen crowding the streets, what is still more striking,

> The Turk, the Greek, th' Albanian, and the Moor,
> Here mingle in their many-hued array.

It would be easy to swell the catalogue, by the "high-capp'd Tartar," Armenians, Jews, Persians, &c. The Turks may with truth be styled the nation of elegant dress: as a whole, their garb is unrivalled: the dress of Europeans appears mean, when matched with the majestic robes of the stately Osmanli. Another novel sight, which meets the eye on landing, is that singular and useful animal, the camel: you see him pacing along the streets with slow and measured steps, or kneeling, according to his custom, to receive his burdens. I speak not of mosques and minarets, of caravanserais, nor of a multitude of other objects, which may be easily conceived new and interesting to an Englishman.

The circumstances which render Smyrna more peculiarly interesting are thus touched on by Mr. Hartley:—

To a Christian there are reflections, which will not fail to throw a serious cast over the objects before him: here, he remembers, was one of the favoured Churches, to which were addressed the Inspired Letters of the Apocalypse: here, in early times, the Martyr Polycarp exhibited a noble testimony for his Divine Master, and obeyed the counsel which had been given the Church of Smyrna—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. With such ideas recurring to his mind, the Missionary will feel impelled to pray earnestly for power to acquit himself faithfully in the discharge of his important functions; and will be animated by the reflection, that he is serving the same cause for which Polycarp died, and that even to him is proffered the same crown of eternal life.

During the first three months after his arrival in Smyrna, Mr. Hartley was much occupied in study. He writes in March—

My principal object has been study: under this term I comprehend the acquisition of languages, and the perusal of books connected with my various duties. French is so much spoken in these parts, that I have deemed it advisable to obtain some familiarity with that language; and have also found it necessary to give much attention to Greek and Italian. I have spent some time in the examination of the Greek Fathers; and have prepared myself for future action, by an increased acquaintance with the subjects in dispute between us and the Latin and Greek Churches.

Mr. Hartley has sufficiently matured his knowledge of Modern Greek, French, and Italian, to be able to maintain in them and inculcate the truth.

While thus engaged in preparing himself for further usefulness, he has endeavoured to improve the opportunities which have been afforded him for conversation and private intercourse. On this subject he writes—

When I am engaged with only a few individuals in reading the Scriptures, in explaining and enforcing their meaning, and in united prayer, I feel myself to be employed in my chief Missionary duty.

Of the effect of his labours he thus speaks—

Not a few persons have been led to disclaim those errors in which they have been educated, and to join me in religious worship. Of some I even venture to hope, that it has pleased God to accompany the acquisition of knowledge with a considerable change in their moral character; and it is my earnest prayer that they may prove themselves true followers of Christ, by sincere devotion of heart and by exemplary sanctity of life.

On the 28th of March, Mr. Hartley set out, in company with the Rev. Mr. Arundell, the British Chaplain at Smyrna, on his excursion to the country of the Seven Churches. This occupied him about a month: he then returned to Smyrna, and continued there till his departure for Constantinople. The following extracts from his Journal on this occasion will be read with interest. His visit to Ephesus suggested the following reflections:—

In leaving Ephesus, my mind was very naturally occupied with that important Epistle, which was once addressed to the Angel of this Church: Rev. ii. 1—7. For a Missionary, that Epistle contains most useful instruction. It tells him there are some who call themselves Apostles, but are liars: what, then, would constitute me a false apostle? Should I disseminate other doctrine than that which God has revealed; should I add any inventions of men, or hold back any truths of God; or should I propagate the truth itself, from improper motives or in an improper manner—I should, unquestionably, be a deceitful worker, even though I might assume the appearance of an angel of light. May the awful language of Inspiration ever fall with weight upon our ears and be most deeply impressed on our hearts—Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed (Gal. i. 8.)! and may the Spirit of Truth so fully enlighten the mind and so powerfully influence the heart of every Missionary, that we may be workmen that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth! The Epistle teaches also every individual Christian, that it is possible to exhibit some brilliant parts of the Christian Character, and to be distinguished for labour, for patience, for perseverance, and for other very excellent qualities, and yet to have a fatal malady commencing its attacks, which threatens the very ruin of all our hopes—Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love! How few there are, who do not feel the charge too applicable to themselves! How few, of whom it could be remarked, as of St. Augustine, "He never left his first love!" But, unless we call to remembrance the station from whence we are fallen, and repent, and do the first works, that intimation of the Divine displeasure which is here given will not fail to be accomplished—I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. The neglect of such an admonition, in the case of an individual, would involve consequences analogous to those which are more peculiarly threatened against a whole community; but, when an entire body of Christians, when a Christian Church, becomes guilty of this sin, the indignation of God is exhibited in the face of the world itself. At Ephesus you find at present only one individual who bears the name of Christ! and where, in the whole region, do you find any semblance of Primitive Christianity? The country once favoured with the presence of St. Paul, of Timothy, and St. John, is now in the situation of those lands, of which it is said, Darkness covers the earth, and gross darkness the people—He, then, that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches.

The state of Philadelphia, and the feelings which it occasioned in his own mind, are thus described by Mr. Hartley:—

As we drew near, I read with much interest the Epistle (Rev. iii. 7—13) to that Church. The tear of Christian pity must fall over Modern Philadelphia. Were Christ Himself to visit it, would He not weep over it, as once over Jerusalem? Alas! the generation of those who kept the word of our Lord's patience is gone by; and here, as in too many other parts of the Christian Vineyard, it is difficult to discover better fruits than those which are afforded by briars and brambles! It is, indeed, an interesting circumstance to find Christianity more flourishing here than in many other parts of the Turkish Empire: there is still a numerous Christian Population: they occupy three hundred houses: Divine Service is performed every Sunday in five Churches; and there are twenty of a smaller description, in which once a year the Liturgy is read. But though the candlestick remains, its light is obscured: the lamp still exists, but where is its oil? Where is now the word of our Lord's patience? — it is conveyed in sounds unintelligible to those who hear: when the very Epistle to their own Church is read, they understand it not! The word of legendary superstition and of multifarious will-worship is now more familiar to their ears. And where is the bright exhibition of Christian Virtues? —unhappily, the character of Christians in these countries will scarcely bear comparison with that of Mahomedans themselves! In a word, Philadelphia has had her share in that utter apostacy from true and practical Christianity, which has been the bane of the East. Grievous wolves have entered in, not sparing the flock (Acts xx. 29.) There have been false teachers among them, who privily have brought in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them: and many have followed their pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way of truth is evil spoken of (2 Peter ii. 1, 2.) But, though I am compelled by truth to speak in this manner, I gladly seize this opportunity to express my conviction, that ere long there will be a great renovation in the Eastern Churches. This is not the place for detailing the grounds of such an opinion; but I state with confidence this result of my observations, during my intercourse with Oriental Christians. Nothing is wanting, but perseverance in imparting instruction on every favourable occasion; and, ere long, we shall see the fruit of our labours. The English Missionaries who visit these countries in a zealous and affectionate spirit will find the language once addressed to Philadelphia applicable to themselves: Behold! I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it.

The contrast between the condition of some of these ancient Churches and that of others, as thus noticed by Mr. Hartley, deserves attention:—

I cannot conclude this brief account of Philadelphia, without stating, from personal observation, the remarkable fact, that, while Ephesus, Laodicea, and Sardis, the three Churches which called forth the denunciation of displeasure on the part of our Lord, are now nothing more than abandoned ruins, this Church, together with Smyrna and Thyatira (and this is also the case with Pergamos, which I have not yet visited), still contain flourishing communities of Christians.

The pen of a celebrated Infidel bears witness to a circumstance which is worthy of notice in regard to Philadelphia. "Philadelphia, alone, has been saved by prophecy or courage. At a distance from the sea, forgotten by the Emperors, encompassed on all sides by the Turks, her valiant citizens defended her religion and freedom above fourscore years; and, at length, capitulated with the proudest of the Ottomans. Among the Greek Colonies and Churches of Asia, Philadelphia is still erect; a column in a scene of ruins." (Gibbon's Decline and Fall, vol. xi. chap. 64.)

Mr. Hartley adds—

The circumstance that Philadelphia is now called Allah-Shehr, "the City of God," when viewed in connection with the promises made to that Church, and especially with that of writing the name of the City of God upon its faithful Members, is, to say the least, a singular occurrence.

Full particulars of Mr. Hartley's visit to these interesting Churches will be found in the Missionary Register, pp. 286—296, and pp. 321—328.

After his visit to the Churches, Mr. Hartley remained at Smyrna till the 14th of June; when, in company with Mr. King, he set out for Constantinople, at which place he arrived on the 22d of that month. He speaks with gratitude of the benefit derived from the company of Mr. King in Smyrna and on his journey to Constantinople, and says of him and of another fellow-labourer—

I feel it equally a duty and a pleasure, to bear witness to his unremitting zeal, and to the blessing with has attended his efforts: many persons have been excited by him to study the Scriptures; and some there are, I doubt not, who will hereafter be found to have reaped eternal benefit from his labours. A second advantage, during my visit to Smyrna, has been an intercourse of three weeks with Mr. Wolff: it would be very unbecoming for Missionaries to indulge in the language of encomium; but so much I must be permitted to say, that I bless God for his active and successful exertions, and hope that they may be continued for a long succession of future years.

On passing through Thyatira, on his route to Constantinople, Mr. Hartley mentions the following circumstance as illustrating the demand which exists for Tracts:—

A Greek of this place said, that two Missionaries, who were doubtless the Rev. Messrs. Fisk and Parsons, had visited Thyatira, five or six years ago, and distributed books: they had presented him with one; which he had actually lent to more than two hundred persons.

During the summer, Mr. Hartley resided at Therapia, a small village near Constantinople, where he pursued the same plan, as at Smyrna, of giving instruction in private. He writes from there—

I have found here, as elsewhere, abundant opportunities of making known the truth to the Greeks. I have been in habits of daily intercourse with five Young Men, and have given them regular instruction in Christian Doctrines, and on various other subjects. Beside them, there are many other persons whom I have seen occasionally, and whom I have had the means of inducing to attend to religion: two of these appear to be truly concerned to obtain eternal salvation.

Of the Young Greeks here mentioned, Mr. Hartley adds, in a Letter of the 3d of October, after his return to Constantinople from Therapia—

They have lent an attentive ear to the Truth. I was enabled more than formerly, avoiding needless controversy, to lead my young friends to those important truths, which it is most essential that man should know. Yet, notwithstanding this care, I am sorry to inform you, that a degree of hostility was displayed toward the close of my stay at Therapia, such as I have no where else met with from Greeks. My subsequent removal to this city will, I trust, be useful in pacifying the storm.

The state of the Jews at Constantinople cannot fail to excite the attention and sympathy of the Christian Church. A spirit of inquiry has become very general among them; and Mr. Hartley expresses his persuasion that many are convinced that the Messiah is come. The Baptism of three individuals of this nation by Mr. Hartley, their subsequent seizure, and the sufferings to which they have been exposed for their profession of the faith, have been very fully stated in the Missionary Register, pp. 44, 45, 205—210, and 328, 329. On Mr. Hartley's return from Malta to Constantinople, he found, that while two of them had by the grace of God been maintained stedfast in witnessing a good confession, the third, overcome by the length of his sufferings and by despair of seeing them terminate, has renounced his profession. On this circumstance Mr. Hartley writes—

To me, it is matter of astonishment and gratitude, that they have not all adopted the same resolution. It is almost impossible to conceive the extremity of misery to which these persecuted individuals have been subjected—prison—stripes—chains—threats—hunger—cold—separation from friends and advisers—constant society with criminals and abandoned characters—severe sicknesses in consequence of their sufferings, without physician and without medicines—confinement, in a place, not only destitute of the common comforts of life, but disgusting from its want of cleanliness. These are but a part of their distresses. I say it with full conviction, that, to meet death itself, would have been more easy, than to support such a complication of long-continued sufferings.

What renders their condition the more deplorable is, that they have no Christian Friend or Minister to instruct them, nor Christian Example to direct them; and, from their previous circumstances, their knowledge of the doctrines and duties of Christianity is but limited. I have had an interview with them once at the gate of the Arsenal, but I cannot obtain such access to them as would give me an opportunity of exercising my proper duties toward them. When I saw John Baptist Castro, he appeared like a man in the last stage of a consumption: I asked him if he felt willing to die: he should wish, he replied, to have an opportunity, previously, of bringing some of his countrymen to the knowledge of the Truth.

The opening prospects of Missionary usefulness in Turkey are thus noticed by Mr. Hartley:—

With regard to Missionary Proceedings in general, I think that we may consider them encouraging. Numerous opportunities present themselves of instructing individuals in the truths of religion; and I fully expect to be employed in this manner, without intermission, the whole summer. In fact, as your number of acquaintances increases daily, occasions of usefulness run on almost without limit in so immense a city as Constantinople. These opportunities are more frequent among the Greeks, than any other body: but I am happy to inform you, that the door is opening for us among Roman Catholics also, and that our books are received by many of them with eagerness. It is also worthy of remark, that those very books which are in most direct opposition to their Church are received with the greatest pleasure; such, for example, as "Popery, a Novelty"—Tillotson against Transubstantiation—Tillotson on the Necessity of Reading the Scriptures—"Andrew Dunn," &c. I ardently long for full and separate works against each of the principal tenets of Popery: these books not only open men's understandings on their own peculiar subject, but they induce them to study books more readily on the experimental doctrines of Christianity. I also hear that the inquiry has been made amongst Roman Catholics, "Why do not the Protestants open a regular Church in Pera? Turks, Jews, Greeks, Latins, all have their respective Places of Worship—why not Protestants?" the meaning was, a Church for the Natives of the country.

These and other circumstances indicate that LIGHT IS SPREADING. Wherever, indeed, I go in the East, I find persons who are beginning to see into the errors of their different communions. I would not, however, have it understood, that men are to be met with in these countries, who know yet what it is to count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus our Lord. I have a most encouraging conviction that such characters will ere long be found; but too many, alas! we meet with, who while they abandon the yoke of Popery do not abandon the service of sin; and that gigantic fortress, which Satan has been erecting and fortifying for so many ages in the East, will not fall without a tremendous conflict. May God give grace to those of us who have entered on this arduous but glorious service, to endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ—to fight a good fight—and hereafter to join in an universal ascription—Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

I hear, at intervals, of different Jews, who appear to believe in the Messiah: they are, however, so closely watched, that it is almost impossible to have intercourse with them. A Jew cannot call once upon a Missionary, without danger of the severest punishment.

Mr. Hartley adds, in a Letter to Mr. Jowett at Malta—

The Italian Books against Popery are getting on nobly. Notwithstanding the threats and sermons which are pronounced against them, a great number has been circulated, with much advantage; and I believe that they are now extensively read. I much regret that we have not a greater number of powerful works of the same description. Do all in your power to expedite the Italian Translation of the History of the Reformation. These are, beyond a doubt, the kind of books which we need at this time: the longer we delay presenting them to perishing sinners, the longer we leave them without the means of escape: the sooner and the more fully we display to them all the awful abominations of their religion, the sooner we shall be instrumental in bringing multitudes to that Saviour, whose blood alone cleanseth from all sin.

The German Missionaries, whose arrival at Malta has been noticed, left it at the following different dates. On the 5th of April, Mr. and Mrs. Krusé and Mr. Kugler embarked for Alexandria, and landed there on the 15th of that month. It had been in contemplation that Mr. Mueller should assist Mr. Jowett in Malta; but it was finally settled that all should proceed forward: Mr. and Mrs. Mueller with Mr. Lieder accordingly left Malta on the 14th of June, and arrived at Alexandria on the 23d; and Mr. Gobat, having remained in Malta for the purpose of revising Arabic Tracts, as before stated, left on the 26th of August and reached Alexandria on the 6th of September. They were all received at Alexandria by Mr. Salt, the British Consul, with great kindness; and had much favour shewn them by Mr. Gliddon, who is unwearied in his endeavours to serve the Missionaries in Egypt and Syria: they hired a house in an Arab Village, two miles from Alexandria, and studied Arabic under a Syrian Christian: Sermons were preached, during their stay in Alexandria, by one or other of the Missionaries, in English, French, and German: soon after Mr. Gobat's arrival, he set forward, on the 18th of September, with Mr. Lieder and Mr. Kugler, for Caïro, by the Canal of Alexandria; but did not reach that city till the 28th, from a delay of five days, occasioned by an obstruction in the Canal: Mr. and Mrs. Krusé, with their infant Son born on the 3d of August, soon followed; but Mr. and Mrs. Mueller were detained longer, by the indisposition of Mrs. Mueller. Mrs. Mueller's indisposition continued to increase till the 7th of December, when, to use Mr. Jowett's words—

A lingering low fever, probably of the typhus kind, brought this young and truly amiable and estimable servant of the Society, after an illness of between three and four months, to her early grave; or, to speak more as Christians, to an early crown.

By a Letter, written by Mr. Gobat on the 7th of October, it appears that Mr. Lieder, who was indisposed when he left Alexandria, became worse before his arrival at Caïro, but was then slowly recovering. The Missionaries had taken a house in the Coptic Quarter of Caïro, at 100 dollars per annum. They had begun to speak Arabic one with another, and hoped to make it the language of common conversation. Mr. Kugler's proficiency had surprised Mr. Gobat, when they met in Alexandria; and convinced him of the importance of not remaining longer in Europe for the purpose of preparatory acquisitions in that language, than to acquire a foundation of grammatical knowledge.

After Mrs. Mueller's death, Mr. Mueller accompanied by Mr. Kugler, who had returned to Alexandria to visit him during his Wife's illness, left that place on the 13th of December; and they arrived in Caïro on the 18th.

The Missionaries had suffered from illness; but had all recovered at the last dates, except Mr. and Mrs. Krusé, who were both indisposed.

The following extract from a Paper of Instructions put into the hands of the Missionaries will shew the general views of the Committee in reference to the scene of their labours:—

The designation of Mr. Gobat and Mr. Kugler is to Abyssinia. The question whether they should visit Jerusalem will probably be affected by the present troubled state of the Levant: but if they should succeed in finding Abyssinians in Caïro, one object of their visiting Jerusalem will be attainable in Egypt: they will thus also not be thrown back so far, in the period of their departure for the Red Sea.

Messrs. Krusé, Lieder, and Mueller may be considered as at present chiefly designed to occupy the post of the Egyptian Mission; and there be gradually laying the foundation of ulterior measures, for themselves, and for such Missionaries as may hereafter join them. The two married Missionaries, it is hoped, will be enabled, as soon as family circumstances permit, to settle for a season, perhaps permanently, at Caïro —the grand resort of North-East African intercourse; while Mr. Lieder will be able with more facility to move, either in Upper Egypt, or occasionally in Syria; and one or other of Messrs. Krusé or Mueller might be his companion in travel.

In pursuance of these Instructions, Mr. Krusé and Mr. Lieder remain in Egypt; while a subsequent arrangement has been made respecting Mr. Mueller, who has accompanied Mr. Gobat and Mr. Kugler to Syria, with a view to the Abyssinian Mission. By the last advices, it appears that Mr. Lieder was about to proceed to Upper Egypt. On this subject he writes—

In February, or the beginning of March, I intend to proceed to Upper Egypt; taking with me an Arabic Servant, a treasure of 40 or 50 Bibles, 100 New Testaments, and a considerable number of Tracts, particularly that excellent Tract "The Dairyman's Daughter," and Arabic Spelling-Books. I think, at first, to live two or three months at Kène; which seems to be the best for my purposes, according to Mr. Jowett's "Christian Researches," as well for doing good to many as for improving my knowledge in Arabic.

The facilities for the introduction of the Scriptures and Religious Publications at Caïro are thus noticed by Mr. Gobat:—

We already see, that, if the Great Enemy does not excite trouble against us, we shall have many opportunities of distributing Bibles and Tracts at Caïro. We could sell Bibles for 18 piastres, New Testaments for 4 piastres, William Kelly for $\frac{1}{2}$ piastre, and Green's Questions, the Epistle of St. Peter, &c. 8 for one piastre: the dollar is at present at 15 piastres. Have the kindness to send us a good supply of all, and tell us how we are to distribute them. We should also have Greek Tracts.

I do not think it will be difficult to find frequent opportunities of conversing with the Coptic Christians here, nor of establishing Schools among them hereafter.

The ancient Church of the Copts, who form the largest Christian Community, and are the old inhabitants of the country, will chiefly occupy the attention of those who are engaged in the Egyptian Mission; and, as their number in Alexandria is very small, compared with that at Caïro, that circumstance suggests Caïro as the proper residence for the Missionaries.

Mr. Lieder thus expresses his view of the prospects of the Mission:—

Our arrival in this country occasioned a great sensation, especially among the Franks: every one shook his head on the subject of our undertaking; and some persons even told us plainly, that we might with a safe conscience return to our own country, under the assurance that all the efforts which we could make would prove useless. But this is calculating probabilities in the manner of the merchant, and not resting on the Oracles of God: on these we would rest, without any apprehension that our perseverance shall turn to our confusion. May the Lord of Glory, who of His goodness has appointed us to be His witnesses among a people buried in darkness, enable us, to our latest breath, to adopt with confidence the words of the Apostle—We walk by faith, not by sight!

Of the Copts and Mussulmans, Mr. Gobat thus speaks—

The Copts are reserved. Br. Krusé has been well received by the Patriarch. I hope something will be done for them; though nothing encourages the hope of success to the Brethren who are to continue here, but the promised Grace of God and the misery of the people.

It will be very difficult to do any thing for the Mussulmans, until the mighty arm of the Lord interfere in a particular manner. The following will give an idea of the sentiments of the most tolerant nation of the Turkish Empire. A Turkish Woman, being divorced from her husband, lived with a Greek for two years; whether married or unmarried is not known, nor is it known whether she had been baptized; but she had made the mark of the Cross on her arm: her husband (the Greek) had a Turkish Servant; who, being dissatisfied with his master, went, four weeks ago, to the father of the woman, who is a man of some consequence: the father went immediately with some soldiers to take her into custody; after which, she was examined: as she confessed herself to be a Christian, she was condemned to be drowned in the Nile: they put her upon an ass, and conducted her to the Boulac, amidst the maledictions of a multitude: they then took her into a small boat on the stream, and stripping her of her clothes and ornaments (the more briskly, as she continued to say "I shall die a Christian"), they bound her arms together on her back, and cast her into the Nile, where she expired. Others had, in the mean time, made a great fire for the husband, who had been condemned to be burnt; but when he saw it, he said he would not die, and made himself a Mussulman in order to receive the pardon, which will probably ruin his soul for ever. I will not add any reflection; only, pray for us, as we pray for you, in the Name of Jesus.

While Mr. Krusé and Mr. Lieder are occupying an important post in Egypt, their associates are preparing to extend the Mission to Abyssinia. At Caïro they met with a Native of that country who has assisted them in the study of the Amharic, and who, there is reason to hope, will greatly facilitate the attainment of the object which they have in view. The way in which they became acquainted with this Abyssinian is thus noticed by Mr. Gobat:—

A French Physician to whom I was introduced promised to look out for some Abyssinian in this city: the same evening he came to us, and told me he had just been invited to visit an Abyssinian in the Armenian Convent, who had lately arrived, and was unwell. The next morning we visited the Abyssinian together: the Physician asked the Armenian Patriarch permission to take him into his own house; for, in the Convent, he was very much reserved, not knowing whether we were Turks or Copts, or what we were. In consequence, M. Dussap, the Physician, took him into his house yesterday morning. I passed the whole afternoon in reading the Bible with him, in Ethiopic and Amharic; with which he could never be satisfied. I gave him a copy of the Amharic Gospels; for which he appeared very thankful; and told me that he had seen some like it in Abyssinia, which came from the English: he added, "The English are very good men." He speaks Arabic with difficulty; but, with the help of some Ethiopic expressions, I was able to make out the following information respecting his country.

The whole territory seems to be at rest at this time; though there is a discord between the King and the Ras of Tigre, of which, however, he did not say much; for he feels himself to be in a strange land, where policy is necessary. The Abouna or Papas, who was sent from the Coptic Patriarch, was an intemperate man, and, as my Abyssinian expressed it, "His words are not good:" he has been expelled from Gondar and its jurisdiction; but he has been received at Adowa, by the Ras of Tigre. Our young Abyssinian, whose name is Girgis, has, in consequence, been sent by the King, with two Mussulmans, as Ambassadors to the Pacha; and Girgis, more particularly, to the Patriarch of the Armenians, to ask for an Abouna from the Armenian Church. Thus the Abyssinians seem to be tired of their dependence on the Copts.

To-day I was again about two hours with Girgis. He was not well, but very friendly; and promised to help me in the study of Amharic. I shall, therefore, take him into our house to-morrow. He invited me, in a very friendly manner, to accompany him to Gondar. Of himself he would say nothing yesterday: but to-day he said, when I offered to take him into our house, "Here I am a poor fellow; but in my own country I am great. When I shall get back, all people will say, 'Girgis! Girgis!'" He reads, pretty fluently, both in Ethiopic and Amharic.

On a fuller acquaintance with Girgis, Mr. Gobat thus expresses his sentiments concerning him:—

Girgis is more, in every respect, than I should have expected in an Abyssinian: I would almost say, that he is not far from the kingdom of God. For the six weeks that he has been with us, we have not yet discovered any deceit in him: he is courteous and thankful: he has the greatest confidence in us; and he would be very sorry if we should not accompany him to his country. He likes very much the Amharic Gospels: and says that if we take any with us, they will be read in all the churches.

Of his own and his companions' studies, he adds—

We are now chiefly occupied in the study of Amharic, which we do not find very difficult; the less so, because the Lord gives us more and more love toward the Abyssinians. We read usually with the help of Ludolf's small Lexicon; and when we meet with an expression which is not in the Lexicon, Girgis explains it to us, for which he has a great capacity, though he knows but very little Arabic. We begin now to speak a little; and we hope that if we pass some months at Jerusalem with Abyssinians, we shall be able to converse with the people when we shall enter Abyssinia.

The first plan of the Missionaries' proceedings, as laid down by Girgis, was to pass through Jidda to Suakin; and, from Suakin, first along the sea-shore, then to the right, toward the west, leaving the whole of Tigre to the left till they reached the first Abyssinian territory in the Mountains of Walkait; from thence, in seven days, to Gondar. With reference to the work on which they were about to enter, Mr. Gobat writes—

The more I advance, the more I see that we need the assistance of the fervent prayers of our brethren in the faith; in order, that, being faithful both in danger and out of danger, in tribulation and in happiness, we may become a savour of life to many of our beloved Abyssinians, and to all to whom the Lord shall send us.

On the same subject Mr. Kugler thus expresses his sentiments:—

I consider the whole affair of the Embassy as a providential interposition in behalf of the Abyssinian Mission; and therefore am ready, with all my heart, to follow the leading star caused to appear on our way by the Commander of the powers in heaven and on earth. Our trust is in Him, and not in men; and He will not put us to shame. I should have wished a few months more time for preparation; for I cannot say that I am prepared as I ought to be for this work: but I shall view every day of our journey as a day of preparation.

It will be seen by the following extract that the plan above stated has been somewhat altered. Mr. Gobat writes on the 26th of January—

About a fortnight after we had taken Girgis into our family, we received into it a Mahomedan Abyssinian also, who had accompanied Girgis. We had hoped to move toward Abyssinia, with these two Natives and the new Armenian Bishop, at the end of this month; but circumstances have since occurred, which oblige us to wait, as we first thought, till about August. The Armenians had no Bishop here to send immediately; he, whom they had first appointed, not being willing to go: thus one must go to Armenia to be ordained there; and that will occasion a delay of three or four months. Our Abyssinians were, however, quite ready to go with us, without an Abouna; till, eight days ago, when we had already fixed the day of our departure, we heard that the principal man who sent the Embassy, the Governor of Samen, was dead. Upon this news, Girgis said, that we could not possibly go, without first having heard the consequence of his death. Poor Girgis cried the whole evening, saying from time to time, "I fear exceedingly!"

Thus we have altered our plan; and, as Girgis is going to Jerusalem, we have now the intention of going thither too, according to the plan which Mr. Jowett gave us when we left Malta. Jerusalem is now under the Pacha of Acre, and all things are settled and quiet. We expect to go through the Desert after ten or twelve days. It is the more expedient for us to leave Caïro for awhile, because, against our will and expectation, we are too much known here. The first week we were here it was reported that we were Missionaries going to Abyssinia; and, even in our going through the streets, we hear Arabs saying to one another that we are soon going to Abyssinia.

Mr. Gobat mentions the following particulars which they had learned respecting the present state of Abyssinia:—

There has been lately a severe dispute about the Virgin Mary. Some would have her to be a fourth person to the Trinity; but others would not, and this opinion has prevailed, but Girgis seems to be ashamed of speaking about it. There is no war at present, except between some Gallas and the Governor of Tigre. The present King, Guigar, has reigned seven years; but Girgis will not say any thing of him, except that he is not good. As soon as the Abouna shall have arrived, they will dethrone him, and set a young Tecla Georgis upon the throne. Marou, the Governor of Dembra, &c., Imam, the Governor of Godjam &c., and the deceased Hecla Mariam, the Governor of Samen &c., were all upon good terms with one another, and with the future King. But Saba Gadees, Governor of Tigre, is against them all. The three former, with the people, have been hostile to the Coptic Abouna, for his dissolute life; and they will have nothing more to do with the Copts of Egypt. But the Governor of Tigre has received him; and therefore, if we go with the Armenian Bishop in the autumn, we must take the way of Suakin. It is also related, that the Governor of Tigre does not allow Europeans to pass beyond his territory. Girgis says that the Abouna was a liar, a drunkard, &c There is no Ras at present. The late Ras Gougra, who died three years ago, is said to have been a good man, and to have put to death all the robbers. He was the father of Imam.

Our plan now is, to go to Jerusalem—stay there for three or four months—come back to Caïro—and depart immediately for Abyssinia, by the way of Suez, Jidda, and Suakin. If you should find opportunity to write to us before we go, we shall be very thankful for all your good advice, and follow all your directions; for we feel that we are but children in knowledge and understanding: but we trust that the Lord will always shew himself unto us as a kind Father, and a faithful and mighty Protector in every time of need.

Mr. Gobat adds, under date of the 2d of February—

After the rainy season has passed in Abyssinia, Girgis will proceed with us, whether the Armenians may have an Abouna ready or not. We intend to go first to Beyrout with Mr. Smith, and thence to Jerusalem.

We shall have a Letter of Introduction from the Armenian Bishop here, to the Armenian Convent at Jerusalem; and, if it be possible, will take up our abode there, in order to have more opportunity to converse with the Abyssinians. If there should be any books printing in Amharic in London, we should be glad to have as many as possible; as well for our own profit in the study of that language, as for the good of the people.

They left Caïro on the 30th of January, and arrived at Beyrout on the 18th of February. Mr. Kugler thus notices their proceedings, in a Letter addressed to Mr. Jowett on the 10th of March:—

We have now spent here about a fortnight; and, during that time, have been greatly blessed among the Brethren here. The Cause of the Lord is prosperous: all the Brethren are in peace together, and are very active.

Br. Gobat and I intend to leave Beyrout to-morrow for Damascus; in company of a late Armenian Bishop, and Br. Nicolayson of the Jews' Society. The English Consul has had the kindness to give us, without our having requested him, a Letter of Introduction to the recently-nominated Pacha, whom we shall probably have the honour to see at Damascus. Br. Mueller and our Girgis go direct to Safet, where we hope to meet them again.

We make considerable progress in the Amharic. Br. Gobat and myself can already make ourselves understood in this language: we jointly praise the Lord for His so graciously assisting us. Girgis reads much in the Four Gospels, and gives good proof that he has got a sound knowledge of them: this circumstance often leads to conversation. We, of course, mention here and there an error of the Abyssinian Church; and the man is, indeed, ready to give up immediately every argument, if he can see himself convinced out of Holy Scripture. We often regret that we have not yet got the Acts of the Apostles or the Epistles printed in Amharic; since these pieces of Holy Writ speak so directly against the errors of the Abyssinian Church. As soon as Girgis sees proofs out of Holy Scripture, he is silent; and acknowledges himself to be in error. We have the intention to spend the next Easter in Jerusalem; from whence, if it pleases the Lord, I will write further.

On the 10th of the same month, Mr. Mueller writes to Mr. Jowett from Beyrout—

The Brethren Kugler, Gobat, and Nicolayson left Beyrout on the 6th, for Damascus. I thought it better to stay here a few days with our Abyssinian: on Monday, we intend to leave this place for Safet. In Safet, Mr. Nicolayson and myself intend to stay for some time, studying Arabic: he speaks Arabic already very well, and has a Teacher in his house. I hope, therefore, by the blessing of God, to profit something there with regard to the language. Brn. Gobat and Kugler and our Abyssinian intend to proceed from Safet to Jerusalem, and see what they can do there: if Ysa Petros should have time to give lessons, it is probable that I may go on thither with Mr. Nicolayson, after we have been some time studying in Safet.

Beyrout has benefited me very much in every respect. The Brethren are men of God. Their labour has not been in vain in the Lord. Antichrist is, indeed, very much against them, in proportion as they are against him. But, the Lord reigneth! Let the earth rejoice!

Our health is, God be thanked! in a pretty good state. Br. Gobat and myself feel, now and then, a little unwell: but still we go on. We intend to stay in Syria and the Holy Land till July or August, and then to return to Egypt. I hope the Lord will bless my efforts with respect to the Arabic Language, that I may soon be useful in His vineyard.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

In the last Report, an account was given of the visits which the Bishop of Calcutta paid to various Stations of the Society, during his progress through his Diocese; and of the benefits which the Missionaries and their Congregations derived from the paternal counsel and affectionate exhortations of their Ecclesiastical Superior. The joy, which these circumstances gave to the friends of the Society, was soon, however, succeeded by feelings of an opposite nature; and in the month of September intelligence was received, that he, on whom the eyes and affections of all who are interested in the spiritual welfare of India were intensely fixed, had, in the midst of his years and labours, been summoned from his Saviour's work on earth to His presence in heaven. At the time when this event occurred, the Bishop was on a journey to the Southern Provinces of India; and, in the course of that journey, arrived at Tanjore on the 26th of March. On the day following, Easter Sunday, he attended Divine Service in the Mission Church, preached an impressive Sermon on the Resurrection, and joined in Communion with the European and Native Christians. On the Monday, he confirmed 12 English and 50 Native Youths; and, after the Evening Service, delivered an animated and affectionate Address to the Missionaries. On the 29th and 30th he visited the Schools; and on the 31st proceeded to Trichinopoly. This was the place where, by the appointment of God, his mortal career terminated; the circumstances of which are detailed in a Letter, dated the 3d of April, from the Rev. John Doran, one of the Society's Missionaries, who, on his way to his Station at Travancore, accompanied the Bishop on his journey. Mr. Doran writes—

Our worthy, our pious, our indefatigable Diocesan is no more! But two hours have elapsed since his immortal spirit took its flight to that God who gave it. We arrived here on Saturday Morning, and his Lordship appeared in his usual good spirits. Yesterday he preached to a crowded audience; and, in the evening, confirmed forty young persons: after which he delivered a most impressive Address. This morning, at six o'clock, I accompanied him to Fort Church, where he confirmed 11 Native Christians. In going and returning, he was most affectionate in his manner; and talked freely on the glorious Dispensation of God in Christ Jesus, and of the necessity which rested on us to propagate the Faith throughout this vast country. On his return, he went to the bath, in which he had bathed the two preceding days: but his Servant, thinking that he remained long, opened the door, and saw him at the bottom of the water, apparently lifeless! The alarm was given—I hastened to the spot—and, alas! mine was the awful task to drag, together with Mr. Robinson, his mortal remains from the water. All assistance was instantly procured—such as bleeding, friction, and inflating the lungs—but in vain! The immortal inhabitant had forsaken its tenement of clay, doubtless to realize before the Throne of the Lamb those blessings of which he, yesterday, spoke so EMPHATICALLY and POWERFULLY.

A cloud hangs over our horizon! The disinterested

Friend, the loving Husband and Parent, the Beloved and Honoured of God, is gone from among us! It is a season for prayer, for deep humiliation. May we kiss the rod! Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils! Trust ye in the Lord Jehovah, for in Him, only, is everlasting strength.

The impression which this afflictive dispensation of Providence produced, and the high estimation in which Bishop Heber's character was universally held, may be traced in the sentiments expressed at the Public Meetings which were held at the three Presidencies, for the purpose of considering in what way the public concern at the loss which had been sustained might be best recorded; and in the Resolutions which were passed at those Meetings*. At Madras, it was resolved to erect a Monument to the Bishop, in St. Thomas's Church. At Calcutta, it was determined to erect a Monument in the Cathedral, and to appropriate any surplus in the fund to the founding of "Heber Scholarships" in Bishop's College: the sum of 8300 rupees was subscribed. At Bombay, 3925 rupees were contributed toward a fund for founding one or more "Bishop Heber's Bombay Scholarships" in the College.

The Committee, wishing to perpetuate the memory of their regard to the late Bishop, have directed the founding of two Scholarships in Bishop's College, to bear his name. The Society, at its Annual Meetings, having repeatedly sanctioned the yearly appropriation, so long as the state of the funds would allow, of the sum of 1000*l.* to the use of Bishop's College, the Committee have acted on that authority; and have, at the proper seasons, voted the said sum for the years 1822, 1823, 1824, 1825, respectively. In voting the grant for 1826, which was done unanimously at the Monthly Meeting of the Committee on the 11th of December, the Committee have requested the Committee of the Calcutta Auxiliary to appropriate the said grant, in conjunction with such a portion of former grants as may be requisite for the purpose of forming two Theological Scholarships in Bishop's College, to bear the name of "Bishop Heber's Church Missionary Scholarships." A special Meeting of the Committee was held at Freemasons' Tavern on the 15th of December, when the Minutes of the previous Meeting, relative to this subject, were confirmed: Resolutions were passed, expressive of the feelings of the Committee occasioned by the death of Bishop Heber, and of their conviction of the inadequacy of one Bishop to the due discharge of the duties of so vast a Diocese; and a Memorial to Government agreed on for the appointment of more than one Prelate to this arduous Station*.

Before they pass to other subjects connected with the Society's operations in India, the Committee will make one or two Extracts from the Sermons which were preached on occasion of the late Bishop's death†; one by his Chaplain, the Rev. Thomas Robinson, on the 9th of April, in St. John's Church at Trichinopoly; the other by Archdeacon Corrie, on the 23d of the same month, in the Cathedral Church of Calcutta.

The views with which Bishop Heber entered on his office are thus described by Mr. Robinson:—

He left his native land (I speak from intimate knowledge and full conviction) with the devoted spirit of a true Christian Bishop, with no selfish feeling, and no shrinking from the arduous and perilous duties which he well knew awaited him. He sought not the office; but felt, while he undertook it, the heavy burden which it imposed, and the awful responsibility of the charge.

He afterwards adds—

He came to this country, accompanied by the prayers and blessings of thousands; and I speak only the language of many hearts in every distant province, when I say, that he came to us, his immediate charge, and to the Heathen Nations among whom we dwell, in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

† A Memoir of the late Bishop Heber, with a full view of his Character, may be found in the Missionary Register for 1826, pp. 577—592.

Of his laborious Visitation, and of the object to which his heart and labours were directed, Mr. Robinson gives the following view:—

Little more than two years have elapsed since he first arrived in India: but, in that short period, he had visited almost every Station where a Christian Church could be assembled; and, while engaged in the longest and most difficult duties of any Bishop since the earlier ages of Christianity, he employed himself, wherever he came, not only in the higher functions of his office, but in the more humble and laborious duties of an ordinary Pastor. He had thus become known to all his Clergy and to all his people, in the plains and mountains of Hindoostan, in the wilder tracts of Central India, in the Stations of Guzerat, the Deccan, and the Western Coast, in the hills and valleys of Ceylon, and in these Southern Provinces, the scene of his latest labours, and henceforth of his dearest memory.

In the course of these journeys, and in all his other labours, his heart was most earnestly and intently fixed, not only on the government of the existing Church, but on the extension of Christ's kingdom in these strong-holds of Heathen and Mahomedan Superstition. He delighted to consider himself as the CHIEF MISSIONARY OF INDIA—a character implied, in his judgment, in the nature of his Episcopal Office itself: and, while he felt it to be his bounden duty to confine his pecuniary aid and direct influence to the establishments of that Church, whose Orders and Ministry he received as Apostolical, yet most sincerely did he rejoice in the successful labours of all Christian Societies, of whatever denomination, in the field of India; for he felt, that, while marshalled against a common enemy, there should be none other than a generous rivalry and a brotherly emulation between our separate hosts; and that even thus the fortune of the field is best secured, if each army keeps its own ranks unbroken and its own discipline inviolate. The several Societies connected with our Church partook largely of his regard and active support; particularly the Venerable Chartered Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, whose general cause, as connected with their central establishment of Bishop's College, he had successfully pleaded at the several Presidencies of Bombay, Colombo, and Calcutta; and which he purposed, on his return to Madras, to recommend there also to the benevolence of the Christian World—the Church Missionary Society, to whose labours and the character of whose Missionaries he repeatedly bore the most honourable testimony—and the Venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, whose interests literally occupied his dying thoughts.

His Ministerial Character, and the qualifications which he possessed for the office to which he was called in the Church of God, are thus traced by Archdeacon Corrie:—

The world has lost one of those who are the salt of the earth; and this Church, an able and faithful Pastor, who fed the flock of God, over whom the Holy Ghost had made him Overseer, with wholesome doctrine, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands—one able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince gainsayers—a defender of the faith, both against those who would reduce it to a mere system of ethics, and those who hold it not of importance to salvation—a firm upholder of the Church of England; and, at the same time, a liberal patron of true religion, under whatever external profession he found it. One more likely to consolidate the interests of true religion in this country—to unite all hearts in the unity of the Spirit and in the bonds of peace—to extend, by a prudent yet zealous direction of Missionary Operations, to the nations around us, those blessings of Christianity which we know it to be the will and purpose of God should be extended to them, and so to bring down the blessing of the Most High upon our National Establishments—one more likely to accomplish these objects could not well be found. No wonder that the love of all good men was drawn out powerfully toward him. There seemed, indeed, reason to hope, that, by him, God would do great things for us: but we are painfully taught, by this dispensation, that His thoughts are not our thoughts. He will send by whom He will send. His designs of mercy toward India must now be carried on by some other hand.

The Committee hope that they and the other Members of the Society may be enabled to improve this event, as the Archdeacon suggests:—

But, have we not reason to consider this dispensation as a rebuke from our Heavenly Father, for not duly valuing and improving the mercies already received? Have we not reason to reflect upon our ways, and to devote ourselves anew to His service? Ought we not to unite in prayer to the Great Head of the Church, that He would raise up for us a suitable Successor to him whom He hath taken away from us? The hearts of men are known to Him alone. The best and wisest of men may err in their choice; or, the person chosen may fail to answer the expectations reasonably formed of him. Our resource, therefore, is evidently in faith and prayer. Let all then, who love our Establishment, and desire that she should be first in usefulness as in influence, unite in supplication, that He, with whom is the residue of the Spirit, may so order the succession, as that the spirit of Elijah may rest on Elisha.

Among the losses which the cause of Religion has sustained in India, it is impossible to overlook that which has been occasioned by the departure of the tried and zealous friend of the Society, the Rev. T. Thomason.

The Second Anniversary of the Calcutta Church Missionary Association was held at the Old-Church Room on the evening of the 9th of December; the late-lamented Bishop in the Chair. The Receipts of the second year amounted to 2586 rupees, and the Payments to 3593.

The Annual Sermon was preached for the Society, at the Old Church, on Whitsunday, when about 800 rupees were collected. The Annual Meeting was held on the 26th of May, and a Collection of 600 rupees made: the Venerable the Archdeacon was in the Chair: he has been appointed a Vice-President of the Auxiliary, and has been requested to act as President till the arrival of a Bishop.

The Rev. Deocar Schmid, Chaplain to the Female-Orphan Asylum, has been appointed Assistant-Secretary and Collector to the Auxiliary.

The Calcutta Committee make the following remarks relative to the Missionary Students who are under their care:—

The Youth admitted to Bishop's College, in May 1824, as a Student maintained by this Society, continues to prosecute his studies with satisfaction. Another Youth who has been educating upward of two years with a view to Missionary Work is at present under the care of the Rev. Mr. Wilson, receiving elementary lessons in Latin, and it is hoped may prove steady in his purpose of devoting himself to the work which he has chosen.

On this head the Committee cannot but earnestly desire to see a greater disposition among the pious Youth of Calcutta to devote themselves to Missionary Work. Though it is a work which should not be entered upon without much consideration and self-examination as to motives for undertaking it and fitness for it; yet, when chosen on right grounds, no employment can be conceived more honourable in the sight of God or beneficial to mankind. The Committee would respectfully press this subject on the minds of pious parents, whose lot is placed altogether in this country.

Let Christian Parents residing in this country devote, like Hannah of old, a Son to the service of the Lord's Temple, and let them not doubt but they and their offspring will be blessed in the deed.

Calcutta.

The Rev. John Theophilus Reichardt and Mrs. Reichardt, with the Rev. Isaac Wilson, are more immediately connected with the direct objects of the Mission, while Mrs. Wilson attends to the Native-Female School Department, and the Rev. Deocar Schmid and Mrs. Schmid have the Superintendence of the Female-Orphan Asylum. The Committee having been unable to send out a suitable person to succeed Mr. Brown as a Printer, Mr. Reichardt, who conducts that Department in addition to his other duties, is at present assisted by Mr. De Rozario.

The MINISTRY of the WORD is continued by Mr. Reichardt and Mr. Wilson in the Chapel on the Mission Premises at Mirzapore and in that at Potuldunga: at Mirzapore, Native Services are held on Sunday Morning and Evening, and the Lord's Supper administered there monthly; and at Potuldunga, Services are held on Sunday and other Evenings.

The Calcutta Committee thus speak of the Missionaries' labours:—

The Rev. Mr. Wilson and the Rev. Mr. Reichardt are each occupied three or four evenings in the week, in preaching to and conversing with such as choose to attend in the Bungalow Chapels of the Society; of which there are two in the Native Town, distant nearly two miles from each other. The attendance at these places is very encouraging; sometimes amounting to 200 persons and upward, but usually from 30 to 80: many of these stay during the whole time of Divine Service. Some prepare questions in writing at home, and apply to the Missionaries for answers: these questions relate chiefly to the Person of Christ, the nature of the Christian Religion, and what would be required of them on their becoming Christians. Some will occasionally debate for a long while on controverted points of difference between Christianity and Hindooism, which generally ends in their being left without any plausible objection to the truth; and they conclude the argument with saying—"Let the Baboos and Pundits first embrace Christianity, then all the other castes will follow."

Besides the Chapels at Mirzapore and Potuldunga, Mr. Reichardt writes in June—

Another Chapel has lately been erected in Semlya, in a very eligible spot. We opened it only about a month ago, and have hitherto had an attendance of from 100 to 200 hearers, who generally stay to hear during the whole time of the Service. The Chapel will hold 300 persons; and, as numbers of the people constantly pass by, and many Hindoos live around, a numerous attendance is secured.

Of the Services at Mirzapore Mr. Wilson writes—

Our little Chapel at Mirzapore has been a great convenience and comfort to the few Native Christians whom we have collected about us. There are now residing with us 8 Christian Families; making in all, 18 baptized adults, and 8 children. Within the last twelve months, 15 persons have been baptized, of whom 8 were adults and 7 children.

The Missionaries express the encouragement which they derive from the present aspect of things, and the spirit of inquiry which the Heathen are beginning, in some degree, to manifest. With these encouraging circumstances, however, they are not forgetful of the difficulties with which their work is attended.

In the conclusion of his Report of this Station, Mr. Reichardt makes the following remarks:—

I have only to add, that, though much is doing at the present period for the good of India, and the prospects of usefulness are most animating, yet it must be confessed that our work still is for future generations, and must be carried on with much patience and a steady perseverance in well-doing. Much knowledge of the Christian Religion is gradually extending itself among Hindoos and Mussulmans, which cannot fail of producing some change for the better; but when this change will take place, we must leave to the Lord, assured that He will certainly establish His Religion at His own appointed time.

There are in connection with this Station one English and thirteen Native SCHOOLS: the Native Schools contain 812 Scholars.

Of the Boys in the Native Schools the Committee report—

They are instructed in all the elementary books published by the School-Book Society; besides which, they read portions of the Christian Scriptures, and are instructed in a Catechism, compiled by the Rev. Mr. Reichardt, on the Evidences and principal subjects of Christianity. This they commit to memory with the utmost readiness; and answer, on examination, to the questions, with a precision which would do credit to any Christian Institution.

There is reason to hope, that a plan, which has been adopted by Mr. Reichardt, relative to the Pundits, will be productive of very beneficial effects on the Schools.

The English School is thus spoken of by the Committee in their last Report—

In addition to the 13 Bengalee Schools, the English School on the Society's premises continues to be regularly attended by about 50 Youths: among these are five Native Christian Boys, whose attendance being more regular, they make greater progress than the other scholars, both in their Bengalee and English studies.

Mr. Reichardt, after mentioning several books which are used in this School, adds—

The English Bible has been a class-book for more than a year; and we do not find the least difficulty in introducing such books. We have occasionally a few experiments in Natural Philosophy: such studies have a wonderfully good effect, where the mind has been so completely trammeled by ignorance and superstition.

The Committee of the Auxiliary have it in view to establish a School for the instruction of the Missionaries' Children: and also for the education of Poor Native Children, preserving their usual habits in respect of food, in order to their being apprenticed out to householders who will watch over them; and thus they hope to raise a race of trustworthy and pious Native Servants.

With reference to NATIVE-FEMALE EDUCATION, the Committee of the Ladies' Society remark—

The subject of Native-Female Education in this country is becoming increasingly popular among all ranks of society; and is evidently gaining rapid accessions of strength, both from the wisdom and zeal with which its plans are executed, and from the increase of its funds, which are annually augmented by the generous contributions of Europeans and Native Gentlemen.

It is in the memory of most of us, that only four years ago this very interesting and novel work was commenced on a GENERAL PLAN in Calcutta, by Members of the Established Church. Many were the difficulties with which it was at first assailed in its feeble career: the work was new; the way comparatively untrod: doubts were excited as to its probable result: means were small; and few were the champions who were willing to risk even a cheering opinion as to the final success of the undertaking: yet persevering zeal has, by the blessing of God, triumphed over the difficulties which surrounded this work at its commencement, until every doubt and uncertainty has been hushed by success, and lost in the general acknowledgments of friendly congratulation.

We look upon facts as unanswerable weapons in the cause of truth; and to facts we can now appeal, as far as the work of Female Education under the care of the "Ladies' Society" is concerned. Mrs. Wilson commenced her labours under the patronage of the Church Missionary Society, in the year 1822. During the first year, Eight Schools were opened, containing 200 children: in the second year, they had increased to above 300: during the third, the number of children was about 500; when the Ladies' Society was founded, and Mrs. Wilson was joined in her labours by Mrs. Jetter who is now in England, and shortly after by Mrs. Reichardt. Thus, in the space of four years, above 500 Native Females have been brought under a course of instruction, and have made fair progress in reading, writing, and needle-work.

The separate Fund, which has been opened by the Society, in support of Native-Female Education in India, amounts to nearly 1800*l.*: of this sum upward of 400*l.* has been produced by a sale of Ladies' Work. The opening of this fund by a Grant of 500*l.* from the Society encouraged the Ladies' Society to begin the Central School. For this object 43,000 rupees have been raised: of these, 20,000 rupees have been contributed by a Native Rajah, Budinath Roy; 18,000 have been raised by the exertions of the Ladies; and the remaining 5000 by the Society's Grant. Of the sum thus raised, 20,000 rupees were applied to the purchase of the ground, and the remainder appropriated to the requisite buildings. The foundation-stone was laid on the 18th of May, by the Lady of the Governor General; and solemn Prayer was offered by the Archdeacon of Calcutta for the Divine Blessing. Many Natives, particularly Women and their Daughters, were present. The liberal Benefactor of the School, Budinath Roy, addressed Lady Amherst, through his interpreter, in terms of deep gratitude for the obligation bestowed on his Countrywomen, and congratulated her Ladyship and the other Ladies on the success attending their exertions.

The number of Schools is thus stated by Mrs. Wilson in February:—

The Society supports 30 Schools, with the requisite Superintendants and expense of conveyances; and it has taken charge of the Burdwan Schools, 12 in number, under the superintendence of Mrs. Perowne, at a monthly cost of 170 rupees. The Ladies' Association has 7 Schools, which will be increased to 10.

It has been stated that the PRESS is conducted by Mr. De Rozario, under the general direction of Mr. Reichardt: it finds employment also for several converted Natives. An idea may be formed of the extent of its operations, from the following statement:—From June 1824 to Feb. 1826, there were printed 52 different Books and Tracts, forming a total of 123,344 copies: these works were of various sizes, from a Tract of 4 pages to a Book of 432; and the editions varied from 80 copies to 6000, but produced a total of nearly six millions of pages: of these pages, more than one half consisted of Single Gospels, the Acts, and the Book of Isaiah; printed for the Bible Society—nearly one-twelfth of the whole were for other Societies and Individuals—and the remainder were printed for the use of the Society's Missions. That the Press is beneficial to the Society in a pecuniary view appears from the following remark made by Archdeacon Corrie—

I send the account of work done at the Mission Press; by which it appears that all the work done for the Society has been done at the expense of the materials; the work, which is paid for, having defrayed the current expenses.

He afterwards adds—

We require a new edition of the Hindoostanee Prayer-Book; and are preparing an entire copy of the Prayer-Book in Bengalee. We have the means, also, of preparing a translation of the Homilies into Hindoostanee.

The demand for Tracts is thus noticed by Mr. Reichardt—

After addressing the Natives, Tracts are distributed to those who are desirous to obtain them. The eagerness for them is sometimes quite overwhelming—a hundred hands lifted up at an instant; while one cries, "I will have a book"— another, "I can read; let me have one"—another, "I wish to get one for my brother, who will read it to me:" thus 50 80, 100, or more Tracts are occasionally distributed.

The importance of enlarging the Society's Premises at Mirzapore, for the purpose of erecting a Chapel and other Buildings in connection with the Mission, having long been felt, the Calcutta Committee have availed themselves of an opportunity, which offered, of purchasing some ground adjoining the property of the Society.

This circumstance is thus noticed by the Committee in their last Report—

The improvements carrying on by the Lottery Committee in Calcutta have added greatly to the healthiness and general value of the Society's Premises at Mirzapore. The new road, leading from St. James's Church northward, runs close to the Society's Premises, taking off the north-west corner, and leaving a space to the southward, which it became necessary for the Committee to purchase, in order to secure the advantage of free circulation of air, as well as to prevent the space being occupied to the detriment of their former premises.

The cost of this new purchase is 24,182 Sicca Rupees; and the Committee did not venture upon it without much deliberation and reflection. The liberality of the Parent Society, in supplying so large a sum as 2500*l.* for the purchase and improvement of the former part of the Premises, made the Committee very reluctant to venture on any act which might involve a necessity of applying for a further grant beyond the annual allowance; and they cannot but hope that the friends of the Society will make an effort to prevent any necessity of selling part of the present estate, in order to the repayment of this latter purchase money. When it is considered, that, in the course of perhaps a few years, the purchase now made would be rendered necessary by the enlargement of the Mission, and then might not be had on any terms, the desirableness of securing the advantage now offered will appear evident.

The Committee feel that they are only beginning a work, which, by the blessing of God, will go on and increase, till it embrace the whole surrounding population. They feel justified, therefore, in attempting literally to lengthen the cords of their Missionary Tabernacle and to strengthen its stakes; and to make such provision, as that the work may not fail in future generations.

The Committee further state, that on the Society's Premises a Puckah Chapel is now erecting for the use of the Missionary Establishment and the neighbourhood. This measure received the sanction of Bishop Heber; who, at the second Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Association, appropriated to this object the sum of 1000 rupees, from a fund placed at his disposal by the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge. About 1500 rupees, in addition, were subscribed at the Meeting *.

Burdwan.

The Missionaries at this Station, mentioned in the last Report, were the Rev. John Perowne and the Rev. William James Deerr, with Mrs. Perowne and Mrs. Deerr. An opening having presented itself for the establishment of a new Station at Culna, Mr. and Mrs. Deerr have removed thither; while Mr. and Mrs. Perowne continue at Burdwan. Mr. Stewart, who originally opened the Schools in this place, has now the charge of them. Two Native Teachers are employed in the Mission, James Buckshee and Ishu Dās.

Concerning the MINISTRY of the WORD, Mr. Perowne reports, that a small Chapel was opened for Native Worship, on the Mission Premises, on the 18th of December 1825: Divine Service is held therein twice on Sundays, and daily morning and evening worship.

Of the effect of his Ministry, Mr. Perowne thus writes—

I am thankful to add, that several persons seem to be seriously thinking about their eternal interests, and that many are becoming desirous of Christian Instruction. One Young Man (a Brahmin, brought up in the English School) has intimated his wish to be considered a Candidate for Baptism; and five others, also brought up in our School, go with me when I preach to the Natives, and openly profess their belief in Christianity. Besides these, the Pundit of the English School, and two friends of his, for some time attended the Means of Grace; and two of them (both Coolin Brahmins) profess themselves desirous of embracing Christianity.

Mr. Perowne's visits to the Villages in the neighbourhood of Burdwan have been the means of exciting a spirit of inquiry. The last Report of the Auxiliary Committee, with reference to these villages, states—

A small Chapel has been erected at Pâlâ: a similar Chapel has since been erected in another village; and, since that, another in a third: the average attendance at each of these Chapels is not less than 100 persons, often 150 or 200.

With these encouraging appearances, Mr. Perowne expresses himself with becoming caution:—

These things are so sudden and unexpected, that I can scarcely tell what to think of them: little should be said about them, till we see what the event will be. I rejoice in the prospect of the Gospel being preached to so many attentive hearers; but, knowing the character of the people, I rejoice with trembling.

He afterwards adds—

Some of the Young Men mentioned above, I have reason to expect, will hereafter be baptized, and, by the blessing of God, become Christian Teachers of their countrymen. Thus, while doors of usefulness are opened, suitable instruments are likely to be raised up; and, both together, seem to be an indication that good may be expected.

The Rev. T. Thomason and Mr. Sherer passed a few days at this Station before their departure for England, for the purpose of making themselves fully acquainted with the state of the Schools and the general progress of the Mission; and express great satisfaction with what they witnessed.

By a Letter dated the 24th of October, it appears that Mr. Perowne's health has suffered, and that he has been compelled to relinquish his labours for the present.

With respect to the SCHOOLS at Burdwan, the Auxiliary Committee, in their last Report, make the following remarks:—

On Mr. Deerr's removal from Burdwan, the number of Village Schools was of necessity lessened: some of the most remote and worst attended were given up: still, however, 15 Village Schools remain under the Rev. Mr. Perowne and his Assistant, containing about 1100 children. As the Missionaries became more conversant in the language, it was discovered that the Teachers of these Schools did not understand the easy books they were engaged to teach. Mr. Perowne observes—

This at first appeared almost a libel on the Sircars and Pundits; but such appeared to be the case with regard to most of them. It therefore became necessary to form them into classes; and explain to them the meaning of the books, previous to their being read in the Schools. With this view the Pundits are assembled every Wednesday, and are instructed by me in the Scriptures, Ellerton's Dialogues, and other books, in a close and particular manner. The Sircars attend, with those of the Female Schools, at eight o'clock on Sunday Morning: they first receive a more general explanation of the Scriptures from Ram Doolal Pundit, and are afterwards catechized by me: at first it was very difficult to get them to attend: they said that it was not the duty of the Sircars to teach the children to read, and they would not undertake it: at length, however, I succeeded; and they now not only come pretty regularly, but several of them also attend Chapel. I can scarcely conceive any sphere of labour more interesting or more important than this—twenty-five School Sircars having under their daily instruction not less than eleven or twelve hundred Children from perhaps not less than 150 different villages!

The improvement which has taken place among the Boys of the Central School is thus noticed by Mr. Dunsmure, formerly Assistant at this Station, but now Student in Bishop's College. He writes—

In my occasional visits to the English School, the marked improvement of the Boys, both in Historical and Scriptural Knowledge, much delighted me. Some of them appear to be so far advanced in English, as to be able, with little or no difficulty, to construe almost any sentence: this effect has more or less been produced from the change which their habits have of late undergone. Their idolatrous festivals have no longer that claim and attraction which they once had; and it is by no means a common thing to see, as now at Burdwan, Heathens remain for months together under a regular course of instruction and moral discipline. This barrier, one of the greatest and most formidable to improvement, being at length removed, the work of education cannot but prosper. These Boys also regularly attend Christian Worship, morning and evening—a great argument that their attachment to deep-rooted prejudices has considerably abated; for, had such a measure been proposed two years ago, when I was connected with the Mission, it would certainly have defeated the objects for which this Seminary was established.

Mr. Thomason and Mr. Sherer were present at an Examination of this School which took place during their visit, and speak highly of the proficiency and religious knowledge of the Youths.

The Girls' Schools, 12 in number, and which are superintended by Mrs. Perowne, have been taken under the patronage of the Native-Female Education Society, at a monthly cost of about 100 rupees. No Return has been made of the numbers of children in these Schools; but Mr. Dunsmure was present at an Examination of them, of which he has given a very satisfactory account*.

The Committee will conclude their report of this Station with the following very interesting remarks made by Mr. Thomason:—

Those who are sanguine in their hopes of an extensive and rapid conversion of the Natives to Christianity will see nothing very encouraging in what has now been reported: but to us, who have watched the course of things from the very commencement of our Missionary Labours, these openings cannot but be very cheering. We have felt the strong prejudices which opposed the work, and the difficulty with which even a common School for the instruction of children could be established: we found it necessary to be cautious and prudent, patient and persevering; and have seen the gradual progress of education, until a whole class of Boys have grown up under our eyes, preparing daily for useful labour, and becoming more qualified and disposed to communicate instruction to their fellow-countrymen. We now see these Boys, some of them actually engaged in superintending Schools, others about to undertake the work of translating, whilst all unite with the Christian Minister in his daily prayers, and even accompany him to Native Villages, and open the Service with a hymn to the honour of the Redeemer, in a Chapel established at the request of the villagers themselves. In all this we must rejoice. We thank God, and take courage; not doubting that He who hath begun the good work will carry it forward. You may easily imagine that to me it is a subject of joy and thankfulness that I have been permitted to see our Burdwan Establishment in what may be called ITS MATURE STATE, before my departure. May God abundantly bless His own appointed ordinances, there and elsewhere, until the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of Divine Truth!

Culna.

The last Report noticed the prospect which then existed of forming a Station at Culna; and the Committee are happy to state that it has since been realized.

The removal thither of the Rev. William James Deerr and Mrs. Deerr has been already mentioned. Of the population of Culna Mr. Deerr gives the following account:—

From the spot where the Society's Premises are, a continued range of houses extends four miles south-easterly, on the western bank of the bend of the river, down to Gootipala below Santipore on the eastern side; and there is an equal range for four miles westerly toward Burdwan. The inhabitants of this place form, according to the account of the Natives, 18 or 20,000 houses or families: if only five persons are supposed to be in one family, the number would amount to between 80 and 100,000 souls. The inhabitants opposite Culna, straight across the river, in Santipore, are stated by the Natives as forming not less than 20 or 22,000 families.

On the character of the people he remarks—

In this region, a considerable part of the population are Brahmins; but the general occupation of the bulk of the people is in different branches of trade and employments in offices: in agriculture, not many are engaged. The place properly called Culna is chiefly inhabited by those who come from different parts of the country to carry on their trade there: this may be a reason why the people there have not the simplicity which villagers generally have, but are more deceitful: and yet they have not so much of the liberty which people in other towns possess, where they care but little for one another; for the first people of the place have great influence over the others. I have also formerly often observed, that the people who come from that quarter were very obstinate Idolaters; and, even now, Idolatry is carried on there with far greater force then it is in Burdwan.

In January, it was stated that there were nearly 1000 Boys and Girls in the Nine Schools mentioned by Mr. Deerr in the following extract:—

In Culna and Ombica, which are united, we have established four Boys' Schools and four for Girls: one of the Girls' Schools is on the Missionary Premises. Besides these, two Boys' Schools lie easterly of us, one at the distance of two miles, and the other of four; and, at the same distances, two are established westerly; and one Boys' School is opened at Santipore, with the design of obtaining access to that interesting place.

In September, Mr. Deerr writes—

The SCHOOLS are promising indeed. The Eight Boys'

Schools are full of large Boys, more so than in any other Station occupied by our Society in this Presidency; neither are the Female Schools, comparatively speaking, ill attended. One thing is particularly pleasing, viz. that in Culna and Ombica, where the bulk of the people reside, there is no Native Bengalee School; but all the children are under our instruction. With the principal inhabitants of the place I have already formed acquaintance. I look for success, however, only to the blessing of our Lord, whose grace is not confined to any particular place. I would not omit to mention, that the lower classes in Culna are as much depraved as in any other place: they are equally addicted to imposition and deceit.

The circumstances of the Mission having rendered it probable that Mr. Deerr might not be fixed at Culna, and the Inhabitants having been apprised of this, a Petition*, addressed to Archdeacon Corrie, was drawn up, and signed by fifteen of the principal Inhabitants; which at once exhibits the desire which they feel for Christian Instruction, and their view of the advantages which they expect to derive from the labours of a Missionary.

Of this Station the Calcutta Committee remark, in their last Report—

The prospect is abundantly inviting, to justify the carrying into effect the establishment of a Mission here, which had long engaged the Committee's attention. At the end of the rains it is hoped a residence for the Missionary may be erected, to admit of that continual superintendence which is necessary to render the Schools efficient.

Buxar.

No European Missionary having been hitherto placed at this Station, Kurrum Messeeh continues to have the sole charge of it. Archdeacon Corrie visited it twice, in the course of a journey which he took to the Upper Provinces. On the 25th of September he writes—

I passed a Sunday at Buxar, on the way up; when about 35 Adults attended Divine Service. On the way down, Mr. Bowley accompanied us: he assisted me in the English Service, and afterwards collected the Hindoostanee Congregation. On Monday Morning he again assembled them for worship, before we set off. The people here are very attentive; and Kurrum Messeeh continues to maintain their confidence and esteem.

The Archdeacon adds—

The want of a Place of Worship has long been felt here. A circumstance occurred, which led me to begin one; which, though it will not answer all that is wanted, will prove, I hope, a suitable substitute for a time. Mary Carrol, a Native Christian, having obtained some arrears of pension as a Widow of Serjeant Carrol, brought me 100 Rupees, "as an offering," to use her own words, "to the Church." This woman has been long one of the most attentive and consistent Christians at the Station: her religious impressions were first received at Chunar; and this offering she made of her own accord, in token of her gratitude for the blessing of Christian Instruction. I obtained from the Commanding Officer leave to inclose a small piece of public ground adjoining the Parade, and, with a donation from another friend added to Mary Carrol's gift, commenced a small building, convenient also for the Natives who live in the adjoining Bazaar.

Benares.

The Rev. Thomas Morris visited Calcutta last year for the benefit of his health, after an attack of fever; and, since his recovery, has been removed from this Station to Cawnpore. The Rev. John Adlington, whose admission to Deacon's Orders was noticed in the last Report, continues with Mrs. Adlington at this Station. Mr. R. Stewart conducts the Schools, and is assisted by a Native, Noor Messeeh. Since Mrs. Morris's departure, Mrs. Adlington has superintended the Christian Native-Female School, which is maintained on the Chapel Premises. Fuez Messeeh has removed to Agra.

Mr. Adlington exercises his MINISTRY among the Native Christians at Secrole, near Benares: from 40 to 60 attend. A Monthly Prayer-Meeting is maintained. Nine Adults have been baptized at this Station, who were brought to the knowledge of the truth by the instrumentality of the Society's Missionaries. The attendance at the Chapel is improved, and the behaviour of the Congregation orderly.

On the state of the people Mr. Adlington says—

They are, in general, ready to listen to the Missionary's message; and it is a pleasing fact, that, though they are well known to be disposed to violence when an opportunity offers, and fail not among themselves to express their dislike of some measures of Government, yet the Missionaries who are daily among them seldom receive the least interruption from them.

The number of SCHOOLS is the same as was stated in the last Report. Of the two Girls' Schools no particulars have been received: of those of the Boys' the following account has been given by Archdeacon Corrie:—

Jay Narain's Charity School is in excellent order: 131 Boys are in attendance. Two Youths educated in this School were engaged in January last, as Assistant English-Teachers in the Cawnpore Free-School: they give great satisfaction in their present situation; and their success, in obtaining such a comfortable provision, has had a good effect in recommending the School to the Natives. Six Youths educated in the School have, during the last year, been appointed Monitors, with an allowance sufficient to allure them to accept the situation: they receive one lesson daily themselves; and a more regular attendance of the Boys and better order in the School are effected by means of these Monitors. Six Schools have been established in different parts of the city, containing about 240 Boys: in these Schools, after the first books, the Gospels are read, and the treatise on Geography in Hinduwee printed by the School-Book Society. The streets of Benares being mostly very narrow, the boys assemble in long verandahs, and the passers-by see and hear all that takes place: this, though unfavourable for the purposes of a School, yet causes what the Boys read to be heard by many, and sometimes a hundred people or upward will crowd around while the Boys are examined in the previous week's exercises, and their knowledge is diffused.

The beneficial influence of the English School is thus noticed by Mr. Adlington:—

The instruction given has, I trust, not been without its blessing. The Holy Scriptures are read with pleasure in all the departments of the School, and impressions of a serious nature excited. A Bengalee Youth, who had been in the School for four or five years, was so much impressed with the daily portion of the Word of God, read in the books of the First Class in English, that he came several times previous to his leaving Benares for Calcutta, to ask for baptism: some time before he asked for baptism, he appeared to labour under much uneasiness of mind, and evidently endeavoured to stifle his convictions: he left Benares through compulsion, as his relations sent him away to prevent him receiving any further instruction: I could not at that time administer baptism. Another Bengalee Youth, who, though never seriously impressed with religious truth, so far saw the absurdity of idolatry as to refuse compliance with the usual idolatrous customs until compelled by the authority of his father, a Brahmin, to bow to an Idol; an authority, which I was given to understand, was daily exercised. Besides two Young Men sent as Monitors to the Cawnpore Free-School, three Boys from the Persian Class were admitted as Students into the Medical College in Calcutta, and gave so much satisfaction as to induce the Managers of the College to write to Benares for more Boys of their description. A Christian Youth, who was brought up a Roman Catholic, and is now receiving instruction in Serampore College preparatory to future usefulness, ascribes his first inclination to things of a spiritual nature to the exhortations addressed to him in the Free School of Benares. The attachment of the generality of the Scholars to their Masters and superintendants is great: this, and the hope of being made instrumental to their salvation, have often compensated both myself and others for the trouble which we have had with them.

Archdeacon Corrie makes the following Report of this Station, when he visited it in his Journey to the Upper Provinces:—

The number of Boys in Jay Narain's Charity School is 150; a greater number than ever before attended. The Boys, in addition to their studies formerly mentioned, now are taught the Catechism, which the Society has long used, in all the classes; so that, besides the knowledge of Divine Truth acquired from reading their usual lessons, the principles of Christianity are distinctly taught them: nor has there, at any time, been any objection made, by either the Boys or their Parents. I was much satisfied with the progress of the First Class in English, and also with the Persian Class. Mr. Stewart expresses himself more gratified with the progress of the Persian Class in Christian Knowledge, than with the English Classes. The latter, he thinks, are more under the influence of worldly motives than the former; the English being acquired always with a view to temporal advancement, whilst their Native Tongue is attended to chiefly to fit them for the immediate employment to which the family has been accustomed. Mr. Adlington expressed himself much encouraged by the attendance and attention at Hindoostanee Worship, and also by the general good-will manifested by the Natives, with whom the school brings him into contact. Several of the Senior Boys often come to his house for religious instruction on Sundays, and not unfrequently go with him to Hindoostanee Worship.

Chunar.

The Rev. William Bowley continues to labour with assiduity at Chunar. He has been joined by Mr. J. Landeman, a country-born person, who was dismissed to his Station by the Calcutta Committee on the 15th of December. On the 17th of February, he opened one of the Schools, which is in the Bazaar, for Public Worship, for the special benefit of the Heathen, intending to hold Hindoostanee Service there twice a week, in addition to the Services in the Church: about 50 were present: the novelty soon attracted great crowds, especially of the higher class of the Natives: a subscription was, in consequence, opened for the erection of a Chapel and School House in the Bazaar: several of the Natives appear to have already felt here the power of the Gospel.

On Mr. Bowley's return to Chunar, after his visit to Calcutta for the purpose of receiving Ordination, he gives the following account of this Station:—

I feel thankful to say that the conduct of the Native Christians has been much to my comfort, though I have not been exempt from trials arising from the weakness and inexperience of young Converts from Heathenism. Divine Service has been regularly performed three or four times a-week, and the Lord's Supper administered once a-month by the Rev. Mr. Greenwood. During my absence at Calcutta, Kurrum Messeeh, the Society's Catechist at Buxar, attended to the duties of the Mission here, and, on my return, I found things to my satisfaction.

Mr. Bowley's Journals have been printed at considerable length in the Missionary Register (pp. 428—437). They shew the extent of his labours, and the Blessing which has accompanied them; and, at the same time, discover the sceptical spirit of some of the people.

Eight Adults received baptism in the course of a few months: of these, three were Devotees, two of whom were deeply learned in all that belongs to the Hindoo System. The Archdeacon of Calcutta writes, in June, that two more Adults had been admitted to baptism. In allusion to the Sunday which he passed at Chunar when on his last visit to the Upper Provinces, the Archdeacon says—

The responses of the Native Congregation, in Hindoostanee, remind one of the hearty Amen with which the first Christians are said to have responded to the public prayers. On the Sunday which I passed at Chunar, about 200 attended Divine Service, of whom about 40 were unbaptized native inhabitants of the place, most of whom attend every Sabbath Day. Some of the Scholars who have received instruction in English afford the most pleasing hopes of their sincere conversion.

Of Mr. Bowley's MINISTRY the Calcutta Committee thus speak in their last Report—

Besides his usual Ministration in the Church, Mr. Bowley has, since his return to Chunar, opened a Chapel in the midst of the Native Town, where he is attended, on the evenings when he officiates, by a considerable number of Natives of respectability, who would not, for fear of incurring reproach, enter the Church. He is heard with much attention; and only on one occasion has any one offered to dispute on the points of controversy. An Adult, somewhat advanced in life, and a Youth have, in consequence of this Service, proposed themselves as candidates for baptism, and been admitted.

The last Report of the Calcutta Auxiliary states that there are six SCHOOLS at Chunar—one for English, one for Persian, one for Oordoo or Hindoostanee, one for Nagree Hinduwee, and two for Kythee Hinduwee. The number of Boys generally attending is 180. No Return of the Girls' Schools has been received.

Mr. Wilkinson visited Chunar from Gorruckpore, and thus speaks of the Congregation:—

I must tell you of the gratifying scene which we witnessed. You may have some idea of our pleasure, when I tell you that nearly 100 persons partook of the Communion. Among the people, so far as a judgment can be formed of the operations of Divine Grace on the heart, the work of God is indeed evident. Our utmost expectations of what was to be witnessed here were more than realized.

Archdeacon Corrie, after his visit to this Station, gives the following account of it—

The Congregation of Hindostanee Worshippers is rather on the increase: the day I was there, upward of 200 attended, of whom at least 50 were unbaptized Natives. I conversed with some of the recent Converts, who appeared to be really sincere. Among them, some are Natives of Villages in the neighbourhood, who, at first, were greatly opposed by their relatives; but, retreating to Chunar, continued to receive renewed strength and encouragement by attending on the means of grace. By repeating their visits home at intervals, they have at length overcome prejudice so far as to be heard with attention on the subject of their change; and in one case, the Convert, who is one of several Brothers, Brahmins, who are the principal cultivators of the village, has been acknowledged by his Family, and allowed to resume his place among them. These circumstances afford much encouragement to Mr. Bowley. They have made the subject of Christianity much talked of; and he finds himself more and more attended to by the people generally. He has purchased a house in the Bazaar, which he is fitting up for a School-Room and for the purpose of preaching: the cost of the whole will be about 700 rupees, which Mr. Bowley has received from various friends in the neighbourhood. Of those Natives who attend Christian Worship, one whole Family have become candidates for baptism. The first of the Family, who became impressed with the subject of religion, was the Eldest Son. About two years ago, he proposed himself for baptism; but his Father entreated Mr. Bowley to delay, and he also would consider whether he should not join with his Son. Mr. Bowley, on this, recommended delay to the Son: he has continued steady; and the Father and Mother, and some other Members of the Family, are now resolved to embrace Christianity.

Gorruckpore.

The Rev. Michael Wilkinson continues at this Station; but repeated attacks of illness have so weakened Mrs. Wilkinson as to compel her to return home.* In the prospect of this painful separation from his Wife and Children, Mr. Wilkinson thus expresses his feelings:—

Thus am I, in all probability, to be bereft of all my earthly comforts; not only of Father and Mother and Brothers &c., but of Wife and Children. I cannot say, that this is my will: blessed be my Redeemer! I do feel ready to say, "not mine, O Lord, but thine be done." The thought that I shall be more thrown into my work, shall be enabled to give more time to it, and to live more among those whose salvation I desire, and for whom I desire to live and die, reconciles me. This seems to be the will of God; and if it can only be done by the sacrifice of all that I love on earth, I desire only the help and presence of my Saviour to enable me to do it. In the event of my dear Wife's leaving India, my intention is to live at the Seminary, so as to have the Seminarists always under my own immediate care.

* Mrs. Wilkinson arrived in this country after the Anniversary.

He subsequently adds—

In this affliction, it is with great comfort, and, I trust, gratitude, that I have to tell you of God's goodness in the preservation of my own health. I have not suffered even inconvenience from the effects of the climate a single day since we landed in India. For my work's sake I trust that health is given. Oh that, with it, grace may be abundantly bestowed, to enable me to devote it all to my Saviour!

The Church was opened on the first Sunday in August; and, since that time, there have been two English and two Hindoostanee Services on the Sunday. In the Hindoostanee Service both Lessons are read, when appointed from parts of Scripture of which Versions have been printed, or when Mr. Wilkinson has had leisure to translate the Lesson during the week: otherwise, only the Second Lesson is read.

Of his MINISTRY he gives the following account:—

My more general labours consist of a regular Service among the Romish Christians, twice on Sundays; besides which, a number attend my house, at nine o'clock every morning: the Scriptures are read and expounded, and this exercise concludes with prayer. Some good, I think I may say much, has already resulted from this daily attendance.

I have administered the Lord's Supper to three persons: two were formerly of Mr. Bowley's Congregation—a converted Brahmin, and a Brahminee his Wife: she is a recent convert, and apparently very humble and sincere: the third was of the Romish Communion, and I trust is now a Christian indeed—I bless God for this instance of His mercy!

On the importance of visiting the Natives, as one of the most efficient means of exciting their attention, Mr. Wilkinson justly remarks—

Enlarged success must depend on our going among the people, and literally obliging them to hear the voice of mercy: not half-a-dozen, besides the Romish Christians, have as yet entered the walls of the Church; and, unless we seek them in markets and public places of resort, our Hindoostanee Churches will remain empty. No part of our work, therefore, can be so important as this: in visits of this kind, I always find a ready hearing, and never return from them without feeling glad that I had been.

Some of the Native Christians of Beteah and Chowree having shewn a disposition to settle here professedly for the sake of attending Mr. Wilkinson's Ministry, a range of tiled houses has been built, where they have taken up their quarters, to the number of twenty-six men, women, and children.

Mr. Wilkinson has found it difficult to obtain Native Assistants in the Schools; and this has led him to commence a SEMINARY for training Youths as Catechists and Readers of the Word among their countrymen. There are at present six Students; of whom two are of Christian, two of Mahomedan, and two of Hindoo parentage.

There are three Boys' SCHOOLS: one called the Upper School, consisting of 68 Boys; a second formed for the Sepoys, in which the numbers are not stated; and a third on the Mission Premises. Of these, Mr. Wilkinson gives the following encouraging account:—

Our Schools, with respect to the number of Boys in attendance, continue much the same; but a most marked interest seems increasing among them. The Upper School, in the centre of the town, is the most promising: the Psalms and New Testament, of Martyn's Persian Version, are regularly read and expounded: there are about 12 Boys, or rather Adults, in the upper class, whose attention in reading the Scriptures gives me very great pleasure: this School is, in fact, a little Church.

A School formed in the lines of the Sepoys, owing to the great irregularity of attendance unavoidably occasioned by their military duties, is far less interesting than either of the others: the Scriptures are, however, read, and I trust some good may be the result. The School on the Mission Premises consists of Hindoo Boys and a few Children of Roman Christians, and every way gives me much pleasure: in this School, one of Mr. Corrie's Christian Youths is Teacher, and conducts himself with great propriety.

Before the establishment of a Female School, Mrs. Wilkinson had some Girls under instruction, some of whom read very well in the Pentateuch and Testament: a Schoolmistress having been obtained from Chunar, a School was commenced, and from six to eight Girls attended.

The Calcutta Committee give the following account of an examination of the Schools :—

On the 23d of April, a general Examination was held of all the Schools, previous to the Annual Meeting of the Committee. About sixty attended, from seven years old and upward. The business of the day commenced with the Third Chapter of the Galatians, read by one of the elder Boys in Hindoostanee, and a Hindoostanee Prayer by Mr. Wilkinson, in which the Christian Boys joined, the Teachers and other Boys attending in a very orderly manner. The different Classes were then examined in an Elementary Catechism composed by Mr. Wilkinson, the Assembly's Catechism, and Watts's Catechism of Scripture Names, various Native Class-Books, the Hindee, Ordoo and Persian Testaments, the Pentateuch in Oordoo, and the Psalms in Persian. One Boy repeated a Poem of considerable length, On the Being and Attributes of God; and all performed very well with reference to their ages and periods of attendance. But what appeared to give most general satisfaction, was the performance of a Class of six Boys, (two from the Seminary, and four from the Central School,) who read various passages from the New Testament, Pentateuch, and Psalms, in Persian and Hindee. The feeling and intelligent manner in which they delivered their various portions, contrasted with the formal drawl so generally exhibited by native readers—the readiness, accuracy, and facility with which they referred to different Scriptures bearing on the subject of their Lecture, particularly from Psalm viii. to the interpretatory passages in Matthew xxi. and Hebrews ii.—and the good sense and correctness with which they answered the various questions proposed to them, could not fail to excite mingled gratification and surprise in the minds of all who considered how lately they had come under this species of instruction. The interest also taken in the Lecture by the Native Teachers, and their inquiries respecting passages of which an explanation was offered, could not but be highly pleasing.

The little Girls also gave, on a subsequent day, a creditable examination; though their shyness and tender years rendered it more difficult to estimate their progress.

Mr. Wilkinson thus expresses his sentiments with respect to the prospects of the Mission—

We every day see something to call forth our energies and increased exertion in our work. We trust that something has been commenced that will ultimately reward the Society for all their prayers and thoughts about the poor Heathen. The ground has been broken up, and the handful of seed has been cast forth: and I, sometimes at least, feel willing to wait in the faith of the husbandman, leaving the result to Him who alone giveth the increase.

He afterwards remarks—

Disappointments, difficulties, and occasional retrograde movements, must be expected in such a work; but the certainty that our labour will not be in vain in the Lord, will, I trust, keep us from slackening in our work, and give a stimulus to increased exertions. Oh! that the Light of Life was visible among us, in all its power and glory! How long will it be before the servants of God join in the triumph, Alleluia! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth! ?

Cawnpore.

Previous to the appointment of the Rev. Thomas Morris to this Station, which has been already noticed, the care of it had been committed to Peter Dilsook, a Native Teacher.

Archdeacon Corrie gave the following account of it, while under his charge:—

The Native Congregation, commenced last cold season at this Station, has continued to increase, under the steady labours of the Native Catechist; who is now encouraged and supported by the presence and superintendence of the Rev. Mr. Torriano. The number attending on Sunday Worship is now about 30; and a separate Place of Worship has become necessary for their accommodation. Measures are in progress for the accomplishment of this desirable object, and also for supplying a more extended course of instruction to this increasing Congregation. There are several candidates for baptism.

The Archdeacon adds—

At Cawnpore, Meerut, and Delhi, there could be no difficulty, it is apprehended, in establishing Native Schools to almost any extent; but even if funds were forthcoming, without an European Missionary to give them constant superintendence, they would anwer little good purpose.

As an European Missionary has now been stationed here, it is hoped that the facilities for the establishment of Schools will be readily embraced.

In their last Report the Calcutta Committee state—

In September last, a subscription was set on foot to erect a Place of Worship for the Native Congregation. By the favour of the General Commanding, a most desirable situation was obtained; and the General added a second donation, to render the place more complete as a Chapel. Divine Service was first held at this place in the beginning of March, and about 30 Native Christians attend regularly on the Means of Grace thus supplied to them. A friend well acquainted with the language gives such attention to the Hindoostanee Service as his other avocations will admit of; but the Committee have, as yet, had no particulars communicated to them of the Catechist's proceedings. The whole expenses of the Native Catechist, and of the Chapels, have been borne by friends at the Station.

Meerut.

The Calcutta Committee make the following Report of this Station:—

From their interesting Correspondent, the Rev. Mr. Fisher, the Committee have received their Annual Letter. He writes—

Our Missionary Establishment this year affords not much to communicate. My own more immediate personal occupations are extensive and laborious. The Church, the Hospital, and other occasional duties, entirely engage a Chaplain's time in a place like this; and a faithful Helper would be a blessing.

Behadur Messeeh, as usual, resides on my Compound: I think him sincere, faithful, and diligent. He still acts as my Clerk among my Native Flock, and teaches the different Catechumens. One of these men is in a very interesting state; and I trust, ere long, that I shall have it in my power to communicate his story, when his name shall be enrolled among the other Converts. The converted Naik, Matthew Purrub Dheen, is still also with us—a steady, pious, and consistent Christian. The young professor, Jacob Joypal, has absented himself, and we know nothing of him. Mooneef, too, is said to have returned to his Brother, and of course to his former profession, though I have no particulars.

Delhi.

Of this Station Mr. Fisher makes the following Report:—

Anund Messeeh remains at Delhi. His time is usually employed in reading and conversing with the Hindoos, Brahmins, and others who seek him for the sake of information in the Christian Scriptures, and, as is sometimes the case, in the hope of confounding him and entangling him in his talk. He is of course more immediately under the eye of my Son, as the Delhi Chaplain, and with him pursues his Scriptural inquiries. He comes over from time to time to Meerut, and is as warm-hearted and zealous in the good Cause as he ever was.

Henreepore.

No intelligence has been received from this Station.

Agra.

Of this Station the Calcutta Committee remark:—

The Rev. Abdool Messeeh not having yet reached Agra since his Ordination, the Committee have nothing particular to communicate respecting this Station. Fyz Messeeh has been supplying the place of Abdool Messeeh, and has kept up the usual Services on the Society's Premises.

Allahabad.

The Committee have received no Report from the Rev. William Greenwood.

In the last Report two places were mentioned, Boglipore and Moozufferpore, where it was thought probable that Missionary Stations, under the Society, might be established. The Committee are happy to state that Boglipore has been already occupied by a Missionary connected with the Society for the propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, who was stationed there by the late Bishop.

The commencement of a Mission at Moozufferpore has been suspended for the present, in consequence of the removal of some Gentlemen who were friendly to the undertaking.

The Committee will conclude their account of the North-Indian Mission with the following observations of Archdeacon Corrie:—

Instruction is, without reserve, imparted; and by the Natives received without reserve: that is, they read and they learn by heart, both Boys and Girls, whatever is brought before them by the Teachers.

The retaining of Caste, as it is avowedly a religious distinction, is held, by all the Missionaries and friends of Missions on this side of India, as utterly incompatible with an upright profession of Christianity. Measures are in progress on the Coast, for the extinction of Caste among the professing Christians, who were allowed to retain it.

Of the spirit in which such labours should be carried on, the Archdeacon remarks—

I deeply feel the need of keeping up spirituality in our work; and soon would the spirit of Missions depart, if any departure from the principles on which we have set out be admitted. As it is, our machine seems fitly framed and fair for operation; but, as yet, our main-spring has not been brought into powerful action.—May the Spirit be poured out upon us from on high!

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

The last Report noticed the intended return to England of two of the Society's valuable friends at Madras, who have since arrived in this country. The opinion which the Madras Committee entertain of the services which they have rendered to the Society is recorded in the following Memorandum, which has been placed on their Minutes:—

The Committee is painfully reminded of the approaching loss of two of its most valued Members, Mr. Strachan and Mr. Blair, now about to retire from India. Both these Gentlemen have, for a series of years, (and Mr. Strachan uninterruptedly, from the first institution of the Committee,) been its cordial and efficient supporters; and on anxiously meeting them here for the last time, their Colleagues could not satisfy their own feelings or sense of duty without recording their grateful sense of their services, and deep regret at their approaching separation, felt by one and all.

The Rev. Mr. Moorsom, one of the Chaplains, had been appointed to succeed Mr. Strachan as Secretary and Treasurer; but finding the duties of these offices incompatible with his own immediate avocations, he relinquished them; and the Rev. John Hallewell, another of the Chaplains, has kindly undertaken to supply his place. The Committee regret to state, that, by recent accounts, it appears that indisposition has compelled Mr. Hallewell to leave Madras, for the purpose of a temporary residence on the Nilgherry Hills. Mr. Bannister and Mr. Dalmahoy, two Members of the Corresponding Committee, have undertaken the duties of his office.

MADRAS AND ITS VICINITY.

The Rev. James Ridsdale and the Rev. William Sawyer continue to occupy this Station. The following view of their labours is given by Mr. Ridsdale, in March of last year:—

It has pleased our Heavenly Master to give us much encouragement in the various branches of our Mission. I have great reason to believe, that a deep and broad foundation is laying in the Tamul Labours of my Colleague Sawyer: he is devoted to his work. Our several Congregations are all on the increase.

In the interesting work of Female Education, we have unexpected success. Our Native-Girls' Schools are four in number, and contain 130 Children: our English-Girls' Schools are three in number, and contain about 120. The first Public Examination of our Female Schools took place, in the Mission Church, on the 31st of December. We have raised a separate Fund for this important work, for which I have collected upward of 1500 rupees. We are on the point of beginning a Central Girls' School, under Mrs. Ridsdale's immediate care; into which we intend to collect the most proficient Girls from the different Schools, in order to give them a superior education, that they may be employed as Schoolmistresses. If a Separate Fund is raised in England for Female Education, we hope that Madras will not be forgotten. The fields are already white unto the harvest!

The applications made to me from all parts of Southern India for Religious Books are so numerous, that it is quite painful to be unable to supply them.

The circumstances connected with the Establishment and Progress of the SEMINARY, which is under Mr. Sawyer's superintendence, are thus noticed in the last Report of that Institution:—

The Church Missionary Society's Seminary designed for the training up of Young Men as Schoolmasters and Assistants in the work of Missions was commenced, upon a small scale, in the beginning of the year 1822. In January 1823, a considerable accession was made to this number, by the arrival of 12 Boys from the Society's Institution at Tranquebar.

From this time to the present the numbers have been gradually increasing; and the total number of Boys now under instruction is 30; of which 23 are Natives, and 7 Country-born.

Since the establishment of the Seminary, eight of the elder Youths have been placed in different situations, according to their qualifications; four are now employed as Schoolmasters and Assistants in the Madras Mission; two are employed as Writers in Offices; one as Schoolmaster in the English School at Tranquebar; and one in service. Of the Youths now in the Seminary, six are sufficiently advanced in learning to undertake the charge of Schools; but not being of proper age to hold such appointments, they will be kept some time longer in the Institution: in the mean time they will be daily acquiring additional knowledge and experience. Of the Country-born Young Men, four have commenced the study of Latin, and two of the more intelligent Native Boys are about to commence.

The Institution, from its commencement until the end of last year, was tried in a peculiar manner by the perverse tempers and blind prejudices of the Boys and their Parents. These things were not without their use, in giving the Mission practical experience, and a knowledge of the most effectual methods of overcoming the prejudices and gaining the esteem and affection of the Youths.

The present state of the Institution is only to be considered as its infancy. The time and money hitherto expended, though very far from having been spent in vain, must principally be regarded as expended in the purchase of these facts, and that experience which shall render more effective every future effort toward the formation of a permanent Establishment.

The nature of a permanent Institution, accompanied by a Plan of the Buildings, is thus sketched in that Report:—

Such an Establishment should be on a sufficiently extensive scale to allow of the efficient instruction of 60 Students in the English, Tamul, Gentoo, Sanscrit, Latin, Greek, and Hebrew Languages. Of these Students, a fourth part might be Country-born, and the rest Natives. The internal management of the Institution to be in the hands of two Missionaries, if possible; one of whom should confine his attention to the Theological Instruction of the Elder Youths, whilst the other could pay more particular attention to their Classical Learning. A Moonshee should be employed for every branch of Native Instruction; and a person well instructed in the National System of Education would be required as English Schoolmaster.

For the purposes of the proposed Establishment, the present situation at Perambore is by no means eligible. After mature deliberation, we are convinced that the piece of ground at Royopooram, known by the name of Urquhart's Garden, will be most suitable for the purpose. It is within one-mile-and-a-half of Madras, surrounded by Native Villages well adapted for building, from the sandy nature of the soil has excellent water, and is within a moderate distance of the sea. This part being as yet unoccupied by any religious body of Christians, is an additional advantage.

The Buildings requisite will be, a House for two Missionaries and Families; with suitable apartments for the purpose of Sleeping-Rooms, Day-Rooms, and School-Rooms, for the Country-born and Native Youths. These buildings should be erected as near as possible to the residence of the Missionaries in charge, in order to a constant inspection of the whole Establishment.

Mrs. Ridsdale has the charge of the FEMALE SCHOOLS; of which three are Tamul, and two English, and contain 233 Scholars, with an average attendance of about 190. There is a steady advance in this interesting field of labour; and many encouraging circumstances, by the Blessing of God, attend it.

Poonamallee.

From this Station no intelligence has been received.

TRANQUEBAR.

The Rev. G. T. Bärenbruck and Mrs. Bärenbruck, with John Dewasagayam and other Native Assistants, continue their labours at Mayaveram.

The erection of suitable Buildings at Mayaveram for the purposes of the Mission required Mr. Bärenbruck's superintendence, and interfered with his Ministerial Labours. They are now completed, and Mr. Bärenbruck writes, in June—

The Society has a solid, convenient Mission House; a Seminary, comprising the School-Hall, Seminarists' Room, Inspector's Rooms, Schoolmaster's Room; and some small departments, separate from the building, for the Readers—all situated within the Society's Premises, between Mayaveram and Cornadu, forming a small Settlement.

Mr. Bärenbruck was enabled to commence the regular MINISTRY OF THE WORD on Trinity Sunday, and gives the following account of the Services:—

In the morning, from nine to eleven o'clock, Tamul; and in the evening, from seven to half-past-eight, English, which is especially calculated for the Seminarists, some servants of the Mission, and for our own and Family's edification. In the afternoon, from four to five, is a Tamul Lecture. But few Heathens till now attended; which, however, should not surprise us, as we have not yet commenced regular work among them, and have first to remove prejudices before we can find ground to work upon: we cannot expect them to come to Divine Services, as they would object to joining us in prayers, though perhaps not in hearing the Word of God. And in order to have opportunities for assembling Heathen for Christian Instruction, a small house of clay, as usually our School-Houses are, is put up in a corner of the Compound opening to the road, so as to be open for the Natives passing that way, and for making some evenings in the week for expounding the Word of God to such of the Heathen as will be inclined to come in and hear the Word of Life.

Mr. Bärenbruck adds—

I feel happy that I am enabled, by Divine Assistance, to attend to those Christians that are attached to the Mission.

I meet them and their families, every morning and evening at seven o'clock, for family prayer, when Scripture is explained to them. In this, as in all our work, we would entirely depend upon the Divine Blessing, feeling the need of wrestling more seriously and perseveringly in prayer with the Lord, like Jacob of old, when he said, I will not let thee go, except Thou bless me. John Dewasagayam, as also some of the Readers, are excellent helps to me in the work of the Lord.

Mr. Bärenbruck reported, in June, that the total number of Children attending the SCHOOLS, which are 33 in number, had been, during the preceding quarter, 1738, being an increase of 86 on former attendances; and that the number during the current quarter was 1749.

The Returns of the Schools for 1825 are accompanied with the following remarks by Mr. Bärenbruck; which will shew what are the feelings generally entertained by the Natives with respect to the education of their Children, as well as the desire evinced by the Children themselves for instruction:—

It is pleasing to observe, that, during the last year, the applications for new Schools, by Heathen, have increased; although, on their coming to us, previous to making a formal application, we gave them copies of our Christian School-Books, with a request to read them, and to inform us whether they chose their Children to be instructed accordingly: we also tell them, that if they want to have a Free-School in this place, they must do something to evince their real desire, by giving a place for the School; and direct them to get a Paper signed by the principal inhabitants of the place. After the lapse of a few weeks they have usually made the application. It shews, I think, the increasing desire of the Parents to have their Children instructed in a more regular way; and while they thus acknowledge that they appreciate the value of a Christian School, they appear gradually to relinquish that prejudice against Christianity which proved an obstacle, some years ago, in several places, to their establishment. The expense of keeping their own Schoolmaster cannot induce them to make application for Christian Schools; as it is so very trifling, especially in the country, and is defrayed by a few of the principal people of the place. On the other hand, the Parents of those Children that are instructed in our Schools cannot but perceive that their Children receive a good deal of information respecting the Christian Religion: that they are aware of this, and sometimes even alarmed at it, we have frequently had occasion to observe: I shall only mention one circumstance, which took place in the course of the year, at Surayar. I went one day to the School; and found, to my surprise, that the School had greatly decreased in numbers. I desired the Master to account for this extraordinary circumstance. He replied, "What shall I do, Sir? The Parents have taken all these Children from School; for, several weeks since, they observed that, on the Children coming home from School in the evening (who being tired lay down to sleep till supper was ready), when they were roused by their Parents and called to supper, they arose, but, being quite drowsy, they commenced repeating Questions and Answers from our Catechism; as, 'What has God done in order to restore us and save us?' 'He had mercy upon us; and, that we might not perish but have eternal life, He sent His only-begotten Son Jesus Christ to save us!'—'How has this our Saviour saved us?' &c.—and so they went on till they got quite awake, repeating the Questions which had been impressed upon their minds during the day. The Parents, frightened by this, keep them at home." I made some inquiries, whether this statement of the Schoolmaster was correct; and finding it so, directed him to go on quietly with his School, and to take no further notice of what had happened. In the course of several weeks, the Scholars gradually returned, most likely at their own request.

In the SEMINARY at this Station there are 14 Youths, of whom John Dewasagayam makes the following Report in October:—

Since our last Report of the Seminarists, in October last, two of them have been promoted; one as a Reader, and another as an Assistant to the Seminarist-Schoolmaster. Both of them are very promising Youths, and have hitherto given us satisfaction, by their good behaviour and strict attention to their respective duties. In the daily conduct of the former, we frequently witness an ardent desire for the salvation of his fellow-creatures, and for proclaiming the love of God in giving us His only-begotten Son. The latter, as well in respect of his age as his attainments, is qualified to occupy an employment as an Assistant-Reader, at any time. The other Seminarists, who are 12 in number, having had great advantages since our settling here, under Mr. Bärenbruck's instruction, their progress has been very satisfactory.

The following Extract from one of Mr. Bärenbruck's Journals will serve to shew the estimation in which the Schools are held by those who desire the instruction of their Children:—

A Relation of the Rajah of Tanjore, who sends his Son to our School for instruction, sent me word, that if I would examine the School at his house, he should feel obliged, and would be present at the examination. I wished him to allow me to occupy his verandah instead of the house, which he got in readiness for the examination. When I was examining the Children, a crowd, and among them some very respectable Heathens, came to the place, to be present; but, as I had anticipated, his servants were posted to keep the people at such a distance, so that but very few could hear me: on my observing to him that the Word of God should be made known to every one who has a desire for it, he ordered his servants to let the people come near the verandah. I had now an advantage, by having more hearers than usual; and the place and air being kept cool and comfortable, I was not so much exhausted, and could give more time to the Children. After catechization, he desired me to stay a little longer with him, which I did; and following him into his house, I endeavoured to get into some profitable conversation with him, and looked to God for mercy upon this Heathen, that his eyes might be opened. I hope I gave him a more correct idea of the Divine Attributes than he had before—at least, he displayed much ignorance on this subject, in his conversation with me; and in explaining to him the love and mercy of God toward men, and His justice, I told him what we understood by the work of Redemption and by the Day of Judgment. He seemed to have been very much pleased with the examination. He said, "I shall continue to send my Son to your School, if you allow me." I told him that the School did not belong to me, and how it and the others were supported. He replied, "I know they are Free-Schools; and this very name had made me hesitate for some time to send my Child, as my people told me it would be degrading for me. I kept a Master for him for some time at my house; yet observing that some Children of my Servants that attended the Free-School made good progress, and my Son remained ignorant, I sent him to that School without further hesitation, and do not mind what the people say."

The gratitude evinced by many of the Children for the opportunities of instruction which they enjoy, and his own state of mind, are thus spoken of by Mr. Bärenbruck:—

Could many of my Scholars mark down their feelings and express their thankfulness, I have little doubt but this paper would convey the best report, by being filled with names of dear little Children who wish to express their great obligations for the instructions received: but now they leave it to me; and I cannot do it better than by expressing my own feelings. I am exceedingly encouraged in the work of love, though sometimes a work of particular trials.

He adds—

It is very encouraging, that the Gentlemen who reside in this part of the Country take a warm interest in our Society's School-Establishment, and are always ready to aid the work. At the last Public Examination at Combaconum, H. Fetherston, Esq. favoured us with his presence: other Gentlemen had intended to come, but were prevented. Mr. Fetherston was kind enough to allow me to have the Examination in the verandah of his Bungalow.

TINNEVELLY.

The Rev. C. T. Rhenius and the Rev. B. Schmid, with Mrs. Rhenius, Mrs. Schmid, and Mrs. Schnarrè, continue their labours at Palamcottah. Mr. Robert Lyon, who was the English Master at the Seminary, is no longer connected with the Society.

A new Church has been erected at Palamcottah, and was opened on the 26th of June: the expense amounted to 2000 rupees, of which the Madras Committee advanced 800; the remainder was raised by contributions from all classes of people in the neighbourhood, Europeans, Native Christians, Mahomedans, and Heathens.

The last Report noticed the abundant blessing which had accompanied the MINISTRY OF THE WORD; and the Members of the Society will hear with gratitude and joy, that the work of God, which has commenced in the vicinity of this Station, by the instrumentality of the Missionaries, appears to be steadily proceeding. The spirit of inquiry after Divine Truth is extending among the Natives—they are from time to time coming to Palamcottah to obtain information concerning the Religion of Jesus—they are forsaking their idols and idolatrous practices—and are enrolling themselves among the professed servants of Christ. The history of the Church, from its infancy, teaches us to expect instances of outward profession without real conversion to God—and such instances have occurred here; but the ravages of the Cholera Morbus, which has prevailed to a great extent, and the oppressions to which those who have renounced Idolatry have been subjected by their heathen neighbours, have served as a trial of their faith and sincerity, and leave us no room to doubt that God is adding to His Church, in that scene of the Society's labours, such as shall be saved.

The progress of Truth, and the opposition which is made to it, are thus noticed by Mr. Rhenius:—

Everywhere, the number of persons who renounce Idolatry, and put themselves under Christian Instruction, increases. In one district, persecution is at a great height: a Modeliar, related to one of our Seminarists, has expressed murderous designs, not only against the people, but against his Relation, and has declared—"Christianity shall not be in that district."

The Missionaries continue their visits to those Villages where Congregations have been formed; and the following extracts from their Journals on those occasions will serve to shew the progress of their work. Mr. Rhenius writes—

At one Station, where the new Congregation have built a large Shed for the purpose of assembling the people, a large number came together, and I was greatly encouraged by their attention. They have renounced Idolatry; and, when they had the small-pox among them and some of their children died, they had not recourse, as formerly, to the Idol Ammen, but trusted in the Living God, and committed themselves to Him.

Mr. Rhenius, after having preached to them in the morning and evening, makes the following remarks:—

After I had concluded my discourse, having heard their answers, and marked their attention, their confessions of sinfulness, their joy at having rejected Idolatry and received the Gospel, I was constrained to ask my own doubting mind, 'Can all this be hypocrisy?' How much soever worldly motives may mix in their minds, the Truth of God and His kingdom have, at least in some degree, taken hold of their hearts.

Of his visit to Kovindapaty Mr. Rhenius writes—

The Congregation came three times together, and gave me pleasure by their attention. Both men and women seem to feed upon the word that instructs them in the way of salvation. Eight Families, from two new Villages about seven miles distant, also came, and gave me much satisfaction.

The past and present condition of Satangkoolam are thus contrasted by Mr. Rhenius:—

About 11 o'clock, Divine Service was held; when the whole place was filled, and large numbers of Heathens were standing at the doors and windows. Our dear friends in Europe who pray for the prosperity of Zion would have greatly rejoiced at such a sight. What a change has taken place in this town during the last two years! When Br. Schmid and myself were here five years ago, for the first time, all was darkness: now the light of the Gospel shines, and the sound of it goes forth into the surrounding country! Then, not a School could be established: now a fine large Church is in the midst of it, and a large Congregation to fill it!

It appears, by the latest Despatches, that a diminution has taken place in the number of SCHOOLS and of the Children attending them. The places where they are continued, and the number of Scholars, will be seen from the following Table:—

	Scholars.	Average attending.
1. Mooroogenoorchy	27	18
2. Tinnevelly	25	15
3. Munjacooly, in Tinnevelly,	30	22
4. Peltey, in ditto	37	28
5. Chickneygramum	25	21
6. Tatchanalloor	25	20
7. Vannarapettah	30	20
8. Koppidoopallam	23	21
9. Moopoolangoody	15	11
10. Amandavanakoody	17	14
11. Pandarapooram	29	24
12. Satangkoolam	20	18
Total Scholars	303	232

Mr. Schmid reports, in June, that, in consequence of Mrs. Schnarrè having left Palamcottah, on a visit to Madras, at the close of February, Mrs. Schmid had been obliged to give up the Female Day-School, in order to direct her whole attention, to the FEMALE SEMINARY, and Mr. Rhenius's Sister-in-law took charge of Mrs. Schmid's School. Three Girls of this School had been received into the Female Seminary, one of whom was a particularly pleasing and promising child

Mr. Schmid gives, in June, the following particulars of the Schools:—

The Monthly Catechizing on parts of Scripture has been continued, and the Gospel of St. Luke has been read and explained as far as the 14th Chapter. Besides this, the Pupils of the Mooroogenoorchy, Vannarapettah, and Koppidoopallam Schools come every Friday to my house, when I explain one of our Catechisms, which many of them learn by heart at their houses, of their own accord, for Reward Tickets and Books; and I visit every Sunday one of the remoter Schools, where I begin and end the catechizing and exhortations with Prayers, and where a smaller or larger number of Adults assemble to hear and sometimes to converse with me. In some Schools, the Parents have of themselves requested the Schoolmaster to discontinue such Native Books as we had allowed, that the Children might learn more of ours.

In the SEMINARY there are 35 Youths, on whose studies and proficiency Mr. Rhenius thus remarks—

The Head Class in Tamul, containing 15 Youths, has received Lectures on the Bible: they have gone through the whole of the Old Testament, and have proceeded in the New as far as the Epistle to the Romans. In these Instructions, "Horne's Introduction" is principally followed: the Scholars find pleasure in this Study, as it materially assists them in understanding the Scriptures. These, with the three next Classes in Tamul, gave us satisfaction at their Examination. All the Head-Class Scholars have greatly improved in English pronunciation and reading: they have lately begun the Tamul and English Grammar.

There are 27 Girls in the FEMALE SEMINARY, whose improvement is thus noticed by Mr. Schmid—

They are evidently improving in their conduct, especially of late. Lying and quarrelling, formerly very common occurrences, have almost entirely disappeared. They are also becoming more orderly and cleanly.

An Examination of both Seminaries was held on the 4th of January, in the presence of many Ladies and Gentlemen, of which Mr. Schmid gives the following account:—

The Boys were examined in Tamul Reading, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, and History; translating from English into Tamul; English Reading, Arithmetic, and Grammar; Hebrew Reading, Grammar, and translating the First Psalm, and three Boys repeated it by heart; and Writing-pieces, in Tamul, English, and Hebrew, were laid before the Visitors.

The Girls were examined in Tamul Reading, in the Short Catechism, Scripture-History Catechism which they repeated from memory, and Ciphering; Specimens of Writing on Olla, and of their Needle-work, were laid before the Ladies. I think the Visitors were much pleased. There was no time to examine Mrs. Schmid's Female Free-School. We reviewed their progress and conduct privately, and those who had attended from the beginning without interruption were rewarded with clothes. The School has now been six months in existence, and has increased to 20 Scholars, of whom 16 attended almost daily: 10 of these were rewarded for regularity, attention, and correct conduct. All learn to read and commit to memory the Short Catechism; all sew; and seven or eight spin or knit.

The following view of the present state of the Mission is taken from Mr. Schmid's Journals:—

Thus far the Lord has led us on, notwithstanding the storms which Satan continually raises against us and our people, and notwithstanding our own failings and imperfections. He leads us safely through all dangers, and suffers not our feet to stumble and fall: He calls on us daily, by His providence, Fear not, for I am with thee: when thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and when through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. I am surprised at what our people in the Villages endure from their enemies—what opposition and persecutions they have to suffer; and still others come forward continually, to learn the way to Zion. As a pledge of God's gracious intentions toward this district, He has lately given us the joy of seeing a Church raised and devoted to His service. May we be more thankful for all His mercies, and may we put on all our strength to fight His battles!

The demand which the present circumstances of this Station, and the Villages connected with it, make on the enlarged exertions of the Society, will be seen by the following extract:—

All are, of course, very deficient in the particulars of Christian Knowledge; and can be expected to remain steady in their profession, or to become more attached to it, only by being led into the excellencies of the Word of God. We have still a few young men, whom we think fit to be employed in teaching others: I purpose, also, to select from the Villages such as appear able to teach and are sincere in their desire to be the disciples of Christ Jesus. But where are funds to maintain them? Unless the Committee can make an extra effort for this purpose, we are inclined to give up the Heathen Schools for a season.

It should not be forgotten, that the Members of this infant Church need the sympathies and prayers of their Fellow-Christians throughout the world. Their knowledge is at present scanty; their faith weak; their graces only in the bud; while they have to contend with the malice of their Heathen Neighbours and the wiles of Satan. Let those, especially, whose privilege it is to have been, however remotely, instrumental to their conversion, commend them to the Head of the Universal Church, that under His parental care, and by the supply of His Spirit, they may grow up into an holy temple in the Lord.

Nor should it be overlooked, that the district surrounding Palamcottah furnishes great encouragement to the Servants of Christ to persevere and abound in their work. In that field, Ziegenbalg and Swartz, and their companions, toiled—there they sowed the seed with many a sigh, and followed it with many a prayer for its increase;—but theirs was not the honour to gather in the harvest: they laboured, and others have entered into their labours. Let men, like-minded, sow in faith and patience, however rugged the soil and however unpromising the prospect; and in the appointed time the incorruptible seed shall spring up and ripen into an abundant harvest; and he that soweth and he that reapeth shall rejoice together.

TRAVANCORE.

The arrival of the Rev. John William Doran at the scene of his labours, with the departure from this country of the Rev. Thomas Norton with Mrs. Norton and his two Sons, and the return of the Rev. Joseph Fenn and his Family, have been already noticed. The following are the Stations occupied in Travancore, and the Missionaries engaged at them. At Cotym, the Rev. Messrs. Bailey, Baker, and Doran, are pursuing their labours: Mr. Ridsdale is stationed at Cochin: and Mr. Norton is returning to his duties at Allepie.

Cotym.

In the last Report it was stated, that Mar Athanasius, a Metropolitan from Antioch, was about to pay a visit to the Syrian Churches. At the time of Athanasius's arrival, the retired Metropolitan, Philoxenus, had resumed his pastoral cares, in consequence of the death of Dionysius, who had succeeded him: the Malpan Philip had been appointed successor to Dionysius, but the return of Philoxenus to his labours, for a time at least, was thought necessary. Over these Metropolitans, and the whole Syrian Church, Athanasius assumed uncontrolled authority, as having been deputed by the Patriarch of the Mother Church of Antioch, and commenced a series of violent measures. He endeavoured to persuade the Catanars to renounce their allegiance to their Metrans—denied the validity of the Metrans' title, and the orders which they had conferred—insisted, if he were acknowledged, on their being stripped of their robes, and resigning their cross and pastoral staff—and excited such a tumult by his proceedings, as compelled the Resident, Col. Newall, to remove him from the country.

This event, has, as might have been expected, in some degree affected the interests of the Mission; but it appears, from recent accounts, that its effects are gradually subsiding.

The COLLEGE, which, on Mr. Fenn's departure, was placed under Mr. Doran's superintendence, contains 47 Students, who are divided into 6 Classes. In consequence of the general disorder which had arisen from Mar Athanasius's proceedings, many of the Sudents had left the College, and Mr. Doran had supplied their places with Boys from the Grammar School.

The greater part of the Boys in the GRAMMAR SCHOOL having been transferred to the College: the proficiency of the Boys in this School is not great: the whole number is about 70, of whom some are day Scholars from Cottayam, and some Heathen Children. After giving an account of their studies, Mr. Baker adds—

On the Sabbath, the larger Boys attend the English Service in the College Chapel, while the smaller Boys go to one of the Syrian Churches in the Village; and the whole receive religious instruction in the afternoon.

By the subjoined List of the PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS, it will be seen that they are 29 in number, and contain 770 Scholars: of these, 445 are Syrians, and 325 Heathens:—

Situation.	Schol.	Situation.	Schol.	Situation.	Schol.
Ammanur	25	Cheppatt	12	Mulunduratte	25
Aramannur	29	Corencheri	6	Nattacheri	33
Calluncatare	17	Cottayam	34	Neranum	30
Calluper	33	Cottayam (second)	36	Pallipatta	37
Carticapalli	32	Cumarrennellur	22	Teruvappi	25
Changanur	37	Elatil	27	Teruvilla	35
Chengolum	27	Killallur	32	Tripoonterah	18
Chengolum (second)	27	Manercatt	23	Vaccatanum	33
Chennatilla	34	Maramanna	8	Vencolum	27
Chennatilla (second)	27	Mavelicari	19

On the state of these Schools, Mr Baker makes the following remarks:—

The Parochial Schools are now only few in number. Many of the former Schools were very thinly attended; and this, added to the total failure of contributions from the Churches, has led to the necessity of giving up some of them. Besides being thinly attended, several were so inconveniently situated, that they could be visited but seldom, and then not without considerable labour and difficulty. It was therefore deemed advisable to remove the Schoolmasters from thence, and to place them in some of the more populous districts nearer home; and this has been accordingly done, in two or three instances.

Petitions for Schools having been presented by the heathen population around us, some Schools have been opened in the vicinity of Cottayam, with the prospect of much good: many petitions were presented; but they could not all be attended to, as the Mission Funds would not allow of more Schools being established.

It appears, from the List of Schools, that, while most of them have kept up their numbers, several, which used to be well attended, are now almost deserted. The Schoolmasters are, however, continued; and there is no reason to doubt but that the people will send their children again after a time. In such Schools as have continued to be well attended, the attention of the Schoolmasters has been regular; and several of them, though Heathens, have given considerable satisfaction by their diligence in teaching the Catechisms and other religious Books.

By the latest accounts, it appears that the PRESS, which continues under the superintendence of Mr. Bailey, is in active operation.

Allepie.

In consequence of Mr. Norton's absence from Allepie, no accounts have been received of the state of the Mission there.

Cochin.

The Rev. Samuel Ridsdale gives the following account of this Station, at which he is now fixed:—

I have the use of a noble Church—a Congregation of about 200, who understand English—and immediate prospect of establishing a Native Service. I have also a School of 20 Children; the number of which, I hope, will shortly be doubled; and the prospect of establishing other Schools, amounting to about 1000 Children.

TELLICHERRY.

From this Station no intelligence has been received.

NELLORE.

The Rev. J.F. Beddy, after little more than a twelvemonth's residence at this New Station, was obliged, by his own and Mrs. Beddy's ill health, to return home: Mrs. Beddy and their infant child died on the voyage. Mr. Beddy has, subsequently, relinquished his connection with the Society.

Convenient Premises have been purchased by the Society, and the Station is considered as highly eligible for a Mission. The European Gentlemen will gladly countenance and support a faithful Labourer, when one can be provided.

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

The last Report noticed the return from Bombay of the Rev. Richard Kenney; and the departure of the Rev. William Mitchell and the Rev. John Steward with Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Steward. They arrived at Bombay on the 12th of July; and were appointed by the Committee of the Auxiliary Society to the charge of two Schools, which had been kept together since Mr. Kenney's return.

It was the will of God, within a few months after their arrival, to remove Mrs. Steward, from the sphere of labour on which she had so recently entered: toward the end of October she was seized with fever, which terminated fatally on the 1st of November. Of this afflictive event, and the circumstances connected with it, the Committee thus speak, in their First Annual Report:—

About the middle of September, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Steward, having acquired a little knowledge of the language, opened a Native Female School, at which about 20 Girls attended; and early in October, a second School was opened, at which are about 15 Girls. From domestic circumstances, which confined Mrs. Mitchell to the house, the opening and management of these Schools devolved principally upon Mrs. Steward, who devoted much care and attention to them; and from her zeal and activity they were likely to derive great benefit. In these anticipations, the Committee are under the painful necessity of stating that they have been dissappointed. It pleased God to remove Mrs. Steward, after about ten days' illness, from her labours, and from this present world. Mrs. Steward appeared peculiarly qualified, by her attainments, her diligence and ability in acquiring knowledge, her Christian piety and active zeal, to render very important assistance in the work of Female Education; and the Committee cannot but feel that the Society has sustained a very severe loss in the commencement of their labours.

On this event Mr. Carr writes—

The death of Mrs. Steward is, indeed, a very severe trial to us, and a great loss to our Mission. She had acquired such a knowledge of the Mahratta as enabled her to commence the instruction of Native Females, and had opened two Schools. She was a sensible, zealous, active woman, and promised to be very useful; but the Great Lord of the Vineyard has seen fit to disappoint our expectations. This is mysterious, but no doubt it is rightly ordered. May we all learn more simple dependence on the Lord himself!

The Auxiliary Committee thought it advisable that both Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Steward should reside in Bombay until after the Monsoon; when they proposed that one of them should remain in Bombay, and the other be stationed in the Northern Concan. The Missionaries, therefore, in order to qualify themselves for their future labour, immediately commenced learning the Mahratta Language, taking at the same time the superintendence of the Two Schools of the Society, and also the instruction of from 10 to 20 Boys, who have attended daily at their residence.

The Bombay Committee give the following view of Bombay and Basseen, as Missionary Stations:—

The Committee regard Bombay as a very important Missionary Station; but, considering the means of instruction already afforded to its population, they think that of the few Labourers sent out, not more than one, with his Wife, should be stationed here.

For some time, the Committee have had an eye to the Northern Concan, as a Missionary Station: there are, in that Province, many considerable towns, with numerous villages dispersed throughout the country. It extends along the Coast from Bombay to Damaun, comprising the country to the eastward as far as the Ghauts. In this Province is a very large population, which has never yet enjoyed the regular labours of the Missionary. It appears to the Committee, that if Basseen were made a Missionary Station, a circle of Schools of great extent might be established and superintended, without much difficulty or interruption. Schools might also be established in the Island of Salsette, part of which could be superintended by the Bombay Station, and part by the Basseen. Thus the Society would have two estatablishments, not more than 30 miles apart, of easy communication both by land and water, and their fields of labour would join. The Committee are anxious to establish this Mission in the Concan: it will be new ground for Missionary Labour; and it appears to be as promising as any that we know of in India.

The following Extract from the Report of the Bombay Auxiliary Society will shew what steps have been taken toward the MINISTRY of the Word:—

On Sundays, the Missionaries have employed part of the day in giving Instruction to some Native Youths who attend for the purpose. This is conducted in English; and it is gratifying and encouraging to find that several of those who were formerly instructed by Mr. Kenney are tolerably regular in attending on these occasions. Though it cannot be said that any of these are likely at present to embrace Christianity, yet so long as there is a readiness to receive instruction of a decidedly religious nature, there is, surely, ground, from the promises of Scripture, to hope that the seed thus sown shall not be altogether lost.

Mr. Steward and Mr. Mitchell have pressed on the attention of the Committee the expediency of erecting a Mission Chapel at Bombay.

The Committee are happy to state, that the Contributions to the Auxiliary Society have considerably increased during the year.

CEYLON MISSION.

The departure of the Rev. George Steers Faught and Mrs. Faught, accompanied by Miss Stratford, has been already noticed. It is intended that Mr. Faught should be associated with the Missionaries at Cotta, and that Miss Stratford should assist in the management of the Female Schools at Baddagame. The Rev. James Selkirk and the Rev. George Coneybeare Trimnell, with Mrs. Selkirk and Mrs. Trimnell, whose departure was mentioned in the last Report, landed at Trincomalee on the 20th of July; the vessel not being able, through contrary winds, to make the land either at Colombo or Point de Galle. Mrs. Selkirk had been safely delivered of a daughter, off the Cape. The Rev. Joseph Bailey embarked, on his return to Ceylon, on the 5th of May: he was to occupy his former Station at Cotta, with Mr. Lambrick, who was to be joined by Mr. Selkirk also. Mr. Bailey reached Colombo on the 27th of August.

Mr. Trimnell, who was to have assisted Mr. Browning at Kandy, has, in consequence of Mr. Ward's indisposition, been stationed at Baddagame.

The Eighth Annual Meeting of the Missionaries was held at the end of September and beginning of October.

It was stated in the last Report, that the visit to Ceylon of their late beloved Diocesan had afforded the Missionaries an opportunity of requesting, in an Address which they presented, his counsel on some subjects connected with the prosecution of their labours. The Bishop, it was further stated, returned at the time a most kind and satisfactory reply:

he subsequently addressed to them a Letter, which touches on the several topics submitted to his consideration, in a truly pastoral and affectionate manner*.

COTTA.

The Rev. Joseph Bailey arrived at this Station on the 28th of August, and Mr. and Mrs. Selkirk on the 1st of September.

Mr. Lambrick has hitherto seen but little fruit in his MINISTRY, and mourns over the spiritual torpor of the people. On this he reports to the Annual Meeting of the Missionaries in September—

I have continued my visits to the people at their houses, though amidst discouragement: they are still as unmoved as ever—there is no symptom of spiritual life, not one; and if questioned, whether such dry bones could live, I should have no other answer to give than, Lord, Thou knowest! Let us, however, my dear Brethren, take encouragement from the consideration, that He who bid Ezekiel prophesy to the dry bones, and gave efficacy to his prophesying, is the same that said, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.

On another occasion he thus notices the subject—

I wish I could report any favourable symptoms of spiritual improvement among the people, to cheer your heart with brighter prospects; but truth will not permit it: they appear as dull and insensible as ever. I go out among them, and they give me a hearing—not always, I fear, a patient one, though they endeavour to keep up the appearance of it. Pray for us, Dear Friends in England, as we know you do: but pray with more and more fervency, that the Spirit may be poured out upon us from on high. This, and only this, is what we want!

The SCHOOLS, since Mr. Selkirk's arrival, have been placed under his charge: in the 7 Schools there are 161 Scholars, with an average attendance of 108. In addition to these, there is an English School, containing 16 Boys.

The Masters of the respective Schools come to Mr. Selkirk's every Saturday Afternoon; when he receives an account of the attendance during the week and gives such directions as appear necessary, to each Master. The meeting is concluded with reading a portion of Scripture, and Prayer.

* See Appendix IV.

Mr. Selkirk reports in November, that the attendance of the Boys had rather increased.

During his visit to Ceylon, Bishop Heber examined the different Schools, and expressed much pleasure in the progress of the children; and announced, on the occasion, his intention of giving a Benefaction to the Society of 200 rix-dollars, and directed that the children should have a dinner provided at his expense.

Of the three Boys, who were last year supported by the Society at this Station, Mr. Lambrick thus reports—

Two have left us: one, having obtained leave to visit his friends, was, as they allege, taken ill, and never returned; the other wished to leave, and I was content that he should, for he attended to his studies in so heartless a manner, that I had little hope of his making a creditable progress. The one who remains, Nicholas De Alwis, is more promising than either of the other two. May the Lord, by His Spirit, lead him to Him who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life!

It was stated in the last Report, that the Building designed for the CHRISTIAN INSTITUTION had not been commenced: in November Mr. Bailey writes—

The ground has been cleared, and we hope soon to commence building. We have succeeded, since our Meeting, in purchasing some pieces of land contiguous to the Mission Premises, which we shall find of great advantage.

The PRINTING DEPARTMENT is coming into action. A second Press has been obtained, by an arrangement in which the Bishop concurred, of transferring to the Society one which was intended for Bishop's College, on the Society's defraying the expense of supplying one for the College, which has been done. Several pieces, in Cingalese and in English, have been printed. St. Matthew's Gospel, of Mr. Lambrick's Version, has been circulated; and he was about to put to press either the Book of Genesis or the Acts of the Apostles.

KANDY.

The Rev. G. C. Trimnell and Mrs. Trimnell arrived at Kandy from Trincomalee on the 1st of August. Soon after their arrival, Mrs. Trimnell was attacked with a fever, but it pleased God to restore her to health.

The illness of Mr. Ward led to Mr. Trimnell's removal from Kandy to Baddagame; and, in consequence of this arrangement, Mr. Browning has been again left without a fellow-helper.

The School-House, mentioned in the last Report, was opened with Divine Service on the 19th of January 1826: besides Sunday Services, Mr. Browning has a Cingalese Service on Wednesday Evenings, and one in Portuguese on Thursday Evenings. The attendance at Public Worship had previously been small: many of the Scholars were kept away by their Parents; few Adult Heathen could be prevailed on to attend; and, of the Prisoners, though some listen to the Word, others are indifferent and callous; but he continues to avail himself of this and other opportunities to make known the Gospel. Sickness having again disabled the Chaplain, it again devolved on Mr. Browning, early in last year, to take such part of his duty as could be done without material injury to his own: on this subject, and on the general state of his labours, he writes at the end of May—

The Officers and Soldiers listen very attentively to the Word; as do some of the sick in the Hospital, whom I visit in the week. I regret much not having been able to preach at the Prison since I undertook the English Duty; as the Prisoners have no leisure to hear in the week, and as I have none to meet them on the Sabbath.

The Services in Portuguese and Cingalese are attended by a few Protestant Christians: but their number is very variable; sometimes only three or four Adults; and, at others, twenty or thirty in the Cingalese. Some of the Modeliars and Mohandirams have also attended more regularly, since there has been a decent place for them to assemble in; but no means that I can use will induce the Kandians to come—at least for more than once or so, as prompted by curiosity. I sent out the Schoolmaster last Sunday, while the bell was ringing, to those who live near, to invite them to come; but they would not: they asked what profit they should get by going to hear a Sermon. Finding that no Adults attended the Services on Wednesday and Thursday Evenings, I dispensed with preaching, and now read the Prayers, and catechize the children on the History of the Bible and the leading truths of Christianity: by beginning these Services an hour before the usual time of closing the School, the attendance of most of the children is secured; for though they are not compelled to remain, yet they generally do—that is, the Cingalese Boys on the Wednesday, and the Portuguese on the Thursday. Several also of the Headmen's Sons, who come to School to learn English, are, by this means, brought to engage in Christian Worship, who would not venture to come on the Sunday for the express purpose: in this way it may be hoped that some good may be effected—that their prejudices against our religion will, in time, wear away—and that the truths of the Gospel, becoming familiar to them, will, through the blessing of God, enlighten their minds: they will not kneel with the other children at Prayers, but they do not object to take a book and join in the Service.

We have not, as yet, the Liturgy printed in the style of language which we use; but I have a number of copies written out for the use of the children and others who attend: these are eagerly solicited by some of the Native Christians, to use in their families. We have lately been enabled to add much to the liveliness of our Services, by introducing singing, through the kindness of Lieutenant Oldershaw, of the Royal Eugineers, who, with his Lady, has taken the trouble to teach our School Children to sing.

Mr. Browning afterwards adds—

Here is an extensive field; and, though it is not inviting, by any wish on the part of the people to be instructed in Christianity, yet I conceive that the Gospel might be preached to nearly all the interior, without much opposition, if a sufficient number of Missionaries could be sent out for the purpose.

At the Annual Meeting in September, Mr. Browning reported, that the Service in Cingalese was somewhat better attended than it had been a few months before, and particularly by the females.

In November, Mr. Browning writes—

The Garrison is not as yet supplied with a Chaplain: I continue to perform the Morning Service on Sundays; but have given up preaching at the Hospital on Fridays, and meeting with the Soldiers for religious conversation on Wednesday Evening, in order to lessen in some degree my numerous duties. The people hear with attention the Preached Word, and, I would humbly hope, receive some profit from it, both in the European and Native Congregations. In the latter, the number of hearers is small; but a few attend regularly, which leads me to think that they feel some interest in what they hear. The Lord has promised, that his Word shall not return unto Him void; but that it shall accomplish His pleasure, and that it shall prosper in the thing whereunto He hath sent it. Relying on this, we may confidently expect the success of our labours; for it will, sooner or later, follow. The faithful Word of God cannot fail of its accomplishment: and though many obstacles may intervene to hinder the progress of the good work, the power of the Spirit shall render them effectual.

By the Returns made at the Annual Meeting in September, it appears, that there were 5 Schools, with an average attendance of 105 Scholars.

In November, Mr. Browning writes—

The other Schools are in much the same state as last reported. There is one circumstance which has afforded me a degree of satisfaction: the sons of the Kandian Chiefs, who attend the school here to learn English, have of their own accord come forward to purchase the Cingalese and English New Testament, to read and compare at home. We are enabled, through the Branch Bible Society established in this place, to sell the Scriptures at a low price; and it is pleasing to witness a readiness in Heathens to put themselves in possession of those Sacred Oracles, which are able to make them wise unto salvation, through faith in Christ Jesus.

The pressure of his numerous and increasing duties, and the openings for enlarged labours which have presented themselves, have led Mr. Browning frequently to express earnest desires for assistance. On this subject he thus expresses his sentiments—

If we had a Fellow-Labourer in Kandy, one of us might perhaps be able occasionally to make a Missionary Tour into these Provinces. But how desirable is it that a Missionary should be sent to cultivate such a field of extensive labour, in a tract of country containing a population of ten thousand inhabitants! There are also many other parts of this island where Missionaries might be placed to great advantage, if an enlarged number could be spared from home. Oh may the Lord of the harvest send forth labourers into His harvest!

Baddagame.

The Missionaries stationed at Baddagame are, the Rev. Robert Mayor, and the Rev. George Conybeare Trimnell, with Mrs. Mayor and Mrs. Trimnell. Mr. and Mrs. Trimnell were appointed to this Station to supply the place of Mr. and Mrs. Ward.

Mr. Ward's health has for some time been declining; and, at the date of the last despatches, he was totally disabled, and contemplated a voyage to one of the Presidencies for the benefit of his health. While the Committee trust that it may please God to restore His servant to health and usefulness, they are thankful to remark the spirit with which he receives this dispensation, and which he thus expresses—

The Lord has heretofore raised me up, when I have been as weak as I am now; and my hope is, that He will do so again: yet I desire, that His will may be done, and that He may be glorified in me, whether it be in labouring or in suffering, in life or in death.

From Colombo he writes in September—

My last Letter would inform you of the delicate state of my health at that time. I have since been compelled to relinquish, for a season at least, all my labours. By the advice of Brother Mayor, and also of Dr. Farrell, I am lying by here for a few months, in the hope that, by the Divine Blessing, I may be restored to my former health and strength. We have been absent from our Station now nearly six weeks, part of which time we spent with our esteemed Brother Lambrick, at Cotta: we are now occupying the house of our kind friend Sir Richard Ottley, during his absence with the Supreme Court at Jaffna. My complaint, I am assured by Dr. Farrell, is not alarming at present: at the same time he intimates, that, without great care, it would very soon become so. I find it hard to submit to do nothing in my Lord's Service, feeling as I do, that were I at home I might do something. I know, however, that His work does not depend upon such poor feeble instruments as I am; and I hope that God will give me grace to rejoice in the labours of my Brethren, though I am not permitted to share in them myself. I feel that I am now called upon to humble myself under the mighty hand of God, and to hold myself in readiness to surrender up my account to Him, looking unto Jesus for the pardon of all my unfaithfulness, and for that grace which shall make me meet for the inheritance of the saints in light.

The exercise of their MINISTRY seems to have been accompanied with little encouragement. In their Report in October, the Missionaries thus express their sentiments on this subject—

We have witnessed little to encourage us to hope, that our labours have been owned and blessed by the great Head of the Church to the conversion and salvation of sinners. As it respects the people in general, we have still to take up the lamentation of the Prophet, and inquire, Who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? They seem as much as ever addicted to their idolatrous ceremonies, and still see no beauty in Christ that they should desire Him as their Saviour. The number of those who attend Public Worship on the Sabbath-day has not increased.

Twelve Natives, connected with the Station, embraced the opportunity afforded them by the Bishop holding a Confirmation, of making a public profession of their faith in Christ, and of their determination to devote themselves to His service.

The SCHOOLS, which are six in number, have suffered from the prevalence of disease during the year, and the average attendance has been much lessened. At the time of the Annual Meeting, there were 16 Boys in the Boarding School, of whom the Report states—

The conduct of all of them is such as to deserve commendation; and we trust that it proceeds from a higher motive than that of pleasing us, and of obtaining human knowledge.

The following view of the state of the Scholars is given by Mr. Ward:—

Respecting most of them I am increasingly satisfied: they are growing, I trust, in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I have before informed you of my devoting Saturday Evenings for the purpose of giving them private religious instruction: to prepare for these seasons, I sometimes give them, in the morning, a subject on which to examine themselves. About three weeks ago, I requested them to examine themselves, whether they were now in their natural state of sin, or whether they had reason to think that they were brought into a state of grace through Jesus Christ: when we met in the evening, several of them referred, with much feeling, to the sins in which they lived before they heard the Gospel; and, comparing their state of mind then with the desire which they now have to do the will of God and to obtain the salvation of their souls, they hoped that they might say that they had been brought into a new state; yet, when they recollected how often they still sinned against God and failed in doing those things which they wished to do, they hesitated in saying positively that it was so: I repeated the words of St. Paul—The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would: these words appeared exactly to describe the state of their minds. I exhorted them to be diligent in private prayer and meditation. On another evening, being too unwell to say much to them, I encouraged them to speak to me on the state of their own minds: they all confessed their own weakness—some, that they knew not how to pray, nor what to pray for—others, that they could not keep the Word of God in their minds—others, that, though they prayed and read the Scriptures, yet they often felt the working of sin: I directed them to the gracious promises of God, made to the poor and needy.

During the year there has been a good deal of sickness in the neighbourhood, principally dysentery, with which some of the Scholars have been attacked. Mr. Ward writes—

One of our Boarding Scholars has fallen a victim to it; and another was brought to the brink of the grave, but, through the blessing of God, I trust, is now recovered: as soon as he became convalescent, he was taken home by his parents, where he has since remained: I am very thankful to God for his recovery: he is one of our most promising little Boys. The other who died, is now, I doubt not, enjoying the advantages of his connection with this establishment, in beholding the face of that Blessed Saviour in whom he trusted, and who was peculiarly gracious to him in his last hours: we have drawn up a short Memoir of him. A little Boy in the Village also, who was a very regular attendant at School, and who had made a considerable progress in reading the Scriptures and in committing to memory the Catechisms, died of the same disease: his superstitious parents had recourse to their usual devilish ceremonies: he was a very humble and peaceable child, and I cannot but hope to meet him in heaven.

A Sunday School has been established for Adults, which was better attended at first than it has since been.

Of the Schools generally, Mr. Ward writes—

They are all visited twice, and in some cases three times, a week, by our Young People; which, together with our own visits, will be productive, I trust, of a gradual improvement in the rising generation. We have never before possessed the means which we now do for the accomplishment of this important object.

NELLORE.

The Rev. Joseph Knight was on a visit to Madras, at the date of the last despatches. The Rev. William Adley, with Mrs. Adley, who had recovered from an attack of illness, were then in good health. The work of the MINISTRY has been continued at Nellore and at Jaffna; and a new Service, on Wednesday Afternoons, has been added at Nellore.

Of the effect of their labours, Mr. Adley writes—

The first month of this year (1826) has been a time of special mercy. Four persons connected with the Station are among those who have been awakened: they have continued to manifest such a knowledge of their need of Christ as the only Saviour, with such a deep concern for the salvation of their souls, that they have been admitted as Candidates for Baptism. Eight or ten of the elder Boys also, who evince anxiety respecting their eternal welfare, are assembled once a week for further instruction and prayer.

One of the Candidates for Baptism being cook to the Boys in the Family Schools, Mr. Adley remarks—

I need scarcely say, that it is truly delightful to see a part of our Cook-house, which, from the trials that we have had with some of the servants, may almost literally be said to have been a den of thieves, now converted into a house of prayer: four or more of the servants meet there two or three evenings in the week, to read the Scriptures, and for conversation and prayer.

Three persons were admitted into the Church on the 12th of March.

The ravages of the Cholera were noticed in the last Report; and the Mission has again been visited by it. Mr. Knight writes in January—

The Cholera has been again raging in this district, from about the time of our return from Colombo. Most of our Schools have been broken up again: happily it has not yet attacked any on the Mission Premises.

The loss of his Brother, in addition to that of his Wife, seems to have pressed heavily on Mr. Knight's spirits: he thus expresses his feelings on these afflicting events—

I should have written to you, latterly, more than I have; but the last eight or nine months have proved so deeply afflictive to me, as to render me unfit for this and almost every other duty. I do trust, that this solemn providence will not be altogether lost upon me, but that my heart may be more detached from earth and earthly things, and that I may be enabled to press on with more ardour toward my eternal home.

The number of Schools is 8, the same as mentioned in the last Report; and the average number of Boys who attend is from 280 to 300, and about 25 or 30 Girls.

In the Family School, which continues under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Adley, there have been about 29 Scholars throughout the year; and they appear to afford Mr. Adley much encouragement. He gives the following account of their studies:—

Those Boys, who have made good progress in their Tamul Studies, are privileged to study the English Language: these are formed into three classes, and, having gone through their Lessons with our Native English Assistant, attend me two hours each day. The first class read a portion of Scripture, have made good progress in Spelling, and some of them are proceeding in Grammar and Arithmetic. Their studies are varied, sometimes translating a few verses of the Scriptures or some other book from Tamul to English, or from English to Tamul; and I regularly give them a sentence each, vivâ voce, in Tamul, to translate in the same manner into English.

The second class read, spell, and write; and the third class consists of 6 or 7 Boys who have not long commenced their study of the English. Nearly the whole of them are, I consider, making a suitable progress in the language; and I am happy to say their state is far more pleasing and encouraging than I could have expected a few months since.

On Saturday Evenings, Mr. Adley meets the Boys and the Servants of the Mission, for religious instruction and prayer, especially reminding them of the prayers continually offered up by their friends in England on their behalf.

Of their occupations on the Sunday he gives the following account—

The Boys generally continue to write after me on the Sabbath Morning; and the repeating heads and the substance of the sermon, thus written on their ollas, forms an interesting and profitable means of instruction in the Afternoon. A few months since, the Six Boys who were Candidates for Baptism commenced going, between the Services on the Sabbath, from house to house, throughout the village. They are directed to read the Scriptures or Tracts to all who are disposed to hear them, and to distribute such Tracts as they may have, to those who manifest a desire or willingness to read them. The accounts which they give of their proceedings, on the following day are, generally interesting and pleasing. Five of these Youths, as mentioned in my Letters, have been received into the Church lately; and I should have no hesitation in baptizing the sixth, but from his youth, he being about twelve years of age, and I consider it better he should wait some considerable time longer. My servant, whom I baptized some months since with his two sons, and whom I shall in future call by his christian name Samuel, has, by his consistency of conduct and his steady progress in his religious course, given me cause of gratitude and joy, in having been the instrument of admitting him as a member of the Church of Christ.

Mr. Adley allows a few Boys, sons of some of the chief Natives, to learn with the different classes in the Schools, on condition of their attending at Church, and committing Scripture Lessons to memory: he writes—

The Lord's Supper was administered, for the first time at this Station, on the first Sunday in February. Four Natives, who had been previously baptized at St. John's Church in Jaffna, communicated. The whole Congregation were allowed to stay, that they might witness the solemn and edifying Ordinance.

I have thus increased a little the Sabbath Congregation; and bring under the Means of Grace a number that would otherwise be destitute of them. May He, who giveth the increase, sanctify and bless these means; and make these Youths instrumental in carrying the light of Truth to the darkened habitations and benighted minds of their parents and relations!

The administration of the Lord's Supper is stated, in the Annual Report of the Station, to have been continued monthly; and Mr. Adley adds—

It has tended to raise the tone of Christian feeling, to increase the piety of the Communicants, to unite them more with each other, and to separate them from the surrounding Heathens.

The PRESS has been employed in printing Tracts, some thousands of which have been distributed.

The general account of this Station is thus given in the Annual Report:—

On a brief review of the year, we have not been without some trials and afflictions; but no heavy calamity has befallen us, and great and especial blessings have been granted to us: under trials, as our day so hath our strength been, and the great and happy work of God in our hands has been prospered beyond our expectations and our hopes. For this, and all other good, blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

The Committee are happy to state, that, besides the Auxiliary Church Missionary Society, established in New South-Wales, of which Governor Darling has accepted the office of Patron, a Corresponding Committee has been formed, whose object it is—

1. To collect, and supply to the Society, as may be required, information on subjects of a Missionary Nature; particularly on the most desirable Stations for Missionaries, and the means of rendering Missions in Australasia effectual.—2. To act as friends and patrons of the Society's Missionaries, to correspond with and assist them in the supply of their wants, and to be the medium of communication with the Society at home.—3. To watch over the Society's Missions and Schools, whether in New South-Wales, New Zealand, or any other part of Australasia, and to aid them with their influence.

No attempt has yet been made by the Society among the ABORIGINES, no proper person having been found for the purpose. This want may probably be supplied either by the Rev. James Norman or Mr. James Lisk, who sailed, with their Wives, in October: it having been found that they could not return to Sierra Leone with any prospect of adequate health, their destination was changed for the South Seas: Mr. Norman was admitted to Holy Orders by the Bishop of London. The Aborigines are in state of great degradation, and have been much injured with their intercourse with Europeans: the thinking and conscientious people of the Colony feel that these first possessors of the soil have the very strongest claim on those who have planted themselves on their shores, and will liberally support such efforts as shall be made to bring them into possession of the enjoyments of civilized life and the higher blessings of Christianity. Sir Thomas Brisbane, in the grants of land to be occupied for the express benefit of these people, has laid, it may be hoped, a sure foundation for the permanent and successful exertions of the different Societies.

The New-Zealand Seminary at Paramatta is now completed. Mr. William Hall and his Family, with 4 New Zealanders and 9 Natives of New Holland, reside there. On Sundays he reads the Service and Lectures to the Convicts and Settlers in the vicinity.

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND.

The Rev. Henry Williams visited New South-Wales the beginning of March, in his new Vessel, the "Herald:" he there found his Brother, the Rev. William Williams, and his Companions, about to proceed to their destination, and returned with them and Mr. Shepherd in the "Sir George Osborne," reaching the Bay of Islands on Lady Day. During Mr. Williams's absence, the neighbouring Chiefs kept their promise, of not going to either his or Mr. Fairburn's house; and the Wives of two of them, Tekokee and Ranghetukee, gave a gratifying proof of their regard by bringing Mrs. Williams a present of twelve baskets of potatoes.

I cannot preserve my mind so free from anxiety, as I feel it my duty to do. I seem to have been started out of a dream of eight years' happiness; and my heart has been assaulted with a feeling of desolation, which it knew not the depth of before, and shall not now, I am resolved—trusting to that Strength which hath ever yet supported me in my day—sink under. In my better moments I have no fears or anxieties, but every thing to excite gratitude and love to our Blessed Saviour; who has permitted us to work together with and for Him, and under the shadow of whose wing we alike abide on land or on sea, in the night-watch, in drenching rain, or beneath the sheltered roof.

The health of Mr. James Shepherd has been sufficiently restored to admit of his resuming his labours; and he accordingly returned to New Zealand with Mr. Williams and his Associates.

Rangheehoo.

Mr. Shepherd, since his return from the Colony, has resumed his labours at this Station, with Mr. John King and his Wife. Mr. King lost a little Boy last year, who had been ill for some time; but all were well at the date of the latest accounts.

Mr. Shepherd writes in November—

Since my return from Port Jackson, things of a temporal nature have prevented my paying attention to the language and itinerating among the Natives so much as I wished: I have, however, so divided my time, as to have on most days two or three hours to spend among the Natives. A small portion of each day I have appropriated to the translation of the Scriptures and the study of Hebrew. On Sundays, I address our own Natives in the morning, and in the afternoon visit the adjacent Native Settlement.

Mr. King visits the Natives at this Station on the Sunday, and on the Wednesday makes excursions to the neighbouring places for the purpose of imparting Religious Instruction. At the Quarterly Meeting in July, Mr. King reports—

During the last three months, I have attended to the SCHOOL as usual: the Scholars are improving in their learning and behaviour: from 7 to 10 Boys have attended the School, and 7 Girls and 3 Adults.

In November he writes—

The Natives here continue to behave quietly towards us: the Scholars, and those who live in our houses, are increasing in knowledge: they attend Divine Service and are fond of singing hymns. Their Parents are much pleased to see them write and to hear them read, and say that they are Missionaries, and employ them to write to me for any thing they may want. It is pleasing to visit the other Settlements, and see so many Natives, young and old, assemble together to sing and pray with their Teachers: in years past, they stood without, pelting our houses with stones, driving and killing our goats, stealing our fowls, breaking our fences, and using all manner of obscene and cruel language. There is evidently a great change in their outward behaviour. A change of heart is the work of God the Spirit, and we need not doubt of His Blessing on our steady perseverance.

Kiddeekiddee.

This Station is occupied by Messrs. Kemp, Clarke, Hamlin, and their Wives.

Mr. Kemp and Mr. Clarke are employed on the Sunday, and at every other convenient opportunity, in imparting Religious Instruction to the Natives resident with them, who seem from time to time to pay increasing attention to the great truths which are proclaimed to them. Of the Services at the Station, Mr. Clarke gives the following account:—

The Religious Instruction of those about us is especially attended to, twice on the Sunday, and one evening in the week: and every morning and evening, all the Natives in the Settlement are assembled together for Prayer in our little Chapel. Some of our Natives seem fully convinced that they are sinners; but the same obstacles prevent them from closing with the offers of Mercy as prevent multitudes in our own and every other country: they want to go to heaven, they tell us, but they want also to live after the course of this world.

Mr. Kemp and Mr. Clarke continue to visit the Nations within reach of the Station. On their conduct on these occasions Mr. Clarke remarks—

On the whole, we are well received;—but not so our message; for, alas! too many think it not worth making an inquiry into; and as it principally relates to another world, and that world viewed at a distance by them, their conduct, if not their words say, Go thy way for this time. On describing the great change that must take place before a man can enter into the kingdom of God, they tell us that they do not believe that such a change will ever take place in a New Zealander. "What" say they, "do you think that New-Zealanders will ever leave off thieving, fighting, and eating human flesh? No!" When we tell them of the power of God, they acknowledge, that if such a power as that is exerted, probably they may become (to use their own term) "new men;" but till then they cannot, for their habits are so inveterate.

Mr. Clarke reports, in July, that the attention of those who are under instruction has been pleasing during this and the preceding quarter. There were then in the Boys' SCHOOL, 14 Boys and 6 Adults; in the Girls' SCHOOL, 13 Girls, some of whom were living in his house, the rest in Mr. Kemp's: the total number under instruction, besides several Working Natives who attend, was 33, residing in the two Families. Several had left during the quarter of whom he entertained a favourable opinion: they could read and write their own language with propriety. Of those who were under their care in November, Mr. Kemp writes—

It will afford you great pleasure to hear that we have considerable encouragement from the rising generation to persevere in the work of the Lord. The Native Adults who live with us are very regular in their attendance on the Means of Grace: some of them, I hope, begin to feel some concern for their souls: their conduct in general is pleasing.

He adds—

We do not meet with much encouragement in visiting the Native Villages; but we hope, if they will hear what we have to say, our labour shall not be in vain. We hope to visit the Villages more frequently, which I trust will be attended with good.

The outward improvement of the Natives will be seen by the following contrast drawn by Mr. Kemp between their present and former conduct:—

On our first coming here, it was with great difficulty that we were able to live among the Natives; who, at one time, hardly ever came to our Settlement without molesting us in some way or other, in climbing our fences, stealing our fowls, and pilfering every thing they could lay their hands upon, as well as abusing us if we attempted to prevent them. But it is not so now: it is very seldom they molest us, except when fighting-parties assemble together; then they are troublesome to us, but nothing so bad as they used to be. Viewing them thus, I cannot but see a considerable improvement in their outward conduct: they are become better acquainted with us, and we with them. There is a very great difference in the minds and dispositions of the Natives: some are much more friendly disposed towards us than others, and I think would, as far as they could, do every thing to please us; but we find some who are quite of a contrary disposition, who would do all the mischief they could: so that when we suffer, it is from such characters as those, who will not listen to what we say themselves, nor let others if they can prevent them.

Pyhea.

The persons engaged in the Mission at this Station are, the Rev. Henry and William Williams with their Wives, Mr. and Mrs. Fairburn, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. Charles Davis, and W. Puckey: they have been joined by Mr. John Tuckwell, Brother-in-law to Mr. Fairburn, who will assist in navigating the vessel, when required, and, at other times, in the School.

Besides the Sunday Services for those who are immediately connected with the Mission, the Rev.

Messrs. Williams and their Associates make excursions in various directions among the Natives. Mr. Henry Williams has also commenced a Service on board one of the ships in the Bay, for the benefit of the Sailors.

The following Extracts from Mr. W. Williams's Journal will shew the plan which has been adopted by himself and his Associates for the employment of their time:—

At half-past five in the morning our large bell is rung, to arouse the whole Settlement: at half-past six the Natives and Europeans assemble for Prayers: at half-past seven we meet in the Native School: and at half-past eight we begin to study the Native Language, which we continue till eleven; and this time will now be appropriated to the Translation of the Scriptures.

In another part of his Journal he writes—

At six o'clock in the evening all the Natives, being about 30 in number, are assembled for Prayers; after which the Boys are taught for an hour-and-a-half. We have a Prayer Meeting on Wednesday and Saturday Evenings, which is a great means of benefitting our own souls: indeed, without the constant enjoyment of these privileges, we must soon become languid, by reason of the deadening influence of the scenes around us.

On the mode of Translation, Mr. Williams writes—

We find much benefit in carrying on this work in a body. William Puckey, a young Carpenter who has been brought up in this Island, has a very extensive knowledge of the language: he therefore first translates the passage, and the rest examine his production by the Original and by other Translations.

This subject leads Mr. Williams to express his own and his Brethren's desire for enlarged means of disseminating Truth: he says—

We feel very much the want of a Printing Press, to work off some copies of portions of Scripture, which could be read by several Natives now with us. If the Society were to send a Missionary instructed in the art of Printing, together with a Printing-press, we should be able to keep him well employed; but without this help we shall be much crippled, as the Schools are now kept very backward for want of Printed Lessons.

The want of a Room sufficiently large for the Natives to assemble in for Prayers has induced the Missionaries to commence a Building 40 feet by 20, which will serve for this purpose and as a School. With reference to this, Mr. W. Williams writes—

It cheers us to be obliged to enlarge the place of our tent, to stretch forth the curtains of our habitation, to lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes; and we feel assured that the Gospel will here break forth on the right-hand and on the left, and that this barren desert will become a fruitful field. We entreat you to continue to stir up our friends in England to pray for us: we are beginning to feel the benefit of the prayers which have been offered, and this will encourage them to persevere.

There were in the SCHOOLS, in July, 24 Men and Boys, and in the Girls' School 10. Mr. H. Williams writes, with reference to them, in October—

The Schools make considerable progress, and the children are anxious to be taught. We have many men and women under instruction; indeed, all who are in our employ. We could enlarge the Schools considerably; but we want the means to instruct and feed the scholars.

The sentiments of the Missionaries, as to the general state of mind exhibited by the Natives and of the prospects of the Mission, will appear from a few extracts from their Journals and Letters.

In May, Mr. W. Williams gives the following account of their conduct:—

Sometimes it pleases the Lord to give us great encouragement, in the midst of the many disheartening circumstances which we meet with; and to-day our drooping spirits have been raised by an increased attention among the Natives. Mr. Davis had not met the people of Tepuke for some time: two Sundays he was prevented by tempestuous weather: the third Sunday he went, and found all the men absent on an expedition, inland; and, as they had neglected to give them notice, though they might have done it when at Pyhea a few days before, we thought it better to leave them last Sunday to themselves. This temporary desertion had a good effect; and this morning some of the people came over, to see if we were coming: they were fearful lest we should leave them altogether; and when we reached the people, a few among them seemed to receive the word with more eagerness than before.

In November, Mr. R. Davis writes—

I have continued to visit my Natives on Sundays, since I last wrote to you; and have been much encouraged in so doing; while, occasionally, I have been much cast down, in beholding their great indifference. My people have now for nearly two years never been to fight: this is a great blessing. May the Lord make me thankful for the influence of the blessed Gospel! I do hope, at times, that some of them are thoughtful. I have also, in my turn, addressed the Natives in the Settlement, and have occasionally witnessed much attention.

Mr. H. Williams, under the same date, gives the following view of the Mission:—

The Natives are in a distressing state, both in body and soul. I hope their state may be daily more sensibly felt by us all, that we may be more fervent in our supplications to the Great Head of the Church, that He may enlighten their eyes and quicken their souls. Many are our encouragements. Though darkness covers the land, still we think we see the dawning of that glorious day, when the Lord shall lift up the light of His countenance upon them, and deliver them from the yoke of Satan. Our Monthly Prayer-Meetings continue, and strengthen that bond of Christian Union which is so needful for us; but daily do we require self-examination and circumspection, that we wander not from the fold. To the Lord we commit ourselves and our work. We rejoice in your prayers and best wishes for us: may you continue them! We feel that you look toward us with interest; and hope something effectual may soon be wrought, to the overthrowing of the Tyrant's dominion. Weak indeed we are, but in the Lord we put our trust.

On the same subject Mr. W. Williams thus writes—

From my Journal you will see what are our trials, hopes, and our encouragements: our trials we have been, and shall be, enabled to bear and to overcome—our hopes will gain strength daily, from the Word of God, and from those openings which break upon us from time to time. Pray for us, that our faith fail not; and that we be not led away by those secular duties which for the present press upon us.

Kauakaua.

It has been already mentioned, that it was deemed inexpedient for the Messrs. Davis to reside at this Station, and that, for the present, they continue at Pyhea.

The last Report stated, that ten acres of land had been purchased, which Mr. R. Davis was employed in getting into cultivation: there appear, however, to be some obstacles in the way, which were not then contemplated. On this subject he writes as follows:—

I have not been able to succeed, according to my expectations, in cultivating land at Kauakaua. I cannot get the Natives to work; and great part of what is done has been done by my own exertion. I have now growing about five or six acres of wheat on very good land, which was two years ago heavily timbered: but the season has been wet; and the land being sour, it is looking but badly. At present there is but little probability of my being able to do any thing in cultivation to any extent; not only on account of my not being able to get hands to work, but also on account of the unwillingness of the Natives to part with their lands.

Since the Anniversary, intelligence of a distressing nature has been received from New Zealand. Disturbances having been renewed among the Natives in the vicinity of the Wesleyan Settlement at Whangarooa, several of the Church Missionaries, with a party of Natives from Kiddeekiddee, went thither to the assistance of their friends. They soon returned, accompanied by the Wesleyan Missionaries; one of whom, Mr. Turner, was to proceed to Port Jackson. Mr. W. Williams gives the following particulars, under date of 18th of January, from Pyhea:—

The whole of the premises at Whangarooa, which have been put up at a great expense, are now destroyed, either by fire or in some other way; and the property has been carried abroad, to any place within distance. Intelligence was then received that Shunghee was killed; and the Natives belonging to Kiddeekiddee said, that the Missionaries would certainly be stripped of every thing that they possessed, according to the New-Zealand custom; and recommended them to do the best for themselves.

In addition to these things, we have had every reason to be apprehensive for the safety of this Settlement; it being probable, that if one part of the Mission is broken up, the natural disposition of the Natives would lead them to complete their work in the destruction of the whole. Under these circumstances, it has been considered expedient to send to the Colony every article which was not absolutely necessary for present use.

The sight of these packages, and the return of Mr. Turner, will be a convincing proof to you what are our feelings on this point; and that, in the present unsettled state of things, we consider ourselves merely as tenants for the time being, who may receive our discharge at any hour. The rumours which we hear lead us at times to think it not improbable that we may all be obliged to leave the Island together; though it is our intention to continue here as long as we can keep our ground. If we are compelled to relinquish our post for a season, it will no doubt tend eventually to the furtherance of the work; for the Enemy will never be suffered to reign, though he may be permitted for a time to impede the work, that God may hereafter be the more glorified.

Mr. Williams adds, on the 22d—

Since I finished my Letter on the 18th, we have received news which leads us to suppose that Shunghee is either dead or very near his death, from the wounds which he received at Whangarooa: if this be true, all that we have anticipated respecting our Settlements is likely to come to pass.

The support which God has mercifully granted to his Servants on this trying occasion is abundantly shewn by the sentiments which they express: Mr. H. Williams writes—

About 9 o'clock, a messenger from Kiddeekiddee brought a Letter, stating that Shunghee was dead, and that they hourly expected to be turned out of doors, and plundered of every thing. Our boat was sent up immediately, to fetch Mrs. Clarke, as she was not well: the remainder to stand to the last. We felt thankful to the Lord that our minds were preserved free from that anxiety which might be expected; believing, that, be it as it might, He would overrule all to the glory of His majesty.

He afterwards adds—

The Lord will doubtless direct that which shall be right. We have seen Him at all times a present help, and He will still stand by us.

The same sentiments of confidence in God are expressed by Mr. W. Williams, who gives the following view of his own and his companions' feelings:—

Whatever may befal our Mission, we are now prepared to depart or stay, according to the behaviour of the Natives; but it is, I believe, our united determination to remain until we are absolutely driven away: when the Natives are in our houses, carrying away our property, it will then be time for us to take refuge in our boats. There seems to be great indifference on the part of the Chiefs whether we go or stay; and many of those, of whom we have had a very good opinion, have been most forward to join in the late scenes of depreda-tion. It may be the will of God that our work should be interrupted for a season, that it may be carried on with greater vigour hereafter. Of this we have no doubt, that a change will soon take place; and a proof of this is, the great opposition stirred up by the Wicked One. I would observe, at the same time, that there is no apprehension for our personal safety, according to the statements of the Natives: besides, we know that we are concealed in the hollow of the hand of the Lord, who will not suffer the enemy to do more than shall tend to the good of His people and the prosperity of His cause.

WEST-INDIES MISSION.

The Committee are happy in being able to state, that a Corresponding Committee has been formed in the Island of Jamaica, whose object it will be to obtain and circulate information, and to recommend such measures as may tend to promote the Society's plans for the spiritual benefit of the Slave Population of the West-India Islands.

Jamaica.

A correspondence having been entered into with the Bishop of Jamaica, by which it appeared that openings of usefulness presented themselves in the establishment of Schools in the Island, the Committee have placed the sum of 200*l.* at his Lordship's disposal, for that purpose.

An opportunity having occurred, for the beneficial employment of the Society's funds, in the Parish of St. Thomas in the East, the Committee have granted the sum of 100*l.*, to be appropriated at the discretion of the Rector. With this sum, a Catechist has been provided for the District of Blue-Mountain Valley, containing a population of 5500 persons, who have hitherto had no means of spiritual instruction.

Mr. Taylor and Mr. Jones, with their Wives, continue the work of education on the estates of Salt-Savannah and Papine. In the School under Mr. Taylor's care there are 83 Scholars, consisting of Adults and Children; and in that of which Mr. Jones has the charge, 81.

Antigua.

The numbers of Children attending for instruction in this Island are much diminished.

St. Vincent's.

No recent Returns have been made of the School at St. Vincent's; but the latest account that was received, stated that the Scholars were 17 in number.

NORTH-WEST AMERICA MISSION.

The persons employed in this Mission are the same as were stated in the last Report—the Rev. David Jones, and the Rev. William Cockran and Mrs. Cockran, with Mr. William Garrioch and Mr. Bunn.

In the midst of much outward distress, occasioned by a destructive inundation in the month of May, it appears, from Mr. Jones's and Mr. Cockran's accounts, that their MINISTRY has been attended by many encouraging circumstances. The Sunday Services at both Churches, and the Prayer-Meeting at Image Plain in the week, are well attended.

At Christmas 1825, Mr. Jones had the happiness of admitting to the Lord's Supper the first Native Indian: on this subject he writes, on the 22d of December—

I have had several conversations with a female Native Indian of this Colony, in regard to her partaking of the Lord's Supper. She has been most assiduous in the use of the means for a long time, and her knowledge of Divine Things has been increasing so rapidly as to become a striking proof of the gracious and efficient teaching of the Holy Spirit. She came to-day again with her Half-breed Daughter, who is also determined to forsake the world and follow Christ. I could not help shedding tears of joy at this additional proof of Divine approbation afforded to my labours: THIS IS THE FIRST REAL INDIAN WHO HAS BECOME A COMMUNICANT.

Last Fall, an Indian came to the Settlement for the benefit of medical assistance, having had his hand shattered by the bursting of a gun. He is a very extraordinary man: his inquiries concerning our religion manifest a degree of intelligence, which would make him shine as a light in the world if illuminated by the Gospel. He is particularly anxious to learn all that he can before he returns to his wilds in the Spring, in order, as he says, to make his "friends and children more wise."

The Half-breed Young Woman, just mentioned, told me to-day, that she does all that she can to instruct him, but finds it very difficult to explain herself to him in the Indian Language on particular subjects: she said, "I was never so anxious to speak well to him as I was this morning, and never made a worse hand of it: my sister and I both tried, again and again, but could not get on well at all." "My young friend," said I, "what were you so anxious to tell him of?" She replied, "I was endeavouring to tell him what the Saviour suffered for him, and why it was necessary that He should suffer as He did, in order to save sinners." I encouraged her to proceed in her instructions with him and his wife, by setting before her the promises of God which bore on the subject. At the same time I could not but think how delighted many Christian Ladies in England would be with this my young disciple. Two years ago this young woman was as ignorant as any Indian in the country; but now has learned to read her Bible, and has found a Saviour there, the sweetness of whose love makes her long for the time when her poor countrymen shall participate therein. Let the friends of Missions then go on, and they shall reap if they faint not; yea, they do reap, in part, already.

No returns of the numbers attending the SCHOOLS have been received; but Mr. Cockran thus reports of them in July—

Both the Sunday and Week-day Schools were in a flourishing state, in the winter: the children regularly attended, even when the weather was very stormy; but, since the latter end of April, we have all had to pass through many vicissitudes: from the 3d of May, the Settlers have been so dispersed that it is impossible for their children to attend the Schools. We hope that in a few weeks they will be more collected, and then our Schools will flourish again. The Indian Boys are making considerable progress in knowledge: some of them seem to attend with a great deal of sincerity when religious instruction is delivered, but it is natural to them to give close attention to every thing.

The desire which some of the Indians evince for the instruction of their children, appears from the following circumstance, mentioned by Mr. Jones—

Mr. Ross told me, in reference to the Parents of the Boys brought to Red-River School, that they were very indignant when he first, at the instance of Governor Simpson, solicited their giving up their sons; and asked him if they "were looked upon as dogs—willing to give up their children to go they knew not whither:" but when he told them that they were going to a Minister of Religion to learn how to know and serve God, they said he might have "HUNDREDS OF CHILDREN IN AN HOUR'S TIME;" and he selected two, being the sons of the most powerful Chiefs in that part of the country.

In the early part of the year great distress was caused by the severity of the weather, of which Mr. Jones gives the following account in February:—

The weather continues unusually cold and stormy, and there is every prospect of a late spring. News of the most deplorable kind arise daily from the plains: the Canadian Free-men have, for some time, been subsisting on their leather tents, parchment windows, buffaloe robes, old shoes, &c. They have devoured all the carcases of the horses, dogs, &c. that have died since the commencement of winter: it is further stated, that the dead bodies of those who have perished have been eaten by their surviving companions.

The distress of the Free-men induced Mr. Jones and Mr. Cockran to set on foot a contribution among the Protestants, for their relief; which was the more desirable, as the Free-men had, on a former occasion, acted in a very different manner. On this subject Mr. Jones writes—

When, in the early part of this Settlement, all the Europeans were obliged to go to the plains for subsistence during winter, these Free-men behaved very cruelly to them, selling their meat at an exorbitant rate, &c. Some traces of these injuries were still in the minds of the people, and, in some instances, likely to prove an obstacle to our contribution; but it gave Mr. Cockran and myself a good opportunity of talking with them on Christian charity and a forgiving spirit: none refused to give something; and, generally, the spirit among them was liberal and pleasing.

The difficulty in which the Settlement was involved, increased as the spring advanced. At the end of April, Mr. Jones thus describes the circumstances of the people:—

A striking combination of circumstances tends at present to throw a gloom over the temporal interests of this Colony. The failure of the buffaloe in the hunting-grounds commenced the distress: since that time, the season, both in duration and severity, has exceeded any former instance of the kind within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The Settlers have, for a long time, been obliged to support their cattle entirely on wheat and barley, and the consumption has been so great as to lead me to apprehend a scarcity of seed for the soil. The season is getting so late as to render it probable that no wheat crops can be expected at all; and should any thing occur to prevent the prosperity of barley and potatoes, we shall be threatened with a famine. Many prayers and strong cries are sent up to Him who alone can save; and I hope they will be heard.

The distress occasioned by the severity of the weather was increased by a destructive inundation, from the beginning of May till the middle of June; in the course of which nearly every house was swept away, and the country laid under water as far as the eye could reach. The Missionaries, in common with the rest of the inhabitants, were obliged, for about a month, to leave their dwellings, and reside under tents pitched on a high spot of ground. Mr. Jones's Journal depicts in a very lively manner the progress and effects of this visitation*, with the happy influence which it appears to have had on the minds of the people.

On the 12th of June, Mr. Jones states, in his Journal—

We are now nearly re-established in our dwellings. The Parsonage is all in one room; and served for a Church yesterday, where I preached twice; Mr. Cockran having gone to the Hills, where the people are still encamped. Mr. and Mrs. Cockran returned home on Saturday. The ploughs are at work to-day, and I trust that we shall yet have crops of barley and potatoes. The people are now drawing near the banks of the river, to the site of their old habitations. Thus deliverance comes in God's own time and way. We want nothing but faith to rely on Him!

Mr. Cockran writes—

Though the flood has destroyed almost every house, yet we have escaped very wonderfully: we have received very little damage: our Churches are standing: our Dwelling-house, with the Schoolmaster's and the School Houses, are left alone, as it were, as monuments of the preserving mercy of God.

In August, Mr. Jones thus expresses his feelings with respect to the mercies which they had experienced:—

Let me beg that the language of gratitude, as well as of prayer, be held forth at your assemblies on behalf of this infant Mission. Our troubles have been great: we have not dwelt much on them: we would rather join in thanksgiving to the Author and Giver of life, that we are still monuments of mercy, and permitted to lift up our feeble voices in testimony of the goodness of Jehovah.

In concluding the Report of their Proceedings, the Committee will give the following Summary of the Society's operations.—In its Nine Missions there are 54 Stations, with which are connected 286 Schools. All these different Stations are employing 458 Labourers; of whom 124 are Europeans, and 334 born in the respective countries where they are employed. In the Schools there are 13,447 Scholars; 9479 of whom are Boys, 3086 Girls, and 882 Adults. Many Churches have been built; in which the Gospel of Peace is faithfully preached, and the Ordinances of God administered: and at some of the principal Stations, Printing-Presses have been established, from which the Scriptures, Liturgy, and Religious Tracts are issued in large numbers.

Of the success which God has given to the Society in the use of these means, the Committee desire to express their sentiments with caution; and, while they acknowledge, with devout gratitude to the God of all grace, that they have been permitted to gather some fruit from among the Heathen, they regard the present only as the seed-time: scattering, as God enables them, the incorruptible seed, they would wait in faith and patience for the promised harvest.

In the present aspect of things there are, indeed, many encouraging circumstances; and the Christian cannot but contemplate with lively joy the steady support which is continued to the Cause of Missions —the facilities which are afforded for the education of Missionary Students—the erection of Churches in Heathen Lands—the establishment of Schools—and the favourable disposition manifested by the Natives in various parts of the world toward the Messengers of Peace. In these things, there are many occasions of joy, and many excitements to hope; but there is a corresponding danger, lest the friends of Missions should argue from these preparatory measures to their final success, as from cause to effect, without reference to that Almighty Mind which controuls all measures and orders all events. In this work, especially, should the over-ruling will of God be kept constantly in mind: and while, in obedience to His commands, His Servants publish the Gospel of His grace, they feel that it becomes them to wait with patience for the effusion of His Spirit to make their labours effectual; and, remembering that He worketh all things after the counsel of His own will, and hath put the times and the seasons in His own power— that He will accomplish His own work in His own time and way, and often by means and instruments the most unsuspected by man—they rejoice to leave the issue of their labours to the appointment of His sovereign will.

Nor should it be overlooked, that the Cause of Missions is an aggressive warfare, which necessarily excites the opposition of the Powers of Darkness. We wrestle against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Against those who are labouring for the subversion of His kingdom, it is to be expected that the Evil Spirit will muster all his force and exert his utmost malice; and in proportion as this work extends and prospers, will the activity of his opposition increase. He has marshalled against it his various emissaries, who, by artful insinuations, perverted statements, and unholy sneers, have decried the principle of Missions and denied their utility. For this the supporters of Missions are prepared; and, having endeavoured with well-doing to put to silence the ignorance of foolish men, have no apprehension as to the result of such attacks.

But there is a more insidious, and therefore more dangerous weapon, which the Prince of Darkness has frequently used for the advancement of his cause. When he has failed in his more open and direct attacks, he has had recourse to stratagem; and has too often succeeded in disuniting his opponents: the enemy in the field was powerless—the enemy within the camp prevailed. That our own Society has hitherto escaped this device of Satan, is not to be attributed to any superiority in the wisdom or the measures of those who have conducted its affairs, but to the undeserved favour and over-ruling hand of Him in whose Cause it is engaged. For the success of any of their past measures the Committee desire to give Him the glory, as well as to confide in Him for the future. To Him, and Him alone, would they look for victory over every enemy; and, while they would urge on all who are associated in this Cause the importance of cultivating a spirit of candour and brotherly love, and of supplicating a larger communication of the grace of the Holy Spirit both on the whole Church of Christ and on every Individual Member of it, they would wait in hope for the fulfilment of the promises of God and for the coming of Messiah's kingdom.

INSTRUCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE TO THE REV. CHARLES LEWIS FREDERICK HAENSEL, PROCEEDING TO SIERRA LEONE, FOR THE PURPOSE OF TAKING CHARGE OF THE CHRISTIAN INSTITUTION: DELIVERED DECEMBER 28, 1826.

Instructions of the Committee.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD—

It is with great interest and satisfaction that the Committee send you forth, to take charge of the Christian Institution in Sierra Leone, for the education of African Youth for the service of the Society's Mission on that coast.

The Society has, for many years, been engaged in efforts to accomplish this desirable object; and progress has, at different times, been made toward its attainment. Some of the Youths educated in the Institution are now filling the office of Native Teachers with advantage to the Mission; while others, as the Committee have been assured by a friend who has resided long in the Colony, are filling useful situations in the offices of the Merchants and Traders of Freetown.

Experience, therefore, furnishes encouragement to persevere in this attempt; though the trials and difficulties of the Mission have prevented the Society from obtaining that full measure of benefit which might otherwise have been reasonably expected. The Institution was first placed under the care of the Rev. Leopold Butscher; then, successively, under that of Mr. Horton, the Rev. Henry Düring, the Rev. William Johnson, Mr. James Norman, Mr. James Lisk, the Rev. Henry Brooks, and Mr. John Weeks —the death of some of these Teachers, and the removal, from various causes, of others, rendering these changes unavoidable, and frequently leaving the Youths without adequate instruction or superintendence. Under these circumstances, it is not surprising that the Institution should have fallen into decay, and that it will be requisite that you should commence your labours with new Students.

The Committee send you forth to this labour with the more satisfaction, because they know that your own heart has long been deeply impressed with the state of Africa, and that, while engaged in tuition in the Bâsle Missionary Institution, you were greatly affected by the account of the Society's West-Africa Mission, and freely offered yourself to live and to labour in instructing African Youths, in order to their becoming Teachers of their countrymen. From your previous residence in this country, and from the testimony of some of the most zealous and able supporters of the Society, the Committee felt entire confidence in your qualifications for this arduous and important office, and gladly accepted your offer. At their instance you have been admitted by the Lord Bishop of London to Holy Orders in the Church of England, and will now go forth, they trust, in the name and in the strength of the Lord, to accomplish that work to which you have been appointed.

The Committee have, from time to time, sent out Instructions respecting the Institution; but they avail themselves of this opportunity to lay before you the principal points which require attention.

The Committee having come to the determination to bring over a few African Youths, in order that they may receive in this country a more enlarged education, it is intended that the Institution in the Colony should serve as a Nursery, from which the most promising Youths may be selected for that purpose; while others, whom it may not be thought expedient to send to this country, may be trained in the Institution for subordinate service in the Mission, or for stations of usefulness in the Colony.

Your duty will be to revive and to conduct the Institution. This object will require your undivided time and attention. In the present state of the Mission, the Committee feel it needful to be express on this point. They do not wish to prevent you from engaging in such occasional Ministerial Duties as you may find to be compatible with your health, and with your duties at the Institution—and which may prove a comfort to your own mind, as well as afford relief to your brethren: but they judge it inexpedient that you should, in any case, undertake the charge and responsibility of a Parish, with the attendant duties of visiting the people, administering the Sacraments, solemnizing marriages, &c. This would bring a burden on you, to which, in that climate, you would be unequal, and by which the peculiar object of your Mission would be endangered.

With respect to the measures to be pursued for bringing the Institution into efficient operation, the Committee must rely much, in the first instance, on your own discretion. Your devotedness to the best interests of Africa will lead you to suggest various plans for the good of the Youths entrusted to your care, which, at this distance, cannot well be prescribed. The Committee trust that you will endeavour to carry their intentions into effect, by acting with Christian wisdom and piety, persevering diligence, and unwearied love.

You will on all occasions freely open your mind and explain your wishes to the Committee; assuring yourself of their cordial concurrence in every design which shall commend itself to their judgment, and of their readiness to promote, by every means in their power, the great object before you.

Though the main purpose of the Institution be to train up African Youths to become Native Teachers of their countrymen, yet many reasons render it desirable that the Institution should not be exclusively confined to those who are designed for that office; but that it should be left open, under proper restrictions, for the benefit of such Natives, resident in the Colony or its vicinity, as may avail themselves of its advantages. The character of Young Persons does not at once develope itself; and nothing would be more injurious to the Mission than to take those into its service as Teachers, whose principles and piety were not well established. The Committee, therefore, consider the Institution as designed for giving the Native Youths of the Colony that Christian Education which may fit them for stations of usefulness; with an especial reference, however, to the preparation of those who shall be most promising for Christian Teachers.

There are already buildings at Regent for the reception of the Students; and as that is one of the most healthy Stations in the Colony, and has been the seat of the Institution for some years past, the Committee see no adequate reason for its removal from that place. You will therefore revive the Institution at Regent; unless, on your arrival in the Colony, there should appear decisive reasons for a temporary residence at another Station.

No Youths should be admitted but those who can both read and write; and it will be your endeavour to perfect them in both, that they may read English Books with correctness and fluency, and write a clear and legible hand.

You will ground them well in all the elementary parts of knowledge; such as, English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

The two Languages of most material use will be English and Arabic. Arabic, being extensively known and spoken in Africa, will demand particular attention; and you are well qualified to give the Youths elementary instruction in that language.

It will be a matter of important bearing on the wide diffusion of Christianity in Africa, to form Grammars and Vocabularies of the Dialects with which the Africans congregated in the Colony may be acquainted. This object, therefore, the Committee commend to your attention, to be taken up and prosecuted, as your other duties will permit; as they contemplate the grammatical instruction in their own language, at as early a period as may be practicable, of the most promising Youths from the chief Countries in the vicinity and the interior. Scriptural Instruction will occupy much of your time. Let the Bible be the basis of all your religious teaching. Let it ever be your design to impart to the Youths committed to your care as thorough a knowledge as possible of the Sacred Volume: its history and biography, its chronology and geography, should be familiar to them; and they should be accustomed to prove and confirm their religious principles by clear and express passages from the Word of God.

In giving the first elements of instruction, you will find Catechisms of considerable use, such as the Church Catechism, that of the Rev. Basil Woodd, and Nowell's Catechism. Watts's Scripture History will also be found a useful assistant.

The principles of the Church of England, as contained in her authorised Formularies, derived as they are from the Scriptures and conformable to the first and purest ages of the Church, should be explained and inculcated.

The History of the Church in all ages will, also, be another source of interesting and edifying instruction.

The Africans are fond of Music and Singing: in these you are fully able to instruct them; and these pursuits will constitute a relaxation from closer study.

The Youths should be accustomed to English Composition; and care should here be taken to improve their style, and to raise the tone of their minds.

Some manual exercise should be intermingled with their studies—learning a trade, such as carpentry, or attending to gardening. These things will come in as pleasures and relaxations, and tend to promote their general improvement and usefulness.

The System of Mutual Instruction should be adopted, so far as it is advantageous and practicable.

No Youths should be admitted into the Institution before they have been baptized, nor any under 12 years of age; and no Youth should be allowed to marry while he remains under instruction.

You will ever bear in mind, that sound Christian Knowledge and genuine piety are the main points to be regarded in all your labours: both are essential to the extensive influence of those who are committed to your care. Without knowledge, piety cannot be well founded or stable; and without piety, knowledge will be of little real benefit.

With respect to the temporal concerns of the Institution, it is desirable that you should have as few cares and as full controul as practicable. You will probably be able easily to make a satisfactory arrangement with the Government Superintendant, for a regular supply of provisions, should that be found to be the best plan. You will engage under you such assistance as may be necessary for the proper management of the Establishment: so that you may be left as much at liberty as possible to attend to its literary and religious concerns.

It has been found most economical to send clothing from this country: this will relieve you from trouble and difficulty on that head.

The first reception of the Students may be arranged as shall be found most convenient, at a Meeting of the Missionaries to be held on your arrival. It appears to the Committee desirable and advantageous that each Missionary and Schoolmaster should offer for your choice the most promising Youths at his Station; and that, from those so offered, you should yourself select such as you judge proper to receive into the Institution. The number should not, at first, be large: ten or twelve will probably be found sufficient: after a limited period, the number may be increased, as you find it practicable. In respect of admittance at future periods, it may be desirable that the Missionaries should present double the number required, in order that you may be better able to select those who are fitted to derive most advantage from your instructions.

It has been suggested to the Committee, that it would be an advantageous plan, that Youths should be apprenticed to the Society for a certain term of years; but, as they might not answer the expectations formed respecting them, this does not seem to the Committee an expedient course; unless they could be bound under conditions which would obviate this inconvenience.

In case any Youth should behave ill, you will take all due measures to bring him to a sense of his duty; but, should he be refractory, and there be little or no hope of his improvement, you will report his case to the next Meeting of the Missionaries; or to a Special Meeting to be convened for that purpose, if the circumstances require this; that, with their concurrence, he may be dismissed.

You will make a regular Quarterly Report of the state of the Institution, to the Quarterly Meeting of the Missionaries—for their information, and to be transmitted to the Committee. A Deputation of two of the Missionaries will be directed once a quarter, or as often as the Meeting judge it necessary, to visit and inspect the Institution, and to prepare a Report to the Committee, with any observations and suggestions which they may deem requisite.

You will be yourself a Member of the Quarterly Meeting; and we hope will be able regularly to attend. You will, doubtless, derive much advantage from the counsel and experience of your Brethren, who have been longer in the Colony; though the Committee intend that the Institution should be under your more especial direction.

The Committee will briefly advert, before they close these Instructions, to the future employment of those Young Persons who may be prepared to be Teachers of their Countrymen.

Some will fill the subordinate situations of Ushers, Schoolmasters, and Catechists, in the different Villages in the Colony—such help being very valuable to the Missionary. Others, of more promising talents, may be trained for Holy Orders; and it may be a matter of subsequent consideration, whether it may not be advisable to seek Episcopal Ordination for them in this Country.

Of those thus set apart for Native Teachers, some may manifest that mature and steady piety, that sound judgment and ardent zeal, which may justify the Committee in sending them, as openings may be presented, to their Countrymen in the interior of Africa; or they may be employed in conducting other Missionary Seminaries for training up future Labourers.

The Committee have, perhaps, hardly ever undertaken a more important measure than that now in contemplation; and you have offered yourself to a work eminently calculated, if it shall please God to spare and bless you, to promote the best interests of Africa. Our hearty prayers will accompany you. Go, in the Name of the Lord, to your work! and, if it shall please Him, become the Spiritual Father of many Sons, who themselves shall rise up to be fathers in their day, turn many to righteousness here, and shine as the brightness of the firmament hereafter.

How important to this end is it, that the Saviour should largely dispense His Holy Spirit on you and your pupils! Here centres every well-founded hope of good. If He, whose we are and whom we serve, go not with you, if He dwell not in your heart and shine not in your ministry and in your life, you will labour to little or no purpose. The Committee doubt not but you feel this. They are persuaded that it is the experience of His grace in your heart which has led you to urge us to send you to Africa without delay—pressing eagerly to enter on the dangers of this service, that you may shew your love to Him. Proclaim to Africans His boundless love. Speak of the glory of His Kingdom; and let African Youth learn to sing His praises and diffuse the tidings of His grace. The day of mercy for their country shall yet come; and then all her scattered and divided and hostile Tribes, throughout her immense and benighted regions, now sunk in barbarism and alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, shall, with one accord, extol that Redeemer who put it in the hearts of Christians to go forth into the wilderness, in imitation of His own glorious example, to seek and to save that which was lost.

WEST-AFRICA-MISSION REPORT FOR 1826.

In taking a review of the events which have occurred in the West-Africa Mission during the past year, emotions of various kinds will be excited. It will be seen, that some have continued to labour at the post assigned them; either waiting for the success which they hope will eventually be granted, or rejoicing in the earnests of it already afforded: and that, while several have been added to the number of Labourers, others have found it necessary to retire from the scene of action, in order to recruit their strength; and some have been removed to their final rest.

The number of Labourers at the commencement of the year was thirty-two, as will be seen by a Table contained in this Report (p. 179): to these, four others (two English Clergymen, with their Wives) were added, soon after. Six Native Assistants were likewise appointed, at different periods of the year; and one restored to his situation, who had been suspended*. It was deemed necessary,

* A further reinforcement of four Labourers (two of whom had been before stationed in the Colony) arrived at the latter end of November: but as, from unavoidable circumstances, they had scarcely entered upon their however, that five of the European Labourers, who had been employed for several years in the Colony, should return to their native country, for a season: their departure took place before the close of the former half of the year: and not long afterward, they were followed by one of the Clergymen mentioned above, whose health had been much deteriorated, during a residence of about five months: he did not reap the benefit which had been anticipated from his voyage, having died within a few days after his arrival in Ireland.

In the mean time, other breaches had been made in the number of Labourers, by the removal of three Females who had devoted themselves to the instruction of the rising generation. Two of these were called away from their endeared companions, and from the exertions to which they had eagerly looked forward, almost before they could enter on the field of labour allotted them: the third (a Native Schoolmistress) had been occupied for many years in the service of the Society; and her departure, though unexpected at the moment, and sincerely regretted, can scarcely be considered premature. A further reduction took place, attended with circumstances not a little painful: two of the Natives having fallen into open sin, it became a duty to remove them (at least for a time) from the service of the Society: another was suspended, for want of attention to his duties.

It affords some mitigation of the sorrow naturally excited by the losses just specified, to reflect, that the number removed by death is considerably less than in the preceding year; and that those who have been thus taken from the sphere of action (judging from all that is known of their previous state of mind) never regretted, but rather rejoiced, that they had embarked in so honourable a service.

Perhaps it may not be altogether superfluous to offer a remark or two with reference to the mortality which has taken place in the Colony. There may be persons who are ready to charge the Committee of the Church Missionary Society with causing a needless waste of human life, by continuing to send European Missionaries thither, when so considerable a number have been cut off: but, if the Mission is carried on, it seems undeniable that it must be conducted, at least for a number of years, under the superintendence and probably by the occasional co-operation of Europeans. It ought also to be stated, in justice to the Committee, that they are careful to leave their Missionaries perfectly at liberty, as to their entrance on this Mission: it is urged on no one as a duty; and no one is expected to undertake it who does not decidedly choose this particular branch of service. Another plan has, indeed, been suggested to the Committee: it has been supposed that suitable persons for this purpose might be selected from the natives of some tropical climate; whose health would be less exposed to danger, than that of Europeans. Inquiries are now making on this subject; and if it should be satisfactorily ascertained that competent Labourers may be thus procured, and employed in the Colony with greater safety than natives of a temperate clime, it is not improbable that the plan may be adopted.

The particulars of the alterations mentioned already are embodied in the following statement; from which it will appear, that the whole number actually employed during the latter half of the year was somewhat less than at its commencement.

In order to form a just estimate of the actual amount of labour to be expected from the persons employed in the Mission, it should be considered, on the one hand, that an European, while under the influence of a tropical climate, is able to accomplish far less than while breathing his native air; and, on the other, that valuable as is the assistance of Natives, they require, in almost all cases, the superintendence of an European, in order that they may proceed with vigour and effect in the work entrusted to them. If these circumstances are properly regarded, it will be obvious that the difference between a company such as has been described, and another composed entirely of Europeans labouring in a temperate climate, must be very great; and, consequently, that the sum total of labour, which may reasonably be expected from them, is not such as a person of sanguine feelings might be led to anticipate.

It may also be noticed, as one of the peculiarities attending this Mission, that the small number of persons employed, the urgent wants of particular Stations, and the difficulty of finding proper Superintendants for the temporal concerns of the people, render it, in some cases, apparently necessary for an individual to undertake more than he can execute with safety to his health. This, added to the effect of the climate, has proved fatal to several of those who have been removed at different times: and, where the consequences have been less serious, the exertions of the survivors have not appeared so successful as (humanly speaking) they might have been, if concentrated in one spot and directed more exclusively to one object. It is clear that this difficulty must (in some degree) remain, and its operation be more or less hurtful to the Mission, until an enlarged number of Labourers shall offer themselves for this work.

As to the civilization of the Africans, and the improvement of their temporal concerns, it may not be amiss to observe, that this seems more naturally to fall within the province of Government, and, though pursued in a subordinate degree, is not the grand and leading object of the Society: that remains, what it always has been—the introduction of Christian Knowledge, by means of SCHOOLS for Children and Adults, and by SCRIPTURAL TEACHING adapted to the capacities of the people. It is true, that some of the Missionaries have been, at different times, employed in the Civil Superintendence of the Villages; but the adoption of this measure was principally owing to the difficulty already alluded to, of finding suitable persons to hold the office of Superintendant. Some alterations recently made by His Excellency, Sir Neil Campbell, (and others believed to be in contemplation,) will probably render it unnecessary for any of them to be thus occupied in future. So far as civilization can be promoted by Christianity, or as both may be advanced by simultaneous efforts, the Society rejoices to see them proceeding together; but does not consider itself as responsible (strictly speaking) for more than that which it has expressly undertaken to perform.

As to the benefits of a more important nature, which may result from the endeavours of the Missionaries in this or any other part of the world, it must never be forgotten, that without a blessing descending from on High the best-concerted plans will fail of their accomplishment, and the most vigorous exertions will be ineffectual. While, therefore, all practicable diligence should be employed in the use of approved means, and every real improvement which may be suggested in the method of proceeding ought readily to be adopted, it highly becomes both the Friends of Missions and the Labourers themselves to preserve a deep sense of their dependence on the Great Author of all good; and to add to this their fervent supplications for the effusion of that Spirit, whose fructifying influences, the Word of Truth assures us, shall cause even the desert to rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

These observations are not made with a view to apologise for the want of greater success, or to magnify the obstacles which present themselves to the accomplishment of the Society's designs; but in order that the real state of the case may be better known, and an impartial judgment more easily formed, both of the value of what has already been done, and of the results which may reasonably be anticipated in future.

With respect to the general course of events throughout the year, it is pleasing to be able to state, that the Word of God has been regularly dispensed, according to the ability of the Teacher employed; and prayer offered up, in the words of our excellent Liturgy, from Sabbath to Sabbath, in most of the Stations; and that, in several of them, Public Services have been held daily (in some, both morning and evening), besides Weekly Meetings of the Communicants for Prayer, with especial reference to the prosperity of the Kingdom of Christ. The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper have also been administered, at such times and places as to afford to all, who were deemed suitable, an opportunity of partaking of them: the Children have been trained up to read the Holy Scriptures; and the more forward assisted, in some measure, to understand them, as well as to profit by other instructive books which have been put into their hands.

It has not, indeed, been the privilege of those occupied in these Services to witness any very remarkable instances of conversion, nor to discover all those tokens of good resulting from their endeavours, which they could not but desire: yet the fact, that about three thousand persons (including children) have attended Public Worship on Sundays, and nearly half that number on week-days, is surely gratifying in itself, and indicative of a willingness, on the part of many, to embrace the opportunities they now possess of obtaining religious knowledge*. Those who know the power of the Inspired Word to enlighten the conscience, to restrain from gross evils, and to lead to external decency and propriety of conduct, even where it does not produce a thorough change of character, will scarcely doubt that much has been effected in this way, during the past year, which does not strike the eye of the casual observer, and which even the Labourers themselves may not particularly notice.

Some diminution appears to have taken place in the number of those who openly profess themselves the disciples of Christ, at least in their attendance at the Holy Communion; but this has been the case principally in those Stations from which the Teachers have been removed, either by death or other circumstances. A departure from the ways of holiness has rendered it necessary to exclude some from the Sacred Table, and much pain has been occasioned by a few aggravated cases of this kind: these events however, though very deeply to be lamented, cannot excite much surprise, in those who know the tendency of our nature to evil, the danger of corrupt example, and the force of temptation, especially to a mind but imperfectly acquainted with the pure precepts of the Gospel, and its powerful motives to holiness of life: such persons will scarcely fail to regard it as a cause for thankfulness, that the great body of the Communicants are not only preserved from gross misconduct, but seem to be, in a considerable degree, under the influence of a Christian Spirit; and that several give the sincerest pleasure to those who have the charge of them, by their upright deportment, their conscientious discharge of relative duties, and their devout attention to religious ordinances. During the year, some few have died, it is hoped, in the faith of Christ; one of them, a Female residing at Wellington, appeared to be in a very happy state of mind in her last illness.

It is not unworthy of notice, that the number of Baptisms has considerably increased, the amount of those registered being nearly double that of the preceding year: this circumstance seems to indicate that the Parents are becoming more sensible of the value of the ordinance, the majority of those baptized being children†. Others, however, advancing to years of discretion, have thus taken upon themselves the vows of the Christian Profession, and afterwards sealed those vows at the Holy Table; of whom it is earnestly hoped that they will prove true disciples of the Saviour. Marriages, also, have been solemnized in much greater numbers than in the preceding year; owing, partly, to some Regulations respecting single women, which have been recently issued by the Colonial Government; and partly, it is conceived, to the endeavours made to instruct the people in the nature and design of the institution, and to enforce upon them the duty of attending to it as a Divine Ordinance.

The particulars of the alterations referred to will appear in the following Table; in which a comparative view is given of the years 1825 and

* It may be proper here to observe (though the fact is not stated without regret), that there is still, in several Stations, a want of suitable Places of Worship; the Churches being either left unfinished, or constructed on a scale too narrow for the population; increased, as it frequently is, by arrivals from Slave-Vessels. It is hoped that this subject may soon come under the consideration of Government.

† In some of the Villages, a great part of the children under the care of the Superintendant have been baptized, after receiving some measure of instruction, according to their capacity.

1826. It may, however, be necessary to state (what has been before hinted), that children are included in the numbers mentioned as attending church, and that the Returns are made up toward the close of each year; the average of the Congregations and Communicants for the year 1826 being given as far as it could be ascertained. A diminution will be perceived to have taken place in the Congregation at Leopold; which is accounted for, by the absence of the people from Charlotte; who were in the habit of attending at the former place during a part of the year 1825, but have now a Teacher residing among them.

It will be observed, that the Communicants and Scholars include those of Freetown: and it may be proper to mention, that the marriages solemnized at Waterloo, include 79 from Hastings, a Village not now immediately connected with the Society; and that, in addition to the Burials about to be reported, which are those of Professing Christians, there have been several of those who died in a state of Heathenism. For the most part, Burials of this description are not registered; but it is known that 22 of them occurred at Leopold, and 35 at Waterloo,

Finally, it will be seen that the numbers for 1825 are the same as those given in the Report for that year: and with reference to both years, it should be understood, that where nothing is stated, no Returns had been received.

N.B. The above Return is compiled from Statements made (generally) toward the close of the year. Considerable uncertainty is felt, however, respecting the correctness of some of the numbers: and in only one case, that of Freetown, is it positively known that all whose names are on the Books are included: in that of Waterloo the average attendance only is specified.

A Sketch of the Religious Condition of each Settlement of Liberated Africans in connexion with the Society, during the past year, will now follow; principally prepared from the statements, and not unfrequently given in the words, of those who have the charge of the Station. The particulars stated refer to the following heads:—

The manifestations of a Christian Spirit, in the lives of the Communicants.

The number of Religious Inquirers, and the provision made for their assistance.

The indications of seriousness observable in the Congregations.

The concern of Parents to have their Children instructed; and the regard shewn to their Teachers.

The attention of Children to the instructions they receive; and the marks of improvement visible among them.

The degree in which Marriage is honoured, and its obligations regarded as sacred.

The advancement of the people in orderly and industrious habits.

Kissey—It is to be regretted that a number of the Communicants have declined from their former zeal and steadfastness, and appear to be in a lukewarm state: others, however, seem anxious to maintain a conduct consistent with their profession.—There is, at present, only one person who manifests a real concern to know what he must do to be saved.—The Congregations are tolerably attentive, on the whole; though, it must be confessed, there is still much need of improvement. Many of the Parents have but low ideas of the importance of instruction; and are, consequently, negligent in sending their children to School; so that they attend only in small numbers, and in an irregular manner.—It is difficult to speak decidedly respecting the state of the Children: there are, however, a few who manifest an earnest desire after instruction.—The different degrees of civilization and knowledge among the people render it not easy to form an opinion of their general state. With regard to the ordinance of Marriage, they appear, generally, willing to conform to the Rites of the Church of England respecting it; care being taken to inculcate upon them its necessity and importance, as a Divine Institution.—Circumstances do not appear to justify a very favourable statement, with reference to the quietness and good order of the people; they are, however, regularly occupied in the cultivation of the ground, and discover a more industrious spirit than formerly.

Leicester.—The habitual conduct of the Communicants is, for the most part, worthy of commendation.—Only a small number manifest much concern for Religious Instruction: they are assisted by the Native Teacher appointed to this Station.—The behaviour of the people at Public Worship is as good as can reasonably be expected from those among whom civilization is yet imperfect, and whose ideas of Divine things are contracted.—Most of the Parents willingly send their Children to School, and behave in a becoming manner toward the Master.—The attendance of the Children is tolerably regular, and they seem to be improving.—It is believed that Marriage is honoured among the people, in some degree; and a hope is entertained, that, as they become better acquainted with its nature and obligations, it will be honoured more generally and decisively.—The people appear, in general, industrious; and a commendable degree of good order is likewise observable among them.

Gloucester.—The state of the Communicants has varied during the year. In the former part of it, the deportment of several was such as to afford pleasure to the Minister who was placed over them: he found it advisable, however, to suspend some, whose conduct was not satisfactory; and, since his removal, others appear to have become lukewarm, and give but few proofs of their care to maintain a Christian Spirit; yet there are some whose general conduct is becoming, and conformable to their profession.—It has not been ascertained that a spirit of inquiry respecting Divine things has, to any extent, prevailed during the past year.—Religious Ordinances seem to be prized by the people; but there is sometimes a want of that quietness and devout behaviour which it is so desirable to witness in Public Worship.—The Parents very readily send their Children to School; and seem to respect those who confer on them the benefits of instruction.—The Children are, for the most part, too young to set a proper value on instruction; yet their general behaviour affords no ground of complaint.—It is not exactly known what regard was paid to Marriage formerly; at present, it is considered that those who have entered into this honourable union conduct themselves (generally speaking) in a manner agreeable to the engagements it involves; though few, probably, have clear ideas of it, as a Divine Institution.—There is not that degree of good order among the people which in all probability there would be if an European Teacher were constantly residing here. It is understood that their industry is in some measure checked by a deficiency, in the immediate vicinity, of land suited to the purposes of cultivation: perhaps, however, this alleged deficiency may be principally owing to the practice, so commonly adopted by the Liberated Africans, of planting a piece of ground only once, and then proceding, another year, to clear and plant a new piece. The best remedy for this seems to be the allotment of a certain portion of land to each of the adults, with liberty to hold it so long as he attends to its cultivation, and no longer. Probably some regulation may shortly be made on this subject.

Regent.—There are some of the Communicants who truly adorn their Christian Profession, and appear to act very conscientiously in the common affairs of life. It must, however, be lamented, that others are still too much under the influence of a worldly spirit: these, as might naturally be expected, are not sufficiently alive to the opportunities of spiritual improvement which are afforded them.—There are, occasionally, some who appear to be impressed with a conviction of their sinfulness. Such persons usually make known their feelings to one of the Communicants; and, after receiving such assistance as he is able to afford, are conducted to the Minister, by whom they are further instructed.—The attention of the people to Public Worship was very gratifying in the former part of the year, when a Minister was sent to reside among them: since that time, some degree of negligence has appeared. The behaviour of a number, however, is serious and becoming: respecting these, a hope is entertained, that they are seeking first the kingdom of God.—Very many of the Parents readily send their Sons to School; and it is not doubted, that if a Girls' School were established (which there is reason to hope may soon be the case), they would send their Daughters with equal readiness. They appear to be, in some degree, sensible of the favour conferred on them, by those who teach their Children.—It is not as yet evident that the Children properly appreciate the benefits of instruction; nor are the tokens of moral improvement quite satisfactory.—It is much to be regretted that the sacredness of the Matrimonial Union is not more regarded by the people. There are too many instances in which they still follow their country practices; the husband, on very slight grounds, forsaking his wife, and vice versâ. The question, "Whether Marriage is more honoured than formerly," cannot be decided, for want of a longer residence in the Village. Many of the people, owing to their limited knowledge of the English Language, marry before they are capable of understanding much of the nature of the Service, or of the duties connected with the married state.—Marks of good order and industry are not wanting in the Settlement; but perhaps it can scarcely be said that progress is generally making in habits of this kind. One cause of this may be, that a large portion of the inhabitants being in want of employment, are induced to seek it in Freetown; and remaining there the greater part of the week, associated with a variety of characters such as may always be found in so large a population, are surrounded by more powerful temptations, and more easily acquire disorderly and immoral habits than in a retired village.

Leopold.—It is matter of grief to be under the necessity of stating, that two of the Communicants have fallen into open sin: both have, in consequence, been suspended from the Holy Communion. The remainder, it is believed, are sincere and humble disciples of Christ: their general conduct affords pleasing indications that they live by the faith of the Son of God.—The Teacher, who resided here, having left the Colony in the month of June for the benefit of his health, this statement can only relate to the latter part of the year. During that period it can scarcely be said that a spirit of inquiry respecting the way of Salvation has particularly manifested itself, or that there has been any remarkable turning from the worship of idols to that of the Living and True God.—In some instances there has been a want of due decorum in Public Worship; but, on the whole, a degree of seriousness has been manifested, which has afforded much satisfaction. The regular attendance of a number of Children, born in the Village, shews that some of the Parents are concerned for the improvement of their offspring: nor are they generally deficient in a proper regard for those who are placed over them as Teachers, especially when they have resided among them for a sufficient time, and acquired their confidence.—There are some among the Children who value the instructions they receive, and are anxious to improve: others do not discover so pleasing a state of mind.—Marriage is very generally observed among the people; though but few, comparatively, understand much of its obligations, or appear to regard it as a Divine appointment.—There was a good measure of order and industry observable in the former part of the year. More recently, some deterioration has taken place, which may be attributed partly to the removal of the Superintendant, who had resided in the Village for a number of years, and by whose influence the people had been restrained from various evils, and led to preserve outward decency in their behaviour; and partly to the circumstance, that the Superintendant who immediately succeeded to the office was not invested with that authority which would have enabled him to oppose a sufficient check to the beginnings of disorderly habits.

Charlotte.—The conduct of the Communicants, generally speaking, appears to have afforded satisfactory evidence of true piety. One of them, during the Midsummer Quarter, brought to the Teacher eight bushels of Cocoa, part of the produce of his farm; desiring the amount to be paid into the funds of the Society.—But few inquiries have been made in the past year concerning the way of Salvation; and it is feared that a spirit of indifference respecting Divine things prevails among many of the people. A considerable number, however, attend the Public Services, as appears from the place of Worship being filled in the forenoon of Sunday.—The Adults conduct themselves tolerably well in Public Worship; but do not discover that devout frame of mind, and that fixed attention, which it is most desirable to see.—The Parents have, of late, too much neglected to send their Children to School. Some, indeed, are too young; but others might and would be sent, were there a proper sense of the importance of education.—But little evidence appears, as yet, of a desire, on the part of the Children, to obtain instruction.—It is not fully known how Marriage was formerly esteemed in this Settlement: at present, though there is a compliance with the outward form, yet the spirit of the institution is too little regarded; and, not unfrequently, contentions take place among married persons, owing to the fickleness of their tempers.—The moral conduct of the people has not, in general, afforded any ground of complaint; yet there has been, occasionally, a want of good order; nor have the tokens of industry been so evident as in former years.

Wellington.—The Communicants are regular in attending at the Lord's Table: a pleasing degree of union is observable among them; and their general deportment is consistent with their profession.—There were, toward the close of the year, 33 Candidates for Baptism, who appeared to be inquiring after the way of Salvation: they met once a-week, and were instructed, in the absence of the Minister, by the Native Teacher stationed here.—The greater part of the people seem to be attentive and serious during the celebration of Divine Service. The Sunday-Morning Congregation completely fills the Place of Worship.—There appears some degree of anxiety on the part of the Parents to have their Children instructed; and it is believed that they are not deficient in paying due respect to their Teachers.—Many of the Children discover but little regard for instruction: in some, however, the indications of a better spirit are observable.—It is difficult to speak decisively of the degree of estimation in which the ordinance of Marriage is held by the people at large; the measure of knowledge, on this subject, varying considerably in different individuals. It appears that Marriage is generally regarded; and that, though its obligations may be understood but imperfectly, there are few instances in which they are openly violated.—The degree of order and industry which prevails among the people is such, generally speaking, as to afford pleasure to those who have the charge of them.

Waterloo.—With the exception of one, who has been suspended for immoral conduct, the habitual deportment of the Communicants appears to have been blameless. Their attainments in Christian Knowledge are but low at present, it being difficult to convey ideas to their minds through the medium of a strange language: yet their good conduct may be considered as an evidence that they understand something of that Holy Gospel which is preached among them.—It is matter of regret that there has been but little inquiry concerning the way of Salvation in the year past. Persons making such inquiries have received suitable assistance; and formerly meetings were held for this especial purpose; but evil having crept in, it has been thought advisable to discontinue them.—The general behaviour of the people at Public Worship is becoming and attentive.—The number of Children sent to school by their Parents, since they have been entirely dependent on them for support, is comparatively small. It is earnestly hoped, however, that, by the continuance of the means of instruction, and the gradual opening of their minds, the people will learn to estimate more justly the advantages afforded them.—It does not appear that the Children generally value instruction; nor are the symptoms of moral and intellectual improvement very numerous among them. Still, enough has been witnessed, in the case of some, to warrant the exercise of hope respecting others.—Marriage has been more honoured, in proportion as its obligations have been more insisted on. Where instances have occurred of persons living together in their country fashion without marriage, or violating their matrimonial engagements, they have been suitably admonished and corrected.—The advancement of the people in orderly and industrious habits, though not great, is yet very encouraging.

York.—The Communicants are generally regular in their attendance at the Lord's Table; and, with the exception of a few, conduct themselves as becomes their Christian Profession.—Inquiries are not unfrequently made concerning the Salvation which is in Christ Jesus. Six Adults have lately been received as Candidates for Baptism: they are instructed by one of the Communicants, who appears to be qualified for the duty by some measure of knowledge, and still more by the affectionate spirit which he manifests.—The general deportment of the people, while attending Divine Service, is serious and becoming.—The comparatively small number of Children born in the Village who attend school seems to indicate a degree of indifference respecting their instruction, on the part of the Parents. It is hoped, however, that the appointment of suitable Teachers will induce them to be more careful in this respect, as well as to shew a proper regard to those who instruct their Children*.—Marriage is generally observed, as to its outward form; but there are too often instances of misconduct among those who have entered into this honourable union, from which it may be inferred that its sacredness is not yet duly regarded. —The bulk of the people have not entirely laid aside their country fashions, such as, drumming, dancing, &c., by which they not unfrequently offend against good order. There is, however, a perceptible advancement among them in habits of industry.

Kent.—The attendance of the Communicants is tolerably regular, and their general conduct such as becomes their profession. A few, who had been excluded for misconduct, have been again admitted: their deportment clearly manifests the sincerity of their repentance.—But few appeared in the character of inquirers during the former part of the year. Recently, the attention of a considerable number seems to have been directed to Divine things; and a pleasing degree of diligence is manifested by them in attending Meetings for Social Prayer, in addition to the Public Services. Twenty-six have been received as Candidates for Baptism, who are in some measure instructed by two of the more-advanced Communicants, and afterward more fully by the Minister.—During a part of the year, there was reason to lament that the people discovered some indifference with respect to the solemnities of Public Worship. It is satisfactory to be able to state, that some improvement has taken place; the people having lately behaved with so much seriousness and apparent devotion, as to excite a hope that they had become more sensible of the value of their privileges.—Most of the Parents send their Children to school, when of a proper age; and appear to manifest a suitable regard for their Teachers.—Some of the Children evidently value instruction, and make considerable progress in learning: others manifest a careless spirit.—The people generally comply with the established form respecting Marriage, but seem too little to regard the spirit of the institution, complaints of misconduct among married persons being, not unfrequently, brought before the Superintendant. It seems, therefore, that the importance of marriage, and the sacredness of its obligations, need to be more strongly impressed upon their minds.—The people are advancing in orderly and industrious habits.

Bananas.—The carelessness of the greater part of the people on the subject of Religion, and their want of regard to Public Worship, were noticed in the Report for 1825. It is painful to state, that these evils have continued, and that they have greatly tended to check the efforts which for some time were made to reclaim the people from their wretched condition. In the former part of the year, Divine Service was held as often as the Minister appointed to take charge of this Station could conveniently visit it: the Congregation, on these occasions, was but small; the average attendance being 65 on Sundays, and 55 on Week-days. The visits of the Minister were about to be renewed, when the materials for this Report were sent in; the Superintendant being expected to connect himself more closely with the people, and to exercise a beneficial influence over them.—Fifty Children attended school at the commencement of the year. For several months, no return of the number under instruction has been received.

* Some addition has been made to the Schools; but, owing to the difficulty of obtaining well-qualified Teachers, and to the brevity of the time allowed for instruction, not much progress has been made.

It may not be improper to state here, that these Islands came into the possession of the British Government only about six or seven years ago; and that the population, at that time, consisted of a few Sherbros from the opposite coast, who had been previously in a state of slavery. The nature of the accessions which the population has since received, and the consequent character of the majority, may be inferred from the fact mentioned in the Report for 1825, that the principal Island is used as a place of banishment for such persons as have rendered themselves obnoxious to the Civil Power, by offences of less or greater magnitude.

Perhaps, when these things are considered, the obduracy of the people, and the other unfavourable circumstances mentioned above, will appear less surprising, though not less lamentable. Great, however, as are the obstacles to success which here present themselves, the instances which have occurred in other parts of the world, of benefits conferred upon individuals similarly circumstanced, are such as fully to warrant the continuance of all practicable exertions on behalf of the degraded population of these Islands.

Plantains.—In the year 1821, a small School was established here, with the assistance of the Society, by a member of the Family of the Caulkers, to whom the Islands belong. It is principally attended by the Sons and other Relatives of Chiefs from the opposite coast. The Schoolmaster, a younger member of the same family, manifests a commendable regard for the improvement of the Children under his care, and conducts Daily Worship with them. Several can repeat the Church Catechism, both in English and Bullom—the latter being their native tongue. The attention of some of the Scholars to the instructions they receive, and their becoming deportment, give hope that they may hereafter prove instruments of good to their countrymen. Their number has varied, at different times, from 41 to 24. Some having left school in order to learn mechanical employments, and a few having died, the number of those attending at Michaelmas 1826 was that last mentioned. The war with the Kussoos has more than once interrupted the proceedings of the School; but there is ground for hope that this will not occur in future.

Respecting the Temporal Condition of the Settlements, some notices will be found incorporated with the preceding statements. Further particulars are given in the following Table, which embraces a general view of the Population, &c. as reported at the close of the year 1826. If this Table be compared with that of the preceding year, it will be found that there has been an increase in the population of nearly 1600; and an addition of nearly half that amount to the persons employed in Agriculture. It might, perhaps, seem reasonable to expect a corresponding increase in the amount of produce sold during the year. In order, however, to obtain a correct view of this matter, it should be known, that the articles stated as sold form but a small part of what is actually raised by the people; being exclusively those which are purchased for the use of the Africans recently liberated from Slave Vessels; and of others, principally Children, liberated previously, but as yet unable to provide for themselves. It is obvious, therefore, that the quantity thus disposed of at either of the Settlements, during any given period, will be exactly in proportion to the number of new people sent thither within that period, or of individuals previously residing there, and still receiving rations of food; so that considerable variations may occur in the amount sold in different years, without at all affecting the question as to what measure of industry is observable among the Liberated Africans. Besides this, the present Governor, Sir Neil Campbell, with the view of reducing the expenditure of the Colony, has recently given directions that the Children hitherto supported by Government shall be placed under the care of such Adults as have been residing in the Settlements for a considerable time, making a small allowance for each, in lieu of issuing rations of food to them as before; and that the newly-arrived Africans shall be furnished with rations but for a very limited time, after which they are to provide for themselves. A diminution has consequently taken place in the quantity purchased by Government during the closing months of the year.

A statement of particulars respecting the produce sold to the Colonial Government during the year 1826 will now be given, as far as the imperfection of some of the Returns will allow. It should be noted, that those of Kissey, York, and Kent, embrace a period of about nine months only. This circumstance, together with those mentioned above, will help to account for the reduction observable in the Total Amount stated as sold, when compared with that of the preceding year.

In addition to the produce thus disposed of, a large proportion is sold, (partly at the Public Market in Freetown, and partly at the smaller Markets held in each Village,) consisting of

Arrow-root,	Peas,
Bananas,	Pine-apples,
Beans,	Pepper,
Cassadas,	——— Malaguetta,
Cocoas (or Eddoes),	——— Bird,
Cring-cree (or Calalue),	Plantains,
Ground-nuts,	Potatoes (sweet),
Maize,	Rice,
Ochras,	Soap (black),
Onions,	Sugar-canes,
Oranges,	Tomátas (or Bitter Apples),
Palm-oil,
Palm-wine,	Yams, &c.

It seems difficult to ascertain the quantity of these productions which is brought to market; but it is known that Rice and Yams, to the amount of 200 bushels each, were sold by the people of Charlotte, and 300 bushels of Yams, two tons of Rice, and 100 lb. of Arrow-root, by those of Leopold; there being also a considerable quantity of Cassada on hand at the latter Settlement.

The number of Gardens occupied by the Liberated Africans is given, in some instances, where exact Returns had not been received from the last Report. Each house has a piece of ground attached to it, intended for a garden; but the cultivation of this is sometimes neglected, when the people are under the necessity of going to a distance from the Village in search of employment. Thus, at Waterloo, only 200 gardens, being half the whole number, were regularly cultivated; the remainder belonging either to newly-settled people, or to Mechanics and Labourers employed in Freetown.

The Public Works, formerly carried on in the Settlements, not having been resumed, many who were then employed as Mechanics now cultivate the ground: of this description, there are 93 residing at Waterloo, who are accordingly classed as Agriculturists. The 170 Mechanics mentioned under the head of Regent, consist of 70 Masons, 60 Carpenters, and 40 Sawyers.

According to the plan pursued in the Report for 1825, it will now be proper to give some account of the course of events in Freetown. Here, however, owing to an illness with which the Rev. John Raban was visited about the middle of the year, and which continued during the remaining months, it will be necessary, for the most part, to speak in general terms only.

The exercise of the MINISTRY among the Europeans assembling at the Court-Room has been continued throughout the year with as much regularity as circumstances would allow; though some interruptions necessarily occurred, arising from the cause just mentioned. The Congregation, for several months, was nearly the same as reported at the close of 1825; about 200, including the Military, and a small number of Black and Coloured Persons, being present on Sunday Mornings. Some improvement was observed, during this period, in the external deportment of the Congregation; and it was hoped that some, at least, entered into the meaning of that excellent form of sound words, in which they professedly joined, while a considerable number seemed to lend an attentive ear to the Word of Life. During the rainy season, as in the preceding year, the attendance was very much reduced: after the commencement of the dry season, however, the Military resumed their attendance, and the Congregation nearly equalled that of the former part of the year. It is a subject of gratification to report, that some of the highest Individuals in the Colony have, of late, been present at the Services; and it is earnestly hoped that their example will be followed by many others.

Still the small proportion which the Europeans, who are in the habit of attending Public Worship, bear to the whole number residing in Freetown, to say nothing of the Black and Coloured Population, cannot be contemplated, by a Christian Mind, without mournful feelings; for whatever allowances may be made for various inconveniences connected with the place at present used for holding the Services, but faint hopes can be cherished respecting the Spiritual Safety of those who habitually neglect the opportunities afforded them of attending the Public Worship of Almighty God, and of listening to the declarations of His will.

These considerations, and others which might be mentioned, will not be overlooked by the serious Members of the Episcopal Church. They tend very strongly to shew the great desirableness (it may even be said, the absolute necessity) of making some effort to supply the deficiency mentioned in the former Report, of a suitable Place of Worship for those who are attached to that Church. Till such an Edifice is completed, a recurrence of the discouraging circumstances noted above may be expected; nor can there, humanly speaking, be any great and permanent improvement anticipated, in the state of Morals and Religion, while things remain as they are at present.

It affords some relief, after the view which has been taken, to consider the efforts made, by means of the COLONIAL SCHOOLS, to train up Children in virtuous habits, and to furnish them with Scriptural Knowledge, and with such other information as may be useful to them in after-life. These Schools were taken under the care of the Church Missionary Society at the commencement of the year 1818; and have since been conducted on the National System. On the whole, they have been well attended, though not without considerable irregularity, by Children almost exclusively of the Black and Coloured Population, and also by Adults. The latter, however, have very much declined in numbers for the last two or three years; the hours of labour now including that time which was formerly given to instruction. The average number of Boys and Girls, with a few Adults, attending toward the close of 1825, was 251: at the corresponding period of 1826, it had increased to 321; while the total number on the Books was 566.

The frequent removal of the European Teachers sent out to superintend these Schools has interfered with some of the arrangements which seemed calculated to promote their prosperity, and has also increased the difficulty of giving due prominence to Religious Instruction; yet considerable efforts have been made to conduct the Schools in the best manner which the case would allow; and there is ground to conclude, that these efforts have operated beneficially on the rising generation. Very recently, some further arrangements have been made, under the auspices of His Excellency the Governor, which promise to extend the operation of these Schools; and it is sincerely hoped, that the patronage thus bestowed upon them will be amply recompensed by the measure of success which it may please a Gracious Providence to grant to exertions so important and so benevolent.

There has been considerable encouragement, in continuing during the year, with some unavoidable interruptions, the Services intended more especially for the benefit of the Black Population. A small Chapel, erected for their use, was opened in the month of April; the attendance on which, though not numerous, has been tolerably steady. The Services are on Sunday Evening and Wednesday Evening. The Sunday Congregation may be stated, on an average, at 60; that of the Week-day at 30. The attainments of the people, in Christian Knowledge, are generally small; but their attentive and devout behaviour at Public Worship, and the seriousness with which they listen to the preaching of the Word, seem to prove that there exists among them a real desire to profit by the Ordinances of Religion.

Two of the Communicants have given pain by their misconduct, and have consequently been suspended. The remainder, it is believed, have demeaned themselves in a manner becoming their profession. They appear much attached to the Minister; and willingly defray, out of their scanty means, the expenses necessarily connected with an Evening Service.

In conclusion, a reference may be permitted to some observations formerly made, at the close of the Report for 1825, respecting the gradual manner in which Truth may be expected to make its way among an imperfectly-civilized people. The sentiments there expressed have not been altered, but rather confirmed, by the lapse of another year, and the measure of experience which it supplies.

Some of the peculiar circumstances connected with the Colony have already been adverted to, so far as they effect Missionary Undertakings. It is not intended to dwell upon them here; but only to venture a hint, as to the propriety of allowing them to have their due weight, in judging of the proceedings now reported, and of the future prospects of the Mission.

Though it may be granted that there are features of a somewhat forbidding cast, in the retrospect which has now been taken; still it is maintained that there are others of a more attractive kind, which should not be overlooked. Whatever impatience or worldly policy may suggest, nothing, it is conceived, has yet transpired, which ought to discourage the Society from a continuance of its efforts, or which would justify a relaxation of them in the slightest degree. The husbandman is not easily induced to abandon the exertions which he is making to improve any particular spot of ground; but generally perseveres, even amidst many unfavourable appearances, until he either sees the reward of his labours, in a plentiful harvest, or obtains full proof that the spot which he has chosen is irreclaimably barren. The application of this is obvious: if the means of improvement, adopted in the Mission, are acknowledged to be suitable to the end proposed, and its operations are conducted with some degree of prudence and diligence, would it be wise or justifiable to relinquish these endeavours, because they are not immediately productive of all the good that we could desire? Rather, it is the part of wisdom and duty resolutely to maintain our standing, and patiently to continue in the field of labour, with the cheering hope that improvement will at length take place; or, at least, to persevere until circumstances shall arise which absolutely forbid such exertions, or entirely destroy all rational expectation of ultimate benefit. If, indeed, no fruit whatever had been gathered as the recompence of past labours, and if the prospect of future success were far less satisfactory than it is, these things surely should not soon deter from an enterprise which so evidently bears the stamp of Benevolence; and which, moreover, aims to impart benefits of the highest order to an injured race of men, whose claims on our justice, as well as our compassion, have been too little regarded.

To the sincere Christian, it can only be necessary to add, that such efforts are sanctioned by the example of the Apostles and other primitive Teachers of Christianity; that they are required by the last command of the Saviour Himself; and that He has engaged to crown them, eventually, with success, in that degree which to His wisdom shall seem good.

Although, therefore, some events have occurred, in the past year, which cannot be reviewed without sorrow; yet it is considered, that those which are of a different nature more than counterbalance them. It appears, further—an inference warranted by facts—that those Heavenly Influences, which have been alluded to as indispensably necessary to success, have already, in some measure, been vouchsafed. The degree in which these may be hereafter bestowed will probably depend much on the earnestness, humility, and faith, which mark the petitions offered up for them, to that Almighty Lord who is more ready to impart blessings to His Servants than an earthly parent is to give good things to his children; and who is, likewise, able to do exceeding abundantly above all that they ask or think.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, ON THE DEATH OF BISHOP HEBER, FOR FOUNDING TWO THEOLOGICAL SCHOLARSHIPS IN BISHOP'S COLLEGE, CALCUTTA; WITH A MEMORIAL TO GOVERNMENT FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF MORE THAN ONE PRELATE TO INDIA.——DEC. 1826.

At the Monthly Meeting of the Committee, held at the Society's House in Salisbury Square on the 11th of December instant, the Right Hon. Admiral Lord Gambier, G.C.B., President of the Society, in the Chair, it was unanimously resolved, on the Motion of the Right Hon. Charles Grant, M.P., one of the Vice-Presidents, seconded by the Treasurer, John Thornton, Esq., to make the Annual Grant of One Thousand Pounds for the Year 1826 to Bishop's College, Calcutta; and the Committee of the Society's Auxiliary in Calcutta was requested to apply that Grant, and such a portion of former Grants as might not have been appropriated and might be requisite for the purpose, in founding Two Theological Scholarships in the said College, for the education of Missionaries; such Scholarships to bear the name of "Bishop Heber's Church Missionary Scholarships:" the Committee being desirous thereby to give a permanent testimony of the high regard cherished by the Society for the memory of Bishop Heber.

At a Special Meeting of the Committee, held at Freemasons'

Tavern, at Twelve o'Clock on the 15th of December instant, the Right Hon. the President in the Chair, the said Resolution was confirmed.

At an Open Meeting of the Committee, convened for One o'Clock of the same day, in order to consider in what manner it might be proper to notice the lamented death of the late Lord Bishop of Calcutta, the following Minutes and Resolutions were adopted:—

The Committee being anxious to record their deep feelings of regret and grief occasioned by the death of the late Bishop of Calcutta, on the Motion of the Rev. T. T. Thomason, M.A., Chaplain of the Hon. the East-India Company on the Bengal Establishment, seconded by the Right Hon. Charles Grant, M.P., it was

That while this Committee would bow with submission to the will of Almighty God, they cannot but deeply deplore the loss which this Society and the Christian Church at large have sustained by the death of the late Right Rev. Reginald Heber, Lord Bishop of Calcutta; and, whilst they contemplate with gratitude to the "Giver of all goodness" the strong faith, ardent zeal, unaffected humility, universal love, and incessant labours, of this distinguished Prelate, terminating only with his life, they feel themselves peculiarly bound to commemorate his attachment to the Cause of Missions, and more especially his wise and parental superintendence of the Missionaries of this Society labouring within his Diocese, by whom they trust, no less than by themselves, that he will ever be remembered as a bright example of those graces which most eminently adorn a Christian Prelate.

It appearing to this Committee that the establishment of the English Episcopacy in India has been attended with the most beneficial consequences in reference to both Europeans and Natives, but that its increasing cares will press too heavily on any one Prelate, on the Motion of Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart., seconded by Colonel Sandys, it was

That while the Committee beg to express, on behalf of the Society, their respectful and grateful acknowledgments to His Majesty's Government and to the Court of Directors of the Hon. the East-India Company for the support which they have given to the Establishment of Episcopacy in India, they unite their humble requests with those of the Venerable Societies for Propagating the Gospel and for Promoting Christian Knowledge for the appointment of such a number of Prelates as may be competent to the discharge of the weighty and increased duties of the Episcopate in India.

A Memorial grounded on the foregoing Resolution having been read, on the Motion of Lieut.-Colonel Phipps, seconded by the Treasurer, it was

That the Memorial which has been read be approved; and that a copy thereof be presented to the Right Hon. the Earl of Liverpool, First Lord Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury; to the Right Hon. C. W. Wynne, President of the Board of Controul; and to the Chairman of the Court of Directors of the Hon. the East-India Company.

The Memorial which has been since presented, is here subjoined:—

THE MEMORIAL OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST,

Humbly Sheweth—

That your Memorialists have now, for nearly twenty years, been engaged in promoting the knowledge of the Christian Religion in India—

That they have ever been anxious to conduct their proceedings in conformity with the Doctrines and Discipline of the United Church of England and Ireland—

That, before the last Renewal of the Charter of the East-India Company, they requested the late Rev.

Dr. Claudius Buchanan to urge on the Public and the Legislature the expediency and necessity of a general Colonial Establishment; in consequence of which he published his Work entitled "Colonial Ecclesiastical Establishment," the first edition of which was printed and distributed, by means of your Memorialists, among the Members of both Houses of Parliament—

That your Memorialists regarded, with gratitude and joy, the provision made in the new Charter granted to the East-India Company, for enabling the Crown to constitute a Bishopric in India—

That, with similar feelings, they rejoiced in the formation of Bishop's College at Calcutta, for the education of Missionaries to the Natives of India; and contributed 5000*l.* toward its erection, having made also successive Annual Grants, amounting in the whole to 5000*l.* more, in support of the College—

That they have now established Missionary Stations—in the Presidency of Bengal; at Calcutta, Burdwan, Buxar, Gorruckpore, Benares, Chunar, Allahabad, Cawnpore, Agra, Meerut, and Delhi—in the Presidency of Madras; at Madras, Poonamallee, Mayaveram, Palamcottah, Cotym, Allepie, Cochin, Tellicherry, and Nellore—in the Presidency of Bombay; at Bombay, and Basseen in the North Concan—in the Island of Ceylon; at Cotta, Candy, Baddagame, and Nellore—

That, in these Stations, there are now Twenty-eight Missionaries, who have received Episcopal Orders in the United Church, and who are labouring to bring the Heathen to embrace the Christian Faith—

That these Missionaries were licensed by the late Bishop of Calcutta, were received under his Episcopal Jurisdiction, and were summoned by the Bishop to the Visitation of his Clergy—

That very great and valuable benefits resulted from the visits which the Bishop made to the Stations of the Society; his paternal counsels and exhortations, and his judicious instruction in various difficulties which had occurred, eminently tending to promote the objects of your Memorialists, and to strengthen and confirm the Missionaries in their arduous labours—

That the Bishop was on his way to visit the Mission of the Society in Travancore, when it pleased Almighty God to call this revered and beloved Prelate to his heavenly reward—

That there is sufficient reason to believe, that both Bishop Middleton and Bishop Heber, oppressed by the overwhelming duties of their responsible situation, sacrificed their lives in the performance of duties which they were anxious conscientiously to discharge—

That your Memorialists, persuaded that it is impracticable for any one Bishop duly to superintend so vast a charge, and deeply sensible of the great advantages which their own Missionaries have received from the personal visit of the lamented Bishop Heber, cannot refrain from joining the Incorporated Society for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and the Venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, in humbly representing the importance of appointing more than one Bishop to so immense a Diocese—

That your Memorialists, in making this representation, feel it to be their duty at the same time respectfully and gratefully to acknowledge the support already given to the Establishment of Episcopacy in India, by His Majesty's Government and by the Court of Directors of the Hon. East-India Company.

The Committee think the present a fit occasion on which to trace the Progress and Advantages of the Society's connection with Bishop's College. That connection has been sanctioned and approved at various Annual Meetings of the General Body, and has been hailed with joy throughout the country, and by the Society's Friends and Labourers in India, where it has already produced and promises still to produce the most salutary effects on its great design.

At the ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN 1820, the Committee made the following statement:—

They report to the Meeting, that they have cordially embraced an opportunity of tendering the assistance of the Society to the important design of the Lord Bishop of Calcutta for the establishment of a Mission College near Calcutta. The wisdom of his Lordship's plan commended itself to every competent judge. The Committee could not witness without gratitude the general interest manifesting itself throughout the kingdom in favour of the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts; and contemplated with pleasure the readiness with which it had adopted this Proposal of the Bishop of Calcutta, and the promptitude with which the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge had agreed to support the same design—5000*l.* of the funds of each Institution having been devoted to this object. Desirous of co-operating in the same great and common Cause, your Committee made a like Grant of 5000*l.* for the same purpose; and empowered the Society's Corresponding Committee at Calcutta to express to his Lordship its respectful acknowledgments of the enlarged views so eminently displayed in his plans for promoting the Conversion of the Native Population of India; and to request that he would be pleased to accept the said sum of 5000*l.* in furtherance of his object.

Your Committee cannot quit this subject without noticing, that the Associations in all parts of the country have expressed their cordial joy in this measure, as uniting the Members of the Church in pursuit of one great common object, by means ably conceived and admirably adapted to the present and growing wants of India.

In making this communication to the Bishop, the Society's Committee at Calcutta thus express their own cordial concurrence—

It cannot be necessary to add the expression of our high satisfaction, in being the organ of such a communication. Our own feelings are entirely in unison with those of the Society for whom we have the honour to act; and we cordially rejoice in the Christian zeal and liberality with which your Lordship's grand Missionary measures have been encouraged.

The Bishop in his reply, among other expressions of a similar purport, says—

I thankfully accept, and will, with the Divine Blessing on my endeavours and purposes, faithfully apply this munificent Donation.

In the Report delivered at the TWENTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY, the sentiments of the Calcutta Committee are thus stated—

With these views and feelings of the importance of Education to render the Natives themselves efficient instruments of good to their countrymen, the Committee cannot but express their admiration of the plan of a Missionary College, about to be established by the Lord Bishop of Calcutta. An Institution of this kind is an acknowledged desideratum, in order to the efficiency and permanency of Missionary Labours in India. It therefore afforded the Committee a high gratification, to be the medium of communicating to the Bishop from the Parent Society the offer of 5000*l.* toward the accomplishment of his enlightened plans, which gratification was heightened by the cordial manner in which his Lordship was pleased to express his acceptance of the proffered assistance.

At the TWENTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY it was stated—

The Committee would call the attention of the Meeting to the Bishop's College, at Calcutta. Of the cordial manner, in which the Bishop was pleased to express his acceptance of the Grant of 5000*l.* the Society is already apprised. Your Committee have now to state, that, influenced by his Lordship's just and forcible appeal for support to the College, they have placed at his disposal the sum of 1000*l.*, as a contribution from the Society for the year 1822. And they have authorised the Corresponding Committee at Calcutta to draw for such sum, immediately on his Lordship's acceptance of the same; and also to express to his Lordship the confident expectation of the Committee, that, from the cordial satisfaction manifested by the Members of the Society, throughout the United Kingdom, at the former Grant of 5000*l.* toward the erection of the College, their liberality will enable the Committee to appropriate a like sum of 1000*l.* annually, in aid of its objects.

This First Annual Grant of 1000*l.* was accordingly vested in Government Securities at the disposal of the Bishop; but the lamented death of that Prelate occurring soon after information of the Grant had reached India, it was not drawn for; but, in the TWENTY-FOURTH REPORT the subject is thus resumed:—

It was stated in the Twenty-second Report, that the Committee had placed the sum of 1000*l.* at the disposal of the late Bishop of Calcutta, for the use of Bishop's College: this was to be considered as a Grant for the year 1822; and a confident expectation was expressed, that the liberality of the Members of the Society would enable the Committee to appropriate a like sum annually to the benefit of the College.

Information of this Vote was received in India but a short time before the death of the Bishop. The Statutes of the College not having arrived from England, his Lordship declined the acceptance of the Grant on an honourable principle, fully explained in the following extract of a Letter from him to the Corresponding Committee, dated May 19, 1822—

"It is gratifying to me to believe that the design of the College continues to be approved, when its plan of operation has been somewhat more developed. This second munificent Vote of your Society affords strong evidence to that effect; and I would not be thought to be insensible to their distinguished liberality, if I forbear to consider this gift definitely as a part of the College Resources, till the system under which the Institution will be administered shall have been completely settled and clearly understood. That system, as I conclude, will be sufficiently detailed in the College Statutes. Your Society express their desire to educate Students in the College. I cannot therefore, consistently with correct feeling, though no stipulation is attached to the Grant, proceed to appropriate it, until it shall be known with certainty that their wishes on this head may be justified, and what will be finally the conditions of admission. You may, however, be assured that a copy of the Statutes shall be forwarded for your information whenever they shall be received from England; and I have reason to expect them very soon."

The Bishop's lamented death occurring a few weeks after the date of this Letter, no further steps were taken in India in reference to the Grant.

On the appointment of the Rev. Dr. Heber to the vacant See, the Committee placed at his Lordship's disposal the sum of 1000*l.* above mentioned, voted to the College for 1822; with a request that he would be pleased to appropriate it in such manner as might seem most expedient, and would apprise the Committee in what way, in his Lordship's judgment, the Society could hereafter most effectually render assistance to the College—the Statutes having been framed with that wisdom and liberality, which affords opportunity, both to the Local Governments and the Religious Societies connected with the United Church, of co-operating with the College to the attainment of its great ends.

His Lordship was present at the Monthly Meeting of the Committee of the Church Missionary Society, held on Monday the 9th of June 1823; and stated that he wished to return his thanks to the Committee for the confidence reposed in him, by placing at his disposal the sum of 1000*l.* which had been voted to Bishop's College for 1822: he had reason to believe that the sum might be most advantageously applied in placing the Printing Department of the College on an efficient footing; but, on his arrival at Calcutta, he would confer on the best appropriation of this sum with the Society's Corresponding Committee, and would hereafter point out what might appear to be the most promising way in which the Society could promote the objects of the College.

In addition to the Annual Grant for 1822, Grants of the like sum of One Thousand Pounds have been successively made for the years 1823, 1824, and 1825, and now, as before stated, for 1826.

The Committee having thus traced the progress of the Society's connection with Bishop's College, will now state the Advantages resulting therefrom.

In estimating the importance of the Society Grants to Bishop's College, it should be remembered, that the Society has sufficient grounds for contributing to its support, in the important bearing which the College has on the propagation of the Gospel in India, even if the Society itself derived no direct advantages from the College. It is no slight ground of satisfaction to the Members, that the Society has been enabled to take an efficient share in the establishment and support of that very Institution, which the Cause of Christianity most needed in India: they may reflect with gratitude on its having been the means of giving that Institution, according to the acknowledgment of its able Founder, a degree of stability and a range of operation, which it could not otherwise have at that time acquired; and of having, by its Annual Grants, according to the declaration of the lamented Bishop Heber, contributed, at very seasonable times, to its support and efficiency.

But, when the necessity under which the Society lies of maintaining a close connection with the College is duly understood and considered, the present friendly relation which subsists between the Society and the College must be viewed with thankfulness to God.

The Society's Grants have conciliated a degree of confidence in its motives and designs, which, in the first instance, was manifested by a Code of Statutes, which liberally offered to all the Church Societies the means of maintaining their respective independence, while it enabled them to co-operate for their common end; and which has further given the Society every reasonable prospect of exercising its due portion of influence in the future concerns of the College, so far as its own objects and interests may require.

It may be safely affirmed, that the connection established and cherished by these Grants with the College, and through the College with the Episcopate, has lain the foundation for the Society's acting hereafter in India with far more economy and effect than it could otherwise have done: for the ordinary course appointed for all Native Missionaries (and it is to such Missionaries that every Society must ultimately look for the wide extension of its Missions) is, that they shall be educated in the College and receive Ordination at the Bishop's hand. No plan has been devised so likely, under the Divine Favour, to endue Native Missionaries with the requisite qualifications as Bishop's College. The Youths, who are under preparation in the Society's Seminaries throughout India, can no where else so advantageously acquire the necessary attainments for Holy Orders as in the College. When so qualified, and going forth with the blessing of God on their labours, they will carry on the Society's concerns in India to an extent otherwise impracticable.

Had the Society, indeed, entertained any reserves, in placing its Missions in close connection with the Bishop and in full subordination to his jurisdiction, it could not indulge those reserves; for the Law has refused to it as a Church Society any proper footing for consistent action in India, but as in due subjection to the Episcopate. But the Society had no such reserves: on the contrary, so fully persuaded were its respective Committees, that the administration of the Episcopal Authority in India would have a most salutary bearing, under the blessing of God, on its labours in that country, that every practicable measure was early adopted for placing its Missions in close connection with the Episcopate.

Some objections were, at first, felt to the Society's pledging itself to make Annual Grants; even under the restrictions under which that pledge is given, of its being in a capacity to make such Grants: these objections proceeded on the ground, that, in that early stage, there was no certainty that the College Statutes would be so framed as to give the Society the means of coming into proper connection with the College: but the making of these Grants was urged, on the consideration of its being the duty of the Society to shew its readiness to co-operate in such a promising plan, and to manifest a reasonable confidence in the measures of persons of such just weight and authority: and the event has shewn that this was the right view of the case; as there is no reason to doubt but the conduct of the Society in making its Grants was the means of securing to it the advantageous position for Missionary labour in which it now stands. Had Bishop Heber, with all his good-will to the Society, found no such connection formed between the Society and the College as now happily exists, but that distance and suspicion in the College toward the Society which must have resulted from its having declined to take its share in supporting that Institution with the two Venerable Societies for Propagating the Gospel and for Promoting Christian Knowledge, he must have withheld from it his countenance; for it is distinctly known to have been the conviction, on his part, before he went to India, of the Society's having done every thing in its power to act in connection with Bishop Middleton's plans, which confirmed and settled his attachment to the Society: and this very proceeding, with the subsequent measures of the Society, enabled Bishop Heber to attain an object very near his heart—that of the different Societies connected with the Church meeting and co-operating on common ground: that friendly union being formed and cherished, by means of the College, which is desirable among Members of the same Church at all times and in every place, but incalculably important in the presence of the Heathen.

By the Statutes of the College, the Society's Missionaries will be allowed the privilege, with the concurrence of the proper Authorities, of receiving education at its own expense. Such Students as may be appointed to Scholarships will, of course, be supported by the income of such Scholarships. In the case of Scholarships founded by the Society, it will have the right of presenting the first beneficiary; but the subsequent appointments are vested, at present, by the Statutes, in the Bishop. These Scholarships will, however, for ever bear the name of the Society; and there is every reasonable ground to expect that future Bishops will appoint to them, in succession, such competent candidates as may be recommended by the Society. It would unquestionably be desirable, that all right of nomination in future times, subject of course to the Bishop's approval, should vest in the Society. Great embarrassment might arise from allowing the heirs and representatives of a private Benefactor to present in perpetuity to a Scholarship founded by him; but no inconvenience could attend the grant of such nominations to the Scholarships founded by Public Bodies, as those Bodies have a continued and perpetuated existence: on the contrary, if the Statutes were to be so modified as to allow Public Bodies to nominate in perpetuity, subject to the Bishop's approval, this modification would doubtless lead to a large increase of endowments. The Committee have reason to know that such an arrangement was desired by Bishop Heber; and they understand that he meant, had his life been spared, to recommend the adoption of some modification of this nature. Whether, indeed, the Society should or should not obtain such future nomination as is here referred to, there is abundant ground to believe, that the Scholarships which it has already founded and may hereafter found will supply a succession of Labourers, far better qualified for its work in India, than the generality of Missionaries who can be sent out from this country, and at one-third of the charge at which they could be sent from home, while their annual maintenance will perhaps not be one half of that of European Missionaries.

The advantages of the College to the Society, in respect of the reception of its Students, cannot at all be estimated by what has taken place; for the small number of the Society's Students has arisen in part from its representatives not yet having fit and proper persons to offer for admission, and in part from the College not being ready till lately to receive any considerable number of Students.

The Society has now distinctly and repeatedly given Bishop's College a claim on its funds for an Annual Grant of One Thousand Pounds—unless, on the one hand, as is expressly stated, its funds should be in such a state as to disable it from making such Grant; or, on the other, as is in the nature of the case implied, but cannot be anticipated, the College should so conduct itself toward the Society or in respect of its own professed objects, as to render it the duty of the Society to withhold the contribution. In the application, however, of such Grants, it must be considered, that there are various ways, in which they may be advantageously expended for the promotion of the Common Cause. The Translation and Printing of the Scriptures and Liturgy would alone employ with advantage a much larger sum than the Annual Thousand Pounds of the Society, should the Society wish to appropriate, at any time, the whole or any part of the Annual Grant to this specific object.

Consistency of principle, efficiency of action, and economy of both resources and life, are greatly dependent, in reference to the Society's labours in India, on its continued and cordial connection with Bishop's College: and the Committee cannot therefore but recognise, with humble gratitude, the hand of God in the present aspect of the Society's concerns in India; and they fervently pray that the Great Head of the Church would pour down the abundant influences of the Holy Spirit, on these and all other designs of His Servants to promote the establishment of His Kingdom among men.

By Order of the Committee,

BISHOP HEBER'S LETTER TO THE CHURCH MISSIONARIES IN CEYLON.

MY REVEREND BRETHREN—

HAVING been consulted by you and other Clergy of this Archdeaconry on the propriety of engaging with Missionaries of other Religious Sects in solemn conferences on topics connected with your work among the Heathen, such as are now statedly holden at Jaffna and at this place, I have first to express my thankfulness to God for the brotherly and tolerant spirit, which, since my arrival in the Island, I have noticed among those, who, with less or greater differences of opinion and amid discrepancies of doctrine and discipline abundantly to be deplored, yet hold, as I am persuaded, the same faith in the Cross, and shall be found, as I trust, in the Last Day, on the same Rock of Salvation. Nor am I less thankful to the Giver of all good things, for the affectionate and orderly spirit which I find in you, my Brethren; and which has led you, voluntarily, to submit a question, in which your hearts, as I have reason to believe, are much engaged, to the counsel of your Ordinary. May God continue and increase this mutual confidence between us, and conduct it and all things else to His glory and our salvation!

The Meeting in question has been described to me as a Conference of Ministers and Missionaries, in a certain district, held in each other's house, in rotation; attended by the Ministers or Missionaries themselves, their Wives and Families, and occasionally by devout Laymen from the vicinity. These Meetings are described as beginning and ending with prayer—led, indifferently, by Ministers, of different sects or by their lay friends, but not by the females; and as broken by hymns, in which all present join. The remainder of the time is occupied, by a friendly meal together—in the comparison, by the Missionaries, of the different encouragements and obstacles which they meet with among the Heathen—and in discussion of the best means by which their common work may be forwarded. It appears that this practice commenced at Jaffna, under circumstances which made it very desirable for the Missionaries of the English Church, not only to live on friendly and courteous terms with the Missionaries sent from America, but to profit by the experience and example of these Missionaries in their manner of addressing the Heathen. And it appears also that these Conferences have been strictly private and domestic; and that there has been no interchange or confusion of the public or appropriate functions of the Christian Ministry, between yourselves and the friends who unhappily differ from you in points of Church Discipline. Under such circumstances, it is probable, that, by God's blessing, many advantages may have arisen to you all from these conferences; and, without inquiring whether these advantages might have been, in the first instance, attainable, in a manner less liable to inconvenience or misrepresentation, I am happy that I do not think it necessary to advise their cessation now they are established, and that your dereliction of them might greatly interrupt the charitable terms on which you now live with your neighbours. There are, however, some serious dangers to which such Meetings are liable, against which it is my duty to caution you, and by avoiding which you may keep your intercourse with your fellow-labourers, as now, always harmless and unblamed.

The first of these is the risk of levelling, in the eyes of others, or even in your own, the peculiar claims to attention on the part of men, and the peculiar hopes of grace and blessing from the Most High, which, as we believe, are possessed by the holders of an Apostolic Commission over those whose call to the Ministry is less regular, though their labours are no less sincere. God forbid, my Brethren, that I should teach you to think, on this account, highly of yourselves! Far otherwise. This sense of the advantages which we enjoy should humble us to the dust, when we bethink us, who we are; and what we ought to be—who have received the Spirit of God by the dispensation of a long line of Saints and Martyrs—who are called to follow the steps of Ridley, Hooper, Latimer, Rowland Taylor, and Henry Martyn—and who are, by the external dispensation, at least, of Providence, the inheritors of that grace which fell on St. Paul. But humbly, yea meanly, as we are bound to think of ourselves, we must not appear to undervalue our Apostolic bond of union; and the more so here in India, inasmuch as it is the great link which binds us to the ancient Syrian Church, and one principal means whereby we hope, with the blessing of our Master, to effect its gradual reformation. The neglect or abandonment, or apparent abandonment, of this principle, is the first danger which I apprehend to be incidental to such Meetings as have been described. To guard against it, an additional care and caution will be desirable, in your steady adherence, wherever this is practicable, to the external ceremonies and canonical observances of our Church; and, without estranging yourselves from your Dissenting Friends, by cultivating a yet closer union with those who are, properly speaking, your Brother Clergy. With this view, I would recommend, not only the measures which I have lately suggested of frequent meetings of the Clergy of this Archdeaconry for the purposes of mutual counsel and comfort, but a readiness on your part who are Missionaries to officiate whenever you are invited, and can do it without neglect of your peculiar functions, in the Churches of the Colony, and in rendering assistance to the Chaplains: by this occasional attention (for, for many reasons, I would have it occasional only) to the spiritual wants of your own Countrymen, several important ends will be obtained—you will yourselves derive advantage from keeping up the habit of English Composition and public-speaking—you will endear yourselves to your Brethren and Countrymen by the services which you will render them—and, above all, you will identify yourselves in the eyes of all men with the Established Church, and distinguish yourselves from those other Preachers whom that Church cannot consistently recognise.

Another precaution, which occurs to me as desirable, against the risk to which I have alluded, is, that it be perfectly understood that the Meetings are for the discussion of such topics only, as belong to your distinct functions as Missionaries to the Heathen. For this reason I would recommend that the Meetings be confined to Missionaries only, with their families; and such devout Laymen (for I am unwilling to damp or seem to discountenance their laudable zeal) who have already joined themselves to your number. The other Clergy of the Archdeaconry will find, I conceive, a sufficient bond of union and source of mutual advice and comfort in the CLERICAL MEETING. There are other inconveniences and improprieties incidental to what are usually called Prayer Meetings, which have led to their rejection by the great majority of the Church of England; and, among the rest, by some excellent men, whom the conduct pursued by those with whom their chief intimacies lay would have naturally inclined to favour them. I mean, among others, the late Mr. Scott of Aston Sandford, and the late Mr. Robinson of St. Mary's Leicester. Such is the practice reprobated by the Apostle, of a number of persons coming together, with each his Psalm, his Prayer, his Exhortation; the effect of which is not only often confusion, but, what is worse than confusion—self-conceit and rivalry, each labouring to excel his brother in the choice of his expressions and the outward earnestness of his address—and the bad effects of emulation mixing with actions, in which, of all others, humility and forgetfulness of self are necessary. Such, too, is that warmth of feeling and language, derived rather from imitation than conviction, which, under the circumstances which I have mentioned, are apt to degenerate into enthusiastic excitement or irreverent familiarity.

And though it is only due both to yourselves, my Brethren, and to your Dissenting Fellow-labourers, to state that all which I have seen or heard of you sets me at ease on these subjects so far as you are concerned, yet it will be well for you to take care, lest, by setting an example of such an institution in your own persons, you encourage less-instructed individuals among the Laity to adopt a practice, which, in their case, has almost always, I believe, been injurious. It is on this account, chiefly, that, with no feelings of disrespect or suspicion toward the excellent Laymen who, as I understand, have joined your Society, I would recommend, if my counsel has any weight, (and I offer it as my counsel only,) that, though there is no impropriety in their taking their turns in reading the Scriptures, and mingling in the discussions which arise on the subjects connected with your conference, they would abstain from leading the Society in prayer, except when the Meeting is held in one of their own houses, and when, as Master of the Family, they may consistently offer up what will then be their FAMILY DEVOTIONS.

I would, lastly, recommend to you earnestly, that both your discussions and your prayers have, as their leading object, the success of Missions, and the means whereby Missions may, with God's blessing, be rendered successful; and that you would deviate as little as possible into other fields of Ecclesiastical or Christian Inquiry.

With these precautions, I trust that unmingled good may, through His blessing, who is the God of Peace and Order, emanate from your religious conferences.

With reference to the employment of Laymen to officiate in your own Congregations, I would say, that, where a Missionary is himself as yet unable to read Prayers or preach in the language of his hearers, he may unquestionably employ a Native Assistant to do both; provided the Prayers are those of our Church, and the Discourse a translation from his own dictation or writing. The use of Interpreters is not only sanctioned by the necessity of the case, but by the express authority of Scripture and Ecclesiastical History. And even where this necessity has not existed, but where any convenience has been obtained either by Priest or people, it has been always the custom of the Church to admit Lay Catechists (under the direction of the Minister) to read the Scriptures, to give out Psalms, to repeat the Creeds, and even (when any convenience results from it) the Litany, down to the Lord's Prayer, and the following Collects, which the Rubric assigns to the Priest. In the absence of an Ordained Minister, it is still more certain, that any qualified persons may lead the devotions of the Church. It is hardly necessary to observe, that, both in this and the preceding case, the Absolution must not be read, nor must the Sacraments be administered, by any but the regularly Ordained Minister.

To your questions respecting Baptism, I reply—

1st—We are not, as I conceive, allowed to baptize the infant child of Heathen Parents, when there is reason to fear that such child will be brought up in Heathenism.

2d—We may not even baptize the infant child of Heathen Parents on the promise of such Parents to procure for it a Christian Education, unless security of some kind is actually given for its adoption, and removal from its Parents' corrupt example, by its Sponsors, or some other Christian.

3d—We may, I apprehend, baptize the children of a Christian Father by a Heathen Mother, though they are living together UNMARRIED, provided the Father declares his intention of giving his child a Christian Education, and there are sufficient Sponsors to add their promise to that of the Parent. My reason for this decision is, that, as no professed Christian (however wicked his life) is beyond the outward Means of Grace, and the Lord may, for all we know, have still merciful purposes concerning him, so we cannot, for the father's sin, exclude the child from that promise which is made to the children and the children's children of Believers. But, where the Mother is Christian, and not the Father, it is doubtful whether she may have sufficient property in, or authority over, her child, to ensure it a Christian bringing-up. Nor is it a point on which the promise of a Heathen Father can be received as sufficient: its actual adoption, therefore, by some Christian Friend or Sponsor must, in this last case, be stipulated for.

4th—The same principle appears to apply to cases when one only of a MARRIED couple is a professing Christian; though here some latitude of discretion may be allowed—in case of danger of death, of extreme maternal solicitude, of known good character on the Believing Mother's side, and the known probability that may exist that her wishes and the endeavours of the Sponsors will not be frustrated in her infant's education.

5th—The case of Nominal Christians notoriously addicted to Heathen Practices must depend, in part, on the nature and extent of the evil; and still more on the character and sufficiency of the Sponsors. Mere idolatrous or superstitious habits in the Parents, if not attended with open apostacy, cannot exclude the Infant, when properly vouched for from another quarter. The Parent, however blinded and sinful, has not lost the external privileges of Christianity; and the Infant cannot be deprived of a privilege which the Parent has not forfeited.

6th—The same rule will apply yet more strongly to Christians of whom we know no further harm, than their ignorance and neglect of Public Worship.

7th—It will have been already seen, that we have no right to refuse Baptism to Children actually adopted by Christians, provided those or other Christians become their securities.

8th—With regard to the case of children thus adopted, when past the age of six years, and on the marks of conversion which may then be required in them, it appears, that, at this age, a child, who has not, from its earliest infancy enjoyed a Christian Education, can seldom know much of Christianity. Such may be admitted, as Infants, with proper Sponsors; and it may very often be desirable thus to admit them. It is not easy to fix an age at which infancy ceases; which must depend on intellect, opportunity, and many other considerations. In "subjecto capaci," conversion is, doubtless, required; and where capacity may be soon expected, it is generally desirable to wait. But, in cases of sickness, or where any good and charitable end is answered by the immediate baptism of such children, and where (as before) sufficient securities are present, it appears that we are not warranted in denying them God's Ordinance.

9th—The Church of Rome, though grievously corrupted, is nevertheless a part of the Visible Church of Christ: we may not, therefore, repel the children of such parents from Baptism, if they are vouched for by their Sponsors in the words of our Service; which, it may be noticed, are wisely so framed, as to contain nothing but those points on which all Christians are engaged. The direction at the end to teach our Church Catechism, is a counsel from us to the Sponsors—no engagement entered into by them. It follows, that we are not to refuse Baptism to the children of Roman-Catholic Parents, with sufficient Protestant Sponsors. I even doubt whether we are at

But, in all these questions, I cannot forbear observing, that we may remark the wisdom of that primitive institution (which our Church has wisely retained) of Godfathers and Godmothers, as affording a way of receiving into the flock of Christ those children, for whose education their own Parents cannot satisfactorily answer. An ignorant or immoral Father may be, himself, for the present, irreclaimable; but we may always insist that the Sureties whom he adduces should be competently informed, and of life not openly immoral. And, though the decay of discipline in our own country has grievously impaired the value of such Sponsors, yet a Missionary among the Heathen both may and ought, in this respect, to exercise a sound discretion — both examining with mildness, informing with patience, and with firmness and temper deciding on the knowledge, faith, and holiness of those who themselves undertake to be the guides of the blind, and to sow the seeds of knowledge, holiness, and faith in the hearts of the young Candidates for Salvation.

That God, my Reverend Brethren, may increase and strengthen you in these and other gifts of His Spirit through His Son, and that both here and hereafter His blessing may largely follow your labours, is the prayer of

REGINALD CALCUTTA.
